Summary of Risk Factors

The purchase of Notes, Derivative Notes and Pfandbriefe (collectively, "Non Equity Securities") issued under the Programme is associated with the risks summarised below. The issue-specific risks of certain Non Equity Securities issued from time to time may only be set out in the respective Final Terms, which must therefore always be included in the assessment of risks. In this respect, investors should consider the information on the Issuer and the Notes contained in this Prospectus and in the Final Terms as well as the risks factors for their investment decision.

Prospective purchasers of the Non Equity Securities offered hereby should consider their current financial circumstances and investment objectives and always consult their own financial, legal and tax advisers with regard to the suitability of such Non Equity Securities in the light of their personal circumstances before acquiring such Non Equity Securities.

Should one or several of these risks occur, this could lead to a material and long-term decline in the price of the Non Equity Securities or, in extreme cases, to a total loss of interest and of the amount invested by the investor.

Risks related to WL BANK

Unforeseen events such as severe natural catastrophes, terrorist attacks or other comparable states of emergency can lead to an abrupt interruption of the Issuer's operations, which can cause substantial expenses and losses. Such events may also make insurance coverage for certain risks unavailable and thus increase the Issuer's risk.

As with most other mortgage banks, the Issuer relies heavily on communication and information systems to conduct its business. If, for example, the Issuer's information systems failed, even for a short period of time, it would be unable to close open positions as planned and possibly not carry out customer orders. The damage and costs arising therefrom, including expenses for the recovery of required data, may cause considerable costs and customer losses despite existing backup systems and emergency plans, which might in turn lead to a material deterioration of the Issuer's financial situation and operating result.

All divisions of the Issuer, in particular in the mortgage bond business and its cover pool business, are facing strong competition. The Issuer's focus on real estate and public sector financing is in Germany, a market on which the competitive pressure has rapidly increased. If the Issuer does not manage to meet the strong competition and the economic situation in Germany and the other major markets of the Issuer with a diligent selection of debtors and attractive and profitable products and services, its profitability could be endangered.

As a Pfandbriefbank, the Issuer is exposed to the creditworthiness of its customers and counterparties. At year-end 2011, 90% of the Issuer's mortgage loans and advances to customers were within 60% of the value of the obligation. If the value of the collateral securing the loan portfolio declines, the Issuer will be exposed to higher credit risk and increased risk of non-recovery in the event that any of its loans fail to perform.

Declining financial markets in Germany, Europe, the United States and around the world, changed interest rates due to factors beyond the Issuer's control may result in a reduction of the Issuer's net interest income, the largest source of its revenues, an increase in interest expenses and, as a result, a deterioration of the income situation eroding profitability. In some of the Issuer's business units, volatility or protracted market movements may result in a reduced market activity and decreased liquidity. Such development may lead to material losses if the Issuer cannot close out deteriorating positions in a timely way. Increasing interest rates may lead to a decrease in the demand for loans and thus the sales potential of the Issuer's loans. Decreasing official interest rates could, inter alia, affect the Issuer through, among other things, increased prepayments on its loan and increased competition for deposits. Likewise, a decrease in interest rates may affect the Issuer's ability to issue mortgage-backed securities, securitise parts of its balance sheet or otherwise issue debt securities.

If the Issuer's business environment, risk profile or profitability deteriorates, this could lead to a change in the assessment by the rating agencies. As a result, the Issuer's refinancing costs would rise, while its profitability and competitive situation would be adversely affected.

Risks related to WGZ BANK

The occurrence or realisation of the following risks can have a negative impact on WGZ BANK's net assets, financial position and results of operations.

General banking risks

WGZ BANK is exposed to the usual banking risks. These mainly include counterparty default risks, market price risks, liquidity risks, operational and strategic risks.

Counterparty default risks

Counterparty default risk is defined as the risk of a loss or lost profit due to the default or credit deterioration of a business partner. It is an important risk category, because the lending business is a core business area of WGZ BANK.

Market price risks

The market price risk of financial institutions is defined as potential losses arising from trading and investment book positions due to changes in market prices or price-influencing parameters in the financial markets. Adverse developments can have an impact on the volume of business and on earnings.

Liquidity risks

The liquidity risk (refinancing risk, market liquidity risk) of financial institutions is defined, in particular, as the risk that present or future payment obligations cannot be met in full or as of the due date for lack of liquid funds.

Operational risks

Operational risks may arise, in particular, from human behaviour, due to the inappropriateness or failure of internal procedures and systems, or as a consequence of catastrophes or external events.

Strategic risks

Strategic risks are defined as risks arising from changes in general conditions that can negatively affect the essential success potentials of WGZ BANK or the achievement of the long-term corporate goals.

Specific banking risks

Risks from a change in ratings

A change in the ratings of the respective rating agencies could lead, in particular, to higher refinancing costs.

Competitive risks

Strong competition within WGZ BANK's traditional region of operations or increased competition for the client groups served could lead to a substantial deterioration in business opportunities.

Risks arising from business interruption

The interruption of business arising from unforeseen events or force majeure may cause additional costs.

Investment risks

Investment risks may lead to unexpected losses arising from a reduction in the market value of individual investments below their book value.

Risks arising from the availment under important agreements

The possible availment under important agreements (Keep-well statements, liabilities in connection with the protection scheme of the Bundesverband der Deutschen Volksbanken und Raiffeisenbanken "BVR" and the domination and profit and loss transfer agreement (Beherrschungs- und Gewinnabführungsvertrag) is a risk for WGZ BANK.

Political risks

Political risks may arise from extraordinary political measures or political events such as political uprising, revolution or war.

Undetected or unforeseeable risks

The Bank's procedures and methods of risk limitation may not be fully effective, because the risks may arise, for example, from factors not foreseen or not adequately accounted for in the Bank's statistical models.

Risks Related to the Non Equity Securities

The risks related to the Non Equity Securities will generally include the following types of risks.

As a member of the cooperative banking sector (genossenschaftlicher FinanzVerbund) the Issuer participates in the deposit guarantee scheme operated by the Bundesverband der Deutschen Volksbanken und Raiffeisenbanken e.V. ("BVR"). Based on the by-laws of the guarantee scheme, all deposits and unsubordinated notes held by non-bank customers of the participating banks are protected without any limitation. However, the protection scheme is an institution on voluntary basis and neither Noteholders nor the Issuer or WGZ BANK have any legal right to demand or receive any payments under the protection scheme (kein Rechtsanspruch auf Hilfeleistung durch die Sicherungseinrichtung). Accordingly, investors must be aware that it is uncertain if and to which extent the protection scheme may mitigate the risk of a non-payment by the Issuer under the Notes.

The market for debt securities issued by German companies and banks is influenced by economic and market conditions in Germany and, to varying degrees, market conditions, interest rates, currency exchange rates and inflation rates in other European and other industrialised countries.

The ratings of the Issuer reflect its creditworthiness as determined by the respective rating agencies. In case of a respective change in ratings, this may have an adverse effect on the price of a Non Equity Security.

There can be no assurance that an active trading market will develop or be maintained for all Non Equity Securities. If an active trading market for the Non Equity Securities does not develop or is not maintained, the market or trading price of the Non Equity Securities and the possibility to sell the Non Equity Securities at any time may be adversely affected.

When Non Equity Securities are purchased or sold, several types of incidental and consequential costs (including transaction fees, commissions and deposit fees) are incurred in addition to the current price of the security. These incidental costs may significantly reduce or even exclude the profit potential of the Non Equity Securities.

Payments of interest on the Non Equity Securities, or profits realised by the Noteholder upon the sale or repayment of the Non Equity Securities, may be subject to taxation in its home jurisdiction or in other jurisdictions in which it is required to pay taxes. Any interest paid may only be invested at the market interest rate applicable from time to time, which may not have developed as expected.

The Issuer may be required to withhold U.S. tax in respect of Notes issued after 1 January 2013 pursuant to the foreign account provisions of the U.S. Hiring Incentives to Restore Employment Act of 2010 – FATCA.

If the purchase of Non Equity Securities is financed through loans and there is a subsequent delay or failure in payments of the Issuer with regard to the Non Equity Securities or the price decreases considerably, the Noteholder does not only have to accept the loss incurred but also pay interest on and redeem the loan. This may considerably increase the risk of loss. An investor should not rely on the prospect of being able to paying interest on or to redeem the loan out of transaction profits.

If the Final Terms provide for amendments of the Conditions of Non Equity Securities – other than Pfandbriefe – with consent of the Noteholders by way of a majority resolution in a Noteholders Meeting or a vote not requiring a physical meeting (Abstimmung ohne Versammlung) as described in Sections 5 et seq. of the German Act on Issues of Debt Securities (Schuldverschreibungsgesetz – "SchVG"), a Noteholder is subject to the risk of being outvoted by a majority resolution of the Noteholders. As such majority resolution is binding on all holders of the relevant series of Notes, certain rights of such Noteholder against the Issuer under the Conditions may be amended or reduced or even cancelled, which may have significant negative effects on the value of the Notes and the return from the Notes.

If the Final Terms of Non Equity Securities – other than Pfandbriefe – provide for the appointment of a Noteholders' joint representative, a Noteholder may be deprived of its individual right to pursue and enforce a part or all of its rights under the Conditions against the Issuer, such right passing to the Noteholders' joint representative who is then exclusively responsible to claim and enforce the relevant rights of all Noteholders of such particular series of Notes.

The terms and conditions of Non Equity Securities may contain early redemption provisions for the Issuer or – only in the case of Notes – also for the Noteholders. Upon exercise, the Non Equity Securities would be redeemed early.

An early redemption of a Non Equity Security may lead to negative deviations from the expected return and the repaid nominal amount of the Non Equity Securities is lower than the purchase price paid by the Noteholder and thus the invested capital is lost partially or completely.

Furthermore, there is the possibility that investors may invest the amounts received upon early redemption only at a rate of return which is lower than that of the terminated Non Equity Securities.

Due to varying interest income, investors are not able to determine a definite yield of Floating Rate Notes at the time they purchase them, so that their return on investment cannot be compared with that of investments having longer fixed interest periods.

The interest income of Reverse Floating Rate Notes is calculated in reverse proportion to the reference rate: if the reference rate increases, interest income decreases whereas it increases if the reference rate decreases. Investors are exposed to a high risk if the long-term market interest rates are about to increase, even if short-term interest rates decrease and that such increase in long-term market interest rates may in turn impact on the levels of short-term interest rates. In this case, increasing interest income may not adequately offset the decrease in the reverse floater's price because it cannot be excluded that such decrease might be disproportionate.

Changes in market interest rates have a substantially stronger impact on the prices of Zero Coupon Notes than on the prices of ordinary notes because the discounted issue prices are substantially below par, which is due to the discounting.

As purchasers of foreign currency notes, investors are additionally exposed to the risk of changing foreign exchange rates.

A Holder of a Target Redemption Note is exposed to the reinvestment risk in the case of automatic redemption of the Notes, i.e. of not being able to reinvest the redemption proceeds at an interest rate as high as the interest rate on the Target Redemption Notes. Due to the overall maximum amount of interest paid under the Target Redemption Notes, even in a favourable market/interest environment their market value may not rise substantially above the price at which they can be redeemed.

The holder of Daily Range Accrual Notes is exposed to the risk that interest on such Notes will not accrue and thus not be payable with respect to such days on which a reference interest rate does not fall within a pre-defined range.

Payments of interest in respect of Index-linked Interest Notes will be made by reference to a single index or other factors (including changes in the price of securities and commodities or movements in exchange rates) and/or such formula as may be specified by the Issuer in the applicable Final Terms.

In the event of any insolvency or liquidation of the Issuer, holders of Subordinated Notes will receive payments on any outstanding Subordinated Notes only after senior Noteholders and other senior creditors have been repaid in full, if and to the extent that there is still cash available for those payments. Thus, holders of Subordinated Notes generally face a higher risk of non-payment by the Issuer than holders of senior Notes.

An investment in Derivative Notes will always comprise the risk that the interest and the invested capital may be lost completely or partly.

An investment in Derivative Notes entails substantial risks. Therefore, an investment requires exact knowledge of the respective transaction. Investors should have reasonable knowledge of and experience in financial and business matters and be experienced with investments in the reference assets (e.g. shares, indices and baskets) and know the associated risks.

The reference assets underlying a Derivative Note (formulas, CMS (Constant Maturity Swap) rates, shares, share baskets, indices and index baskets, or combinations of such reference assets) may be subject to considerable changes, due to their composition or fluctuations in value of their components. A Derivative Note referring to more than one reference asset or to formulas may have a cumulative or even potentiated risk compared to a note which is only related to one reference asset. Investors may not be able to secure themselves against these different risks with regard to Derivative Notes. A material market disruption could lead to a substitution of the reference asset or a premature termination of the Note, so that the risks may be realised prematurely or any original chances are lost and new risks may be added.

Furthermore, the value of the Derivative Notes, as it is dependent on one or several reference assets, will accordingly also be subject to cumulative risks in the Secondary Market. The performance of the respective reference asset is subject to a series of associated factors, including economic, financial and political events beyond the control of the Issuer.

If the formula used to determine the amount of principal, premium and/or interest payable with respect to Derivative Notes contains a multiplier or a leverage factor, the effect of any change in the applicable reference asset will be increased with regard to the amount payable. In the case of maximum/minimum interest or repayment limits, investors may benefit from the performance of the relevant reference asset(s) only to a limited extent. The historical performance of the reference asset may not be regarded as significant for the future performance during the term of Derivative Notes.

The Issuer may enter into transactions for its own account or for account of customers, which also relate to "reference assets" under the Derivative Notes. On the issue date of the Derivative Notes or thereafter, the Issuer and its affiliated companies may have information with regard to the reference assets which may be material to the holders of Derivative Notes and which may not be accessible to the public or known to Noteholders.

Pfandbriefe

The Conditions of Inhaberpfandbriefe and the Conditions of the Jumbo Pfandbriefe will not contain any events of default and will not be issued with the benefit of a noteholder put option and will not contain a derivative redemption structure. Furthermore, in the event of the imposition of a withholding or deduction by way of tax on interest payments under the Pfandbriefe, no additional amounts will be paid to investors so that investors will receive interest payments net of such withholding or deduction. The SchVG does not apply to Pfandbriefe. In addition, Pfandbriefe are generally subject to the same risks set forth above under "Risks related to Non Equity Securities", other than risk factors with respect to Derivative Securities and/or unless explicitly indicated otherwise.

Risks related to the Keep-Well Statement

The Keep-well statement provided by WGZ BANK for the benefit of the Issuer does not constitute a guarantee. Therefore, it does not give holders of Non Equity Securities any direct payment claim against WGZ BANK in the event that the Issuer defaults with regard to payments to be made under the Non Equity Securities. No assurance is provided that WGZ BANK will remain a majority shareholder of the Issuer and, accordingly, that there will at all times be a Keep-well statement of WGZ BANK for the benefit of the Issuer.

Zusammenfassung der Risikofaktoren

Der Erwerb von unter dem Angebotsprogramm begebenen Inhaberschuldverschreibungen, derivativen Schuldverschreibungen und Pfandbriefen (zusammen "Nicht-Dividendenwerte") ist mit den im Folgenden zusammengefassten Risiken verbunden. Emissions-spezifische zusätzliche Risiken bestimmter im Einzelfall begebenen Nicht-Dividendenwerte werden in den jeweiligen Endgültigen Bedingungen dargestellt. Diese müssen daher immer mit in die Risikobetrachtung einbezogen werden. In diesem Zusammenhang sollten Anleger auch die in diesem Prospekt und in den die Emission betreffenden Endgültigen Bedingungen enthaltenen Informationen über die Emittentin, die Wertpapiere sowie über Risikofaktoren für die Anlageentscheidung heranziehen.

Anleger sollten bei der Entscheidung über einen Erwerb von Nicht-Dividendenwerten zunächst ihre jeweilige finanzielle Situation und ihre Anlageziele berücksichtigen und die Eignung solcher Nicht-Dividendenwerte angesichts ihrer persönlichen Umstände immer vor Erwerb mit ihren eigenen Finanz-, Rechts- und Steuerberatern erörtern.

Sollte eines oder sollten mehrere dieser Risiken eintreten, könnte es zu wesentlichen und nachhaltigen Kursrückgängen der Nicht-Dividendenwerte oder im Extremfall zu einem Totalverlust der Zinsen und des vom Anleger eingesetzten Kapitals kommen.

Risiken der WL BANK

Unvorhergesehene Ereignisse wie schwere Naturkatastrophen, Terroranschläge oder sonstige Ereignisse vergleichbaren Ausmaßes können eine Unterbrechung des Geschäftsbetriebes der Emittentin mit erheblichen Kosten und Verluste zur Folge haben. Solche Ereignisse können zur Folge haben, dass für bestimmte Risiken kein Versicherungsschutz mehr gegeben wird und daher das Risiko der Emittentin erhöhen.

Die Geschäftstätigkeit der Emittentin hängt, wie bei Banken üblich, in hohem Maße von funktionierenden Kommunikations- und Datenverarbeitungssystemen ab. Schon bei einem kurzen Ausfall der Datenverarbeitungssysteme könnte die Emittentin offene Positionen nicht wie geplant schließen und Kundenaufträge möglicherweise nicht ausführen. Die dadurch entstehenden Schäden und Kosten, unter anderem auch für die Wiederbeschaffung der notwendigen Daten, könnte trotz vorhandener Backup-Systeme und Notfallpläne beträchtlichen finanziellen Aufwand und Kundenverluste verursachen, die wiederum zu einer wesentlichen Verschlechterung der Finanzlage und des Betriebsergebnisses der Emittentin führen könnten.

In allen Geschäftsbereichen der Emittentin, insbesondere im Pfandbriefgeschäft und dem damit verbundenen Deckungsgeschäft herrscht starker Wettbewerb. Der Schwerpunkt des Immobilien- und Kommunalkreditgeschäfts der Emittentin liegt in Deutschland, einem Markt, auf dem der Wettbewerbsdruck rapide zugenommen hat. Wenn es der Emittentin nicht gelingen sollte, dem starken Wettbewerb und der Wirtschaftslage in Deutschland und den anderen großen Märkten der Emittentin mit sorgfältiger Schuldnerauswahl und attraktiven und profitablen Produkten und Dienstleistungen zu begegnen, könnte ihre Profitabilität gefährdet sein.

Als Pfandbriefbank ist die Emittentin Bonitätsrisiken ausgesetzt. Zum Jahresende 2010 sind 90 % des Immobilienkreditportfolios im Realkreditbereich besichert (entspricht 60 % des Beleihungswertes). Sollte die derzeitige Besicherungsquote sinken, wäre die Emittentin höheren Kredit- und Ausfallrisiken ausgesetzt.

Rückläufige Finanzmärkte in Deutschland, Europa, den USA und weltweit, veränderte Zinssätze auf Grund unbeeinflussbarer Faktoren können zu einem Rückgang des Zinsüberschusses als wichtigster Ertragsquelle der Emittentin, einer Erhöhung der Zinsausgaben und daraus resultierend zu einer Verschlechterung der Ertragslage mit einer Aushöhlung der Profitabilität führen. In einigen Geschäftsbereichen der Emittentin können Volatilität oder Seitwärtsbewegungen der Märkte zur Folge haben, dass die Markttätigkeit zurückgeht und die Liquidität sinkt. Eine solche Entwicklung kann zu erheblichen Verlusten führen, wenn es der Emittentin nicht rechtzeitig gelingt, die sich verschlechternden Positionen zu liquidieren. Steigende Zinssätze könnten einen Rückgang der Nachfrage nach Krediten und damit der Absatzmöglichkeiten von Krediten der Emittentin zur Folge haben. Sinkende Leitzinsen könnten sich u.a. durch vermehrte vorzeitige Rückzahlungen von Krediten und stärkeren Wettbewerb um Kundeneinlagen auf die Emittentin auswirken. Sinkende Zinssätze können sich auch auf die Begebung von Pfandbriefen oder anderweitige Ausgaben von Schuldtiteln durch die Emittentin nachteilig auswirken.

Sollte sich das Geschäftsumfeld der Emittentin, das Risikoprofil oder die Rentabilität verschlechtern, könnte dies zu einer geänderten Einschätzung der Ratingagenturen führen. Hierdurch könnten sich die Refinanzierungskosten erhöhen, die Rentabilität und die Wettbewerbssituation verschlechtern.

Risiken der WGZ BANK

Das Eintreten oder die Realisierung der nachfolgenden Risiken können die Vermögens-, Finanz- und Ertragslage einschließlich der Fähigkeit der WGZ BANK, ihre Verpflichtungen zu erfüllen, negativ beeinflussen.

Allgemeine Bankrisiken

Die WGZ BANK ist den üblichen Bankrisiken ausgesetzt. Solche sind vor allem Adressenausfallrisiken, Marktpreisrisiken, Liquiditätsrisiken, operationelle und strategische Risiken.

Adressenausfallrisiko

Das Adressenausfallrisiko bezeichnet das Risiko eines Verlustes oder entgangenen Gewinns auf Grund des Ausfalls oder der Bonitätsverschlechterung eines Geschäftspartners und stellt eine bedeutende Risikokategorie dar, da das Kreditgeschäft ein Kerngeschäftsfeld der WGZ BANK ist.

Marktpreisrisiko

Das Marktpreisrisiko von Kreditinstituten bezeichnet potenzielle Verluste, die sich aus Handels- und Anlagebuchpositionen auf Grund von Veränderungen von Marktpreisen oder preisbeeinflussenden Parametern an den Finanzmärkten ergeben können. Nachteilige Entwicklungen können sich auf Geschäftsvolumen und Ergebnis auswirken.

Liquiditätsrisiko

Das Liquiditätsrisiko (Refinanzierungsrisiko, Marktliquiditätsrisiko) von Kreditinstituten ist insbesondere das Risiko, gegenwärtige oder zukünftige Zahlungsverpflichtungen im Zeitpunkt der Fälligkeit mangels liquider Mittel nicht vollständig oder zeitgerecht erfüllen zu können.

Operationelles Risiko

Operationelle Risiken können insbesondere durch menschliches Verhalten, infolge der Unangemessenheit oder des Versagens von internen Prozessen oder Systemen, durch Katastrophen oder externe Ereignisse entstehen.

Strategisches Risiko

Strategische Risiken entstehen durch die Veränderung von Rahmenbedingungen und können die wesentlichen Erfolgspotenziale der WGZ BANK bzw. die Erreichung der langfristigen Unternehmensziele beeinträchtigen.

Besondere Bankrisiken

Risiko aus einer Veränderung der Ratings

Eine geänderte Einschätzung der jeweiligen Ratingagenturen könnte insbesondere zu höheren Refinanzierungskosten führen.

Wettbewerbsrisiken

Starker Wettbewerb innerhalb des angestammten Geschäftsgebietes der WGZ BANK oder verstärkter Wettbewerb um die betreuten Kundengruppen könnte zu einer wesentlichen Verschlechterung der Geschäftsmöglichkeiten führen.

Risiken durch eine Unterbrechung des Geschäftsbetriebes

Eine Unterbrechung des Geschäftsbetriebes durch unvorhergesehene Ereignisse oder Höhere Gewalt können zusätzliche Kosten verursachen.

Beteiligungsrisiken

Bei Beteiligungen können unerwartete Verluste entstehen, die sich aus einer Verminderung des Marktwertes einzelner Beteiligungen unter ihren Buchwert ergeben.

Risiken aus einer Inanspruchnahme aus wichtigen Verträgen

Die mögliche Inanspruchnahme aus wichtigen Verträgen (Patronatserklärungen und Verpflichtungen im Zusammenhang mit der Sicherungseinrichtung des Bundesverbandes der Deutschen Volksbanken und Raiffeisenbanken "BVR" und dem Beherrschungs- und Gewinnabführungsvertrag) stellen ein Risiko der WGZ BANK dar.

Politische Risiken

Politische Risiken können sich aus außerordentlichen staatlichen Maßnahmen oder politischen Ereignissen wie politischem Aufstand, Revolution oder Krieg ergeben.

Unerkannte oder unvorhersehbare Risiken

Die Verfahren und Methoden der Bank zur Begrenzung der Risiken könnten nicht voll wirksam sein, da die Risiken sich beispielsweise aus Faktoren ergeben können, die die Bank nicht vorhergesehen oder in ihren statistischen Modellen nicht angemessen berücksichtigt hat.

Risiken in Bezug auf die Nicht-Dividendenwerte

Die Risiken in Bezug auf die Nicht-Dividendenwerte umfassen im Allgemeinen die folgenden Risikoarten:

Als Mitglied des genossenschaftlichen Finanzverbunds ist die Emittentin in die Sicherungseinrichtung des Bundesverbandes der Deutschen Volksbanken und Raiffeisenbanken e.V. ("BVR") einbezogen. Auf der Basis ihres Statuts schützt die Sicherungseinrichtung bei den angeschlossenen Instituten ohne beträchtliche Begrenzung alle Einlagen und nicht nachrangige Schuldverschreibungen von Kunden, die Nichtbanken sind. Jedoch ist die Sicherungseinrichtung eine Institution auf freiwilliger Basis und weder die Inhaber von Nicht-Dividendenwerten, noch die Emittentin, noch die WGZ haben einen Rechtsanspruch auf Hilfeleistung durch die Sicherungseinrichtung. Daher sollten Investoren beachten, dass es unsicher ist, ob und in welchem Umfang die Sicherungseinrichtung eine Nicht-Zahlung der Emittentin auffangen kann.

Der Markt für von deutschen Unternehmen und Banken begebene Anleihen und deren Kurse wird von volkswirtschaftlichen Faktoren, dem Marktumfeld in Deutschland sowie in unterschiedlichem Umfang von dem Marktumfeld, Zinssätzen, Devisenkursen und Inflationsraten in anderen europäischen und sonstigen Industrieländern beeinflusst.

Die Ratings der Emittentin spiegeln deren Bonität nach Einschätzung der jeweiligen Ratingagenturen wieder. Bei Veränderungen der jeweiligen Ratings kann dies negativen Einfluss auf den Kurs eines Nicht-Dividendenwertes haben.

Ein aktiver Markt für den Handel mit den Nicht-Dividendenwerten kann nicht bei allen Nicht-Dividendenwerten sichergestellt werden mit möglicherweise nachteiligen Auswirkungen auf den Kurs bzw. Handelspreis und die jederzeitige Verkaufsmöglichkeit der Nicht-Dividendenwerte.

Beim Kauf und Verkauf von Nicht-Dividendenwerten fallen neben dem aktuellen Preis des Wertpapiers verschiedene Nebenkosten und Folgekosten (insbesondere Transaktionskosten, Provisionen, Depotentgelte) an, die das Gewinnpotential der Nicht-Dividendenwerte erheblich verringern oder sogar ausschließen können.

Zinszahlungen auf die Nicht-Dividendenwerte oder vom Anleihegläubiger bei Verkauf oder Rückzahlung der Nicht-Dividendenwerte steuerlich realisierte Gewinne sind in seiner Heimatrechtsordnung oder in anderen Rechtsordnungen, in denen er Steuern zahlen muss, möglicherweise steuerpflichtig. Die Anlage von ausgezahlten Zinsen kann nur zu jeweils aktuellen Marktzinsen erfolgen, die sich anders als erwartet entwickelt haben können.

Die Emittentin ist möglicherweise verpflichtet, in den USA gemäß den Vorschriften für ausländische Finanzinstitute des im Jahr 2010 in Kraft getretenen "Hiring Incentives to Restore Employment Act" (FATCA) Steuern im Hinblick auf nach dem 1. Januar 2013 ausgegebene Nicht-Dividendenwerte einzubehalten.

Wird der Erwerb der Nicht-Dividendenwerte mit Kredit finanziert und kommt es anschließend zu einem Zahlungsverzug oder -ausfall der Emittentin hinsichtlich der Nicht-Dividendenwerte oder sinkt der Kurs erheblich, muss der Anleihegläubiger nicht nur den eingetretenen Verlust hinnehmen, sondern auch den Kredit verzinsen und zurückzahlen. Dadurch kann sich das Verlustrisiko erheblich erhöhen. Ein Anleger sollte nicht darauf vertrauen, Zinsen in Bezug auf den Kredit aus Gewinnen eines Geschäftes begleichen oder den Kredit aus diesen Gewinnen zurückzahlen zu können.

Falls die Endgültigen Bedingungen Änderungen der Bedingungen von Nicht-Dividendenwerten – mit Ausnahme von Pfandbriefen – durch die Emittentin mit Zustimmung der Anleihegläubiger durch Mehrheitsbeschlüsse im Rahmen einer Gläubigerversammlung oder einer Abstimmung ohne Versammlung nach den Maßgaben der §§ 5 ff. des Gesetzes über Schuldverschreibungen aus Gesamtemissionen ("SchVG") vorsehen, ist ein Anleihegläubiger dem Risiko ausgesetzt, durch einen Beschluss der Anleihegläubiger überstimmt zu werden. Da ein solcher Mehrheitsbeschluss für alle Anleihegläubiger derselben Serie von Schuldverschreibungen verbindlich ist, können bestimmte Rechte des Anleihegläubigers gegen die Emittentin aus den Bedingungen geändert, eingeschränkt oder sogar aufgehoben werden, was den Wert der Schuldverschreibungen und den Ertrag aus den Schuldverschreibungen erheblich beeinträchtigen kann.

Sehen die Endgültigen Bedingungen von Nicht-Dividendenwerten – mit Ausnahme von Pfandbriefen – die Bestellung eines gemeinsamen Vertreters vor, so ist es für einen Anleihegläubiger möglich, dass sein persönliches Recht zur Geltendmachung und Durchsetzung einzelner oder aller seiner Rechte aus den Bedingungen gegenüber der Emittentin auf den gemeinsamen Vertreter übergeht, der sodann allein verantwortlich ist, die betreffenden Rechte sämtlicher Anleihegläubiger derselben Serie von Schuldverschreibungen geltend zu machen und durchzusetzen.

Die Emissionsbedingungen der Nicht-Dividendenwerte können für die Emittentin oder – nur im Fall von Schuldverschreibungen – auch für die Anleihegläubiger ein Recht zur vorzeitigen Kündigung vorsehen, dessen Ausübung zu einer vorzeitigen Rückzahlung führt.

Die vorzeitige Rückzahlung eines Nicht-Dividendenwertes kann dazu führen, dass negative Abweichungen gegenüber der erwarteten Rendite eintreten und der zurückgezahlte Nennbetrag der Nicht-Dividendenwerte niedriger als der für die Nicht-Dividendenwerte vom Anleihegläubiger gezahlte Kaufpreis ist und dadurch das eingesetzte Kapital zum Teil oder vollständig verloren ist.

Darüber hinaus besteht die Möglichkeit, dass Anleger die Beträge, die sie bei einer Kündigung erhalten, nur noch mit einer niedrigeren Rendite als die gekündigten Nicht-Dividendenwerte anlegen können.

Beim Erwerb von Floating Rate Notes können Anleger auf Grund der schwankenden Zinserträge die endgültige Rendite von Floating Rate Notes zum Kaufzeitpunkt nicht feststellen, so dass auch ein Rentabilitätsvergleich gegenüber Anlagen mit längerer Zinsbindungsfrist nicht möglich ist.

Bei Reverse Floating Rate Notes berechnet sich der Zinsertrag in entgegengesetzter Richtung zum Referenzzinssatz: Bei steigendem Referenzzinssatz sinkt der Zinsertrag, während er bei fallendem Referenzzinssatz steigt. Das Risiko für den Anleger ist hoch, wenn sich ein Anstieg der langfristigen Marktzinsen anbahnt, auch wenn die kurzfristigen Zinsen fallen und ein solcher Anstieg von langfristigen Marktzinsen kann wiederum Auswirkungen auf kurzfristige Zinsen haben. Es ist möglich, dass der steigende Zinsertrag in diesem Fall kein adäquater Ausgleich für die eintretenden Kursverluste der Reverse Floating Rate Notes ist, da nicht ausgeschlossen werden kann, dass diese überproportional ausfallen können.

Bei Nullkupon-Anleihen haben Veränderungen des Marktzinsniveaus wegen der stark unter pari liegenden Emissionskurse, die durch die Abzinsung zustande kommen, wesentlich stärkere Auswirkungen auf die Kurse als bei üblichen Anleihen.

Als Käufer von Fremdwährungsanleihen sind Anleger zusätzlich dem Risiko schwankender Devisenkurse ausgesetzt.

Gläubiger von Schuldverschreibungen mit bestimmter Zielrückzahlung (Target Redemption Notes) sind im Fall der automatischen Rückzahlung dem Wiederanlagerisiko ausgesetzt, d.h. dem Risiko, die zurückerhaltenen Mittel nicht wieder zu dem gleichen Zinssatz anlegen zu können, welcher den Schuldverschreibungen mit bestimmter Zielrückzahlung zugrunde gelegen hat. Auch bei günstigen Markt- bzw. Zinsbedingungen kann der Marktwert dieser Schuldverschreibungen den Preis, zu dem sie zurückgezahlt werden können, aufgrund des maximalen Gesamtbetrags des unter den Schuldverschreibungen gezahlten Zinses nicht wesentlich übersteigen.

Es besteht für den Gläubiger von Daily Range Accrual-Schuldverschreibungen das Risiko, dass an den Kalendertagen, an denen der Referenzzinssatz außerhalb der festgelegten Bandbreite festgestellt wird, keine Verzinsung der Schuldverschreibungen erfolgt.

Der Gläubiger von Schuldverschreibungen mit indexabhängiger Verzinsung ist dem Risiko eines schwankenden Zinsniveaus und einer gewissen Unsicherheit in Bezug auf den Zinsertrag ausgesetzt und wird möglicherweise überhaupt keine Zinsen erhalten. Je volatiler der betreffende Index ist, desto größer ist die Unsicherheit in Bezug auf die Höhe des Zinsertrages.

Inhaber von Nachrangschuldverschreibungen erhalten im Falle der Insolvenz oder der Liquidation der Emittentin Zahlungen auf ausstehende Nachrangschuldverschreibungen erst, nachdem alle anderen nicht nachrangigen Ansprüche von Gläubigern vollständig befriedigt wurden, wenn und soweit dann noch Vermögenswerte für Zahlungen auf die nachrangigen Schuldverschreibungen vorhanden sind. Im Vergleich zu Inhabern nicht nachrangiger Schuldverschreibungen tragen sie damit ein größeres Risiko dahingehend, dass die Emittentin ihren Zahlungsverpflichtungen aus den Schuldverschreibungen nicht nachkommen kann.

Eine Anlage in derivativen Schuldverschreibungen umfasst immer das Risiko des gesamten oder teilweisen Verlusts der Zinsen und des eingesetzten Kapitals.

Eine Anlage in derivativen Schuldverschreibungen ist mit erheblichen Risiken verbunden. Deshalb erfordert eine Anlage die genaue Kenntnis der Funktionsweise der jeweiligen Transaktion. Anleger sollten über das erforderliche Wissen und die erforderliche Erfahrung in finanziellen und geschäftlichen Angelegenheiten verfügen und Erfahrung mit der Anlage in die zu Grunde liegenden Basiswerte (z.B. Aktien, Indizes und Körbe) haben und die damit verbundenen Risiken kennen.

Bei dem einer derivativen Schuldverschreibung zu Grunde liegenden Basiswerten (Formeln, CMS (Constant Maturity Swap)-Sätzen, Aktien, Aktienkörben, Indizes und Indexkörben oder Kombinationen dieser Basiswerte) können wesentliche Änderungen eintreten, sei es auf Grund deren Zusammensetzung oder auf Grund von Wertschwankungen seiner Bestandteile. Eine derivative Schuldverschreibung, die auf mehr als einen Basiswert oder auf Formeln bezogen ist, hat möglicherweise ein kumulierte oder sogar potenziertes Risiko gegenüber einer Schuldverschreibung, die nur auf einen Basiswert bezogen ist. Anleger sind möglicherweise nicht in der Lage, sich gegen diese verschiedenen Risiken in Bezug auf derivative Schuldverschreibungen abzusichern. Eine wesentliche Marktstörung könnte dazu führen, dass der Basiswert ersetzt oder die Schuldverschreibung vorzeitig beendet werden muss, so dass sich Risiken vorzeitig realisieren können oder ursprüngliche Chancen verloren gehen und möglicherweise neue Risiken hinzukommen.

Darüber hinaus ist der Wert der derivativen Schuldverschreibungen zusätzlich am Sekundärmarkt auf Grund der Abhängigkeit von einem oder mehreren Basiswerten auch entsprechend kumulierten Risiken ausgesetzt. Die Wertentwicklung des jeweiligen Basiswertes hängt von einer Reihe zusammenhängender Faktoren ab, darunter volkswirtschaftliche, finanzwirtschaftliche und politische Ereignisse, über die die Emittentin keine Kontrolle hat.

Falls die Formel zur Ermittlung von auf derivative Schuldverschreibungen fällige Kapitalbeträge, Aufschläge und/oder Zinsen darüber hinaus einen Multiplikator oder einen Hebelfaktor enthält, wird die Wirkung von Veränderungen bei dem jeweiligen Basiswert für den zu zahlenden Betrag verstärkt. Im Falle von Zins- oder Rückzahlungsoben- oder -untergrenzen ist es möglich, dass Investoren nicht vollständig von der Wertentwicklung der bzw. des betreffenden Basiswerte(s) vollständig profitieren können. Eine historische Wertentwicklung des Basiswertes kann nicht als aussagekräftig für die künftige Wertentwicklung während der Laufzeit von derivativen Schuldverschreibungen angesehen werden.

Die Emittentin kann für eigene Rechnung oder für Kundenrechnung Geschäfte abschließen, die auch "Basiswerte" im Rahmen der derivativen Schuldverschreibungen betreffen. Die Emittentin und ihre verbundenen Unternehmen verfügen möglicherweise am Ausgabetag der derivativen Schuldverschreibungen oder anschließend über Informationen in Bezug auf die Basiswerte, die für Inhaber von derivativen Schuldverschreibungen möglicherweise wesentlich sind und die möglicherweise nicht öffentlich zugänglich oder den Anleihegläubigern nicht bekannt sind.

Pfandbriefe

Die Emissionsbedingungen für Inhaberpfandbriefe, Jumbopfandbriefe werden weder ein Kündigungsrecht (Event of Default) noch ein Anleihegläubigerkündigungsrecht (Noteholder Put Option) enthalten noch eine derivative Rückzahlungsstruktur enthalten. Weiterhin werden in Fällen der Auferlegung einer Quellensteuer oder der Einbehaltung in Form von gemäß den Schuldverschreibungen auf Zinszahlungen erhobenen Steuern keine zusätzlichen Beträge an die Investoren gezahlt werden, so dass Investoren Zinszahlungen abzüglich solcher Quellensteuern oder Einbehaltungen erhalten werden. Das SchVG ist nicht auf Pfandbriefe anwendbar. Im Übrigen unterliegen die Pfandbriefe grundsätzlich denselben Risiken, die bereits vorstehend unter "Risiken in Bezug auf die Nicht-Dividendenwerte" (mit Ausnahme Risikofaktoren für derivative Schuldverschreibungen) beschrieben wurden, es sei denn es ist ausdrücklich etwas anderes angegeben.

Risiken in Bezug auf die Patronatserklärung

Die von der WGZ BANK zugunsten der Emittentin abgegebene Patronatserklärung stellt keine Garantie dar. Daher resultieren aus ihr keinerlei unmittelbare Zahlungsansprüche seitens der Inhaber der Nicht-Dividendenwerte gegen die WGZ BANK im Fall einer Unfähigkeit der Emittentin, unter den Nicht-Dividendenwerten fällige Zahlungen zu leisten. Es besteht keine Garantie, dass die WGZ BANK auch in Zukunft Mehrheitsaktionärin der Emittentin bleiben wird, und dementsprechend dass es weiterhin eine Patronatserklärung seitens der WGZ BANK zugunsten der Emittentin geben wird.

Die genannten Zinsmethoden können für unterschiedliche Zinsperioden einer Schuldverschreibung kombiniert werden.
Verzinsung bei derivativen Schuldverschreibungen:	Schuldverschreibungen können, je nach Festlegung in den jeweiligen Endgültigen Bedingungen, ohne Verzinsung oder mit festem Zins oder mit einer von einem oder mehreren Basiswerten abhängigen derivativen Zinsstruktur (Abhängigkeit der Verzinsung z.B. von Formeln, CMS (Constant Maturity Swap)-Sätzen, Aktien, Aktienkörben, Indizes und Indexkörben oder Kombinationen der obengenannten Basiswerte) ausgegeben werden.

Die jeweiligen Endgültigen Bedingungen sind im Zusammenhang mit diesem Basisprospekt und seinen Nachträgen und den darin durch Verweis einbezogenen Dokumenten zu lesen.
Quellensteuer:	Zahlungen von Kapital und Zinsen werden ohne Einbehalt oder Abzug von Steuern, Abgaben, Festsetzungen oder behördlicher Gebühren jedweder Art geleistet, die von der Bundesrepublik Deutschland oder einer ihrer Gebietskörperschaften oder Behörden mit der Befugnis zur Erhebung von Steuern auferlegt, erhoben, eingezogen, einbehalten oder festgesetzt werden. Wird ein solcher Einbehalt oder Abzug gesetzlich vorgeschrieben, wird die Emittentin – vorbehaltlich einiger Ausnahmen – diejenigen zusätzlichen Beträge zahlen, die erforderlich sind, so dass die Anleihegläubiger die Beträge erhalten, die sie ohne Einbehalt oder Abzug erhalten hätten. Form der Nicht-Dividendenwerte :	Die Nicht-Dividendenwerte werden als Inhaberschuldverschreibungen nach deutschem Recht ausgegeben. Rückzahlung bei derivativen Schuldverschreibungen:	Der Rückzahlungsbetrag der derivativen Schuldverschreibungen hängt von Basiswerten ab, auf die die derivativen Schuldverschreibungen Bezug nehmen. Die Bindung an einen Basiswert kann dazu führen, dass ein Anleger sein eingezahltes Kapital nicht in voller Höhe zurück erhält oder im Extremfall einen Totalverlust des eingesetzten Kapitals erleidet. Der Einfluss des Basiswertes auf die derivativen Schuldverschreibungen kann der Höhe nach begrenzt sein. Der konkrete Zusammenhang zwischen dem betreffenden Basiswertes und den derivativen Schuldverschreibungen wird in den betreffenden Endgültigen Bedingungen festgelegt.

Schuldverschreibungen aus Gesamtemissionen (Schuldverschreibungsgesetz – "SchVG") in seiner jeweiligen gültigen Fassung vorsehen.

Risk Factors

The purchase of the Non Equity Securities issued under the Programme is associated with certain risks. The information set forth below represents the material risk factors related to an investment in the Non Equity Securities. Investors should acknowledge that issue-specific risks cannot yet be fully described below, and will therefore be set out in the relevant Final Terms. Please refer to the product information and the specific risk warnings, if any, set out in the relevant Final Terms for further information with respect to specific risks arising from the relevant underlying and the details of the relevant payout-profile of the Non Equity Securities. Investors should take into account their current financial situation and their investment objectives before deciding whether to invest in the Non Equity Securities. In this context, they should take into consideration the risks of an investment in the Non Equity Securities set out below in particular, in addition to the other information contained in this Base Prospectus.

Risk Factors relating to the Issuer

If one or more of the risks described below occur, this could have an adverse effect on the Issuer's financial condition and results of operations and this may result in material and sustained decreases in the price of the Non Equity Securities or, in the worst case, in a total loss of the capital invested by the Investor.

The Issuer's levels of profitability are tied to its access to low cost funds. The Issuer's costs of funds may prove to be more expensive in the future than was the case historically and more expensive than currently contemplated in the Issuer's plans.

Due to the nature of the Issuer's business, it does not have access to a large base of customer deposits as an inexpensive source of funds. Its principal sources of funds instead include mortgage Pfandbriefe and public sector Pfandbriefe.

The Issuer's risk management policies, procedures and methods may – despite compliance with statutory provisions – be insufficient and leave the Issuer exposed to unidentified or unanticipated risks, which could lead to material losses.

The Issuer has devoted significant resources to developing its risk management policies, procedures and assessment methods and intends to continue to do so in the future. The Issuer's techniques and strategies may not be fully effective in mitigating its risk exposure in all economic market environments or against all types of risk, including risks that the Issuer fails to identify or anticipate. Some of the Issuer's qualitative tools and metrics for managing risk are based upon its use of observed historical market behaviour. The Issuer applies statistical and other tools to these observations to arrive at quantifications of its risk exposures. These tools and metrics may fail to predict future risk exposures. These risk exposures could, for example, arise from factors the Issuer did not anticipate or correctly evaluate in its statistical models. In addition, the Issuer's quantified modelling does not take all risks into account. Its more qualitative approach to managing those risks could prove insufficient, exposing it to material unanticipated losses. If the Issuer's risk management turns out to be inadequate, losses greater than anticipated could harm the Issuer's revenues and profits as well as its reputation.

Unforeseen events can interrupt the Issuer's operations and cause substantial losses and additional costs.

Unforeseen events like severe natural catastrophes, terrorist attacks or other states of emergency can lead to an abrupt interruption of the Issuer's operations, which can cause substantial losses. Such losses can relate to property, financial assets, trading positions and to key employees. Such unforeseen events can also lead to additional costs (such as cost triggered by the relocation of employees affected) and increase the Issuer's costs (such as insurance premiums). Such events may also make insurance coverage for certain risks unavailable and thus increase the Issuer's risk.

Risk factors regarding the real estate business.

As a credit institution, the Issuer is exposed to the creditworthiness of its customers and counterparties. At year-end 2011, 90% of the Issuer's mortgage loans and advances to customers were within 60% of the value of the obligation. If the value of the collateral securing the loan portfolio declines, the Issuer will be exposed to higher credit risk and increased risk of non-recovery in the event that any of its loans fail to perform. At 31 December 2011, the Issuer's balance of possible bad debt provisions was EUR 22.2 million, and its level was 0.16% of the real estate portfolio. The Issuer cannot assure that its level of risk provisioning will be adequate or that it will not have to make significant additional provisions for possible bad and doubtful debts in future periods.

Risk factors relating to public sector credits and capital markets business.

The capital markets portfolio contains public debtors as well as credit institutions that are privately organised and organised under public law, within Germany and abroad. The main emphasis of the capital markets portfolio are public sector loans and the securities business with public debtors or credit institutions organised under public law that meet the requirements for the cover pool.

In addition, the capital markets portfolio contains the interbank business with its derivative and financial operations as well as the purchase of listed or registered notes for the investment of capital.

The classical public sector loan business with local authorities is classified by a large diversification. Generally, these have small amounts with the possibility of an early redemption. In order to enlarge its offerings, the bank increased its cash credits with an average maturity of 60 days. To a lesser extent, the portfolio contains structured public sector loans and cash credits.

The less important credit instruments within the public sector credit business are loans against borrowers notes (Schuldscheindarlehen) and notes of public debtors. These notes have generally a high fungibility with a maturity. The volumes of securities are generally larger than those of loans against borrower notes and Sparkassenbriefe. In addition to the public sector business of the Issuer, the Issuer's credit portfolio also contains to a lesser extent securities of banks.

Therefore, the credit default risk of these portfolios could change due to a negative development in the economy.

An interruption in or breach of the Issuer's information systems may result in losses.

As with most other banks, the Issuer relies heavily on communications and information systems to conduct its business. Any failure or interruption or breach in security of these systems could result in failures or interruptions in the Issuer's customer relationship management, general ledger, deposit, servicing and/or loan organisation systems. If, for example, the Issuer's information systems failed, even for a short period of time, it would be unable to timely serve some customers' needs and could thus lose their business. Likewise, a temporary shut-down of the Issuer's information systems, even though it has back-up recovery systems and contingency plans, could result in considerable costs that are required for information retrieval and verification. The Issuer's cannot provide assurances that such failures or interruptions will not occur or, if they do occur, that they will be adequately addressed. The occurrence of any failures or interruptions could have a material adverse effect on the Issuer's financial condition and results of operations.

Intense competition, especially in the Issuer's home market of Germany, where the Issuer conducts the majority of its business, could materially adversely affect the Issuer's revenues and profitability.

Competition is intense in all of the Issuer's primary business areas in Germany and other European countries and the United States. The Issuer derived most of its operating profit after risk provisioning and evaluation in 2011 from Germany, a market where competitive pressures have been increasing quickly. If the Issuer is unable to respond to the competitive environment in Germany or in the Issuer's other major markets with attractive and profitable products and service offerings, it may lose market share in important areas of its business or incur losses on some or all of its activities.

Market declines and high volatility can materially adversely affect the Issuer's profits.

Conditions in the financial markets in Germany, in Europe, in the United States and around the world materially affect the Issuer's businesses. An overall market downturn can adversely affect the Issuer's business and financial performance. Market downturns can occur not only as a result of purely economic factors, but also as a result of war, acts of terrorism, natural disasters or other similar events. Market declines can cause a reduction of the Issuer's net interest income, the largest source of its revenues, an increase in interest expenses, and, if the Issuer is unable to reduce its expenses at the same pace, can cause a deterioration of the income situation eroding profitability of the Issuer. Volatility can sometimes also adversely affect the Issuer's business and results of operations.

In some of the Issuer's businesses, protracted market movements, particularly asset price declines, can reduce the level of activity in the market or reduce market liquidity. These developments can lead to material losses if the Issuer cannot close out deteriorating positions in a timely way. This may be especially the case, if the Issuer holds assets which are not traded on liquid markets. Assets that are not traded on stock exchanges or other public trading markets may have values that the Issuer calculates using models other than publicly-quoted prices. Monitoring the deterioration of prices of assets like these is difficult and could lead to losses the Issuer did not anticipate. In particular, increasing interest rates may lead to a decrease in the demand for loans and thus the sales potential of the Issuer's loans, where decreasing official interest rates could, inter alia, affect the Issuer through, among other things, increased prepayments on its loan and increased competition for deposits. Likewise, a decrease in interest rates may affect the Issuer's ability to issue mortgage-backed securities, securitise parts of its balance sheet or otherwise issue debt securities.

The Issuer operates in a difficult economic environment.

Approximately 100% of the Issuer's real estate loan business is originated in Germany. Operating conditions for banks in Germany remain difficult, as economic growth is expected to be moderate positive in 2012 and the number of insolvencies of companies over the past several years has been high. Necessary structural reforms by changing German laws and regulations are only taking place slowly. As a result, the German economy is increasingly dependent on exports. The great importance of export markets for Germany means that even more than in the past, a decline in growth in Europe, the United States or Asia may have greater adverse effects in Germany than in other western European countries. Any further deterioration of the economy in Germany could have a material and adverse effect on the Issuer's financial condition and results of operation.

It is uncertain whether and when the consolidation of the German banking industry will materialise and what the effects for the Issuer will be.

Many market analysts expect that further consolidation of the German banking industry will take place in the future. The concept of consolidation has been explicitly endorsed by German government officials. The consolidation may involve private sector banks, public sector banks and cooperative banks and may also involve non-German banks. This consolidation could take various forms, ranging from full-fledged bank mergers and acquisitions to partnerships and joint ventures in discrete service areas. If this further bank consolidation does take place, it may result in the German banking market becoming even more competitive than it is today.

Volatility in interest rates may negatively affect the Issuer's net interest income and have other adverse consequences.

As with any bank, changes in market interest rates could affect the interest rates the Issuer charges on its interest-earning assets differently than the interest rates it pays on its interest-bearing liabilities. This difference could result in an increase in interest expense relative to interest income, which would reduce the Issuer's net interest income, the largest source of its revenues. An increase in interest rates may reduce the demand for loans and the Issuer's ability to originate loans. A decrease in the general level of interest rates may affect the Issuer through, among other things, increased prepayments on its loan and mortgage portfolio and increased competition for deposits. Likewise, a decrease in interest rates may affect the Issuer's ability to issue mortgage-backed securities, securitise parts of its balance sheet or otherwise issue debt securities. Interest rates are highly sensitive to many factors beyond the Issuer's control, including monetary policies and domestic and international economic and political conditions.

General Banking Risks

The Issuer is subject to the general banking risks which can have a negative impact on its economic situation. These general banking risks can have an adverse effect on the financial condition and results of operations, and the value of the issued product could decrease.

Risks may arise in particular in the form of counterparty default risks, market price risks, liquidity risks, operational and strategic risks.

Counterparty default risk describes the risk of a loss or lost profit due to default or credit deterioration on the part of a business partner; it includes default risk, counterparty credit risk, country risk and shareholder risk.

Market price risks are defined as potential losses that can result from trading and investment book positions due to adverse changes in market prices or price-influencing parameters in the financial markets. This includes in particular the interest rate risk.

Liquidity risk is the risk that present or future payment obligations cannot be met in full at the due date (liquidity risk in the narrower sense), or that refinancing capital can only be raised at higher rates than expected (refinancing risk), or that business transactions can only be liquidated or settled at a loss or not at all due to insufficient market depth or market disruptions (market liquidity risk).

Operational risks are potential future events with adverse effects on the Issuer, resulting from inadequate or failed internal processes, people and systems failure or from external events.

The Issuer defines strategic risks as risks resulting from changes in basic conditions, such as customer requirements, competition, or technological changes, which could adversely affect the Issuer's essential success potentials or the achievement of long-term corporate goals.

Risks from a Change in Ratings

Ratings are credit assessments of financial instruments and their issuers under a uniform procedure by independent rating agencies. It is a standardised credit assessment of bonds and money market instruments. The rating given by a rating agency presents the view of such rating agency with respect to the ability of issuers to meet their future obligations fully and on time. The respective rating provides investors with comparable criteria for their investment decisions.

Internationally recognised rating agencies are Standard & Poor's, Moody's Investors Service and Fitch Ratings. WL BANK is rated by Standard & Poor's and Fitch. The published ratings are subject to ongoing review and may be changed at any time.

The current ratings are as follows:

	Standard & Poor's	Fitch*
Public sector Pfandbriefe	AAA	-
Mortgage Pfandbriefe	AAA	-
Long-term liabilities	AA-	A+
Short-term liabilities	A-1+	F1+

* Verbund rating cooperative financial group Volksbanken Raiffeisenbanken

Standard & Poor's

AAA

An obligation rated "AAA" is the highest possible rating. The capacity of the obligor to meet its financial commitments on the obligation is to be viewed as extremely strong.

AA-

An obligation rated "AA" differs from the highest rated obligations only in small degree. The obligor's capacity to meet its financial commitment on the obligation is very strong. The ratings may be modified by the addition of a plus (+) or minus (-) sign to show relative standing within the major rating categories.

A-1+

"A-1" is the highest possible rating for a short-term obligation. The capacity of the obligor to meet its financial commitments on the obligation is to be viewed as strong. Within this category several short-term obligations are designated with a plus sign (+). This indicates that the capacity of the obligor to meet its financial commitments is to be viewed as extremely strong. Should the Issuer's rating deteriorate, the Issuer's refinancing costs could increase and deteriorate both profitability and the competitive situation.

This could have an adverse effect on the financial condition and results of operations, and the value of the issued product could decrease.

Fitch Ratings

A+

"A" ratings denote expectations of low default risk. The capacity for payment of financial commitments is considered strong. This capacity may, nevertheless, be more vulnerable to adverse business or economic conditions than is the case for higher ratings; may have an added "+" to denote any exceptionally strong credit feature.

F1+

"F1" is the highest possible rating for short-term credit quality. It indicates the strongest intrinsic capacity for timely payment of financial commitments; may have an added "+" to denote any exceptionally strong credit feature.

Risk Factors relating to WGZ BANK

General Banking Risks

WGZ BANK is exposed to the usual banking risks, which may negatively affect its economic situation. These usual banking risks can have a negative impact on WGZ BANK's net assets, financial position and results of operations.

In particular, risks may arise in the form of counterparty default risks, market price risks, liquidity risks, operational risks and strategic risks.

Counterparty default risks

Counterparty default risk is defined as the risk of a loss or lost profit due to the default or credit deterioration of a business partner, and it includes the following risks:

- (a) Credit or default risk is defined as the risk of loss if a borrower is unable to meet its obligation under a loan agreement, for example because of insolvency. Distinction must be made between individual credit risks and credit portfolio risks.
- (b) Counterparty risk is defined as the risk of loss if a counterparty fails to meet its payment or delivery obligations, in particular within the framework of trading transactions.
- (c) Country risk includes all risks arising from international transactions that are not caused by the contractual partner itself, but by the country in which it is based. The risks arise, in particular, from the immediate economic, social and/or political environment of a certain country and must be defined specifically for the respective country.
- (d) Shareholder risk is defined as the risk of a loss that may arise from the provision of equity capital to third parties.

Counterparty default risk is an important risk category, because the lending business is a core business area of WGZ BANK.

Market Price Risks

Market price risk is defined as potential losses arising from trading and investment book positions (in the categories of equities, bonds, foreign exchange and derivatives) due to adverse changes in market prices or price-influencing parameters (including changes in volatility or liquidity) in the financial markets.

Such adverse changes can lead to unforeseeable losses, a deterioration of the earnings situation, or a deterioration of WGZ BANK's business and operating result.

Changes in interest rates can also have a negative impact via the fixed-price risk, if both fixed conditions and variable conditions have been agreed upon.

Liquidity Risks

Liquidity risk is defined as the risk that present or future payment obligations cannot be met in full at the due date for lack of liquid funds (operational liquidity risk), or that funding needs can only be covered at higher rates than expected (structural liquidity risk), or that business transactions can only be liquidated or settled at a loss or not at all due to insufficient market depth or market disruptions (market liquidity risk).

Operational Risks

Operational or business risks are potential future events with negative effects on WGZ BANK, which arise, in particular, from human error, the inappropriateness or failure of internal procedures and systems, or as a consequence of external events. Subrisks include, in particular, personnel risks, legal risks, and risks relating to buildings, technology, and IT systems.

Strategic risks

Strategic risks are defined as risks arising from changes in general conditions, such as customer needs, competitive conditions, or technological change. They can negatively affect the Bank's essential success potentials or the achievement of the long-term corporate goals.

Specific banking risks

Risks arising from a change in rating

WGZ BANK has obtained a voluntary assessment from Moody's Investors Service. The rating agency carries out a neutral assessment of the business environment WGZ BANK operates in. This assessment by the rating agency is meant to give investors an overview of WGZ BANK's solvency. The published rating is reviewed continuously and may be subject to change.

The cooperative financial services association (Genossenschaftliche FinanzGruppe Volksbanken Raiffeisenbanken), including WGZ BANK, has received a rating from Fitch Ratings. This assessment is meant to give investors an overview of the network's solvency. The published rating is reviewed continuously and may be subject to change.

Any deterioration in WGZ BANK's or the network's business environment, risk profile or profitability could lead to changes in the assessments by the respective rating agencies. As a result, refinancing costs would increase, which in turn would lead to reduced profitability and a worse competitive situation.

This could have a negative impact on the net assets, financial position and results of operations.

Competitive risks

WGZ BANK's traditional area of operations comprises North Rhine-Westphalia and parts of Rhineland-Palatinate. Strong competition in Germany, particularly in West Germany, or strong competition for traditional customer groups, including small and medium-sized corporate clients, could lead to a material deterioration in business opportunities and conditions.

This could have a negative impact on the net assets, financial position and results of operations.

Risks arising from business interruption

Unforeseen events such as severe natural disasters, terrorist attacks or other states of emergency of a similar scale could lead to an interruption of WGZ BANK's operations and could cause substantial losses – for example relating to property, financial assets, trading positions and key employees. Such unforeseen events could also lead to additional costs and increase the Bank's costs (such as for insurance premiums). These types of event may also make it impossible for the Bank to obtain insurance coverage for certain risks and thus increase its overall risk.

Investment risks

Investment risks are defined as the danger of unexpected losses arising from a reduction in the market value of WGZ BANK's investments below their book value.

Risks arising from the availment under important agreements

WGZ BANK has entered into important agreements under which it may have to meet obligations. These agreements include Keep-well statements, the membership of the protection scheme existing at the Bundesverband der Deutschen Volksbanken und Raiffeisenbanken e.V. (BVR) and the Domination and profit and loss transfer agreement.

Keep-well statements (Patronatserklärungen)

With the exemption of political risk and to the extent of its direct and indirect participation share, WGZ BANK will ensure that WL BANK AG Westfälische Landschaft Bodenkreditbank, WGZ BANK Ireland plc and Impetus Bietergesellschaft mbH will be able to meet their obligations. The availment could have a negative impact on the net assets, financial position and results of operations.

Obligations in connection with the protection scheme of the BVR

WGZ BANK is a member of the protection scheme existing at the Bundesverband der Deutschen Volksbanken und Raiffeisenbanken e.V. (BVR), with a guarantee fund and a guarantee network. It participates in the scheme with contributions and guarantee obligations. Details are determined by the statutes of the protection scheme.

With the resources accumulated in the guarantee fund and the guarantee obligation made within the framework of the guarantee network, the protection scheme implements restructuring measures in favour of a member bank of the Bundesverband if this bank is not able to overcome impending or existing economic difficulties on its own.

After revision of the statutes of the protection scheme the basic levy contribution for WGZ BANK is 0.5‰ in 2011. For WGZ BANK, the basic levy contribution amounted to EUR 3,150 thousand in 2011. The calculation of the basic levy contribution is largely based on the balance sheet item, loans and advances to customers.

Within the framework of the guarantee fund, WGZ BANK's contribution amounted to EUR 9,450 thousand in 2011 according to the previous basis of calculation). But according to the statutes, the annual amount can be fixed at a maximum of five times the basic levy contribution.

Within the framework of the guarantee network, WGZ BANK has assumed a guarantee obligation equal to eight times the basic levy contribution to the guarantee fund (corresponding to EUR 25,200 thousand for 2011).

The guarantee obligation made within the framework of the guarantee network and a possibly increased availment under the obligations in connection with the protection scheme of the BVR could have a negative impact on the net assets, financial position and results of operations.

Risk Factors relating to the Domination and Profit and Loss Transfer Agreement

On 25 October 2011, WL BANK and WGZ BANK entered into a domination and profit and loss transfer agreement (Beherrschungs- und Gewinnabführungsvertrag) with a fixed term of six years, starting with the beginning of the business year in which it was entered into the commercial register (Handelsregister). The agreement has been entered into the commercial register on 12 December 2011. Pursuant the domination and profit and loss transfer agreement but subject to Section 301 of the German Stock Corporation Act (Aktiengesetz – "AktG"), WL BANK shall transfer its total profit to WGZ BANK. Pursuant to Section 302 AktG, WGZ BANK shall compensate any annual loss occurring during the term of the domination and profit and loss transfer agreement in return.

The realisation of the domination and profit and loss transfer agreement may have negative effects on the assets, liabilities, financial position and financial performance (Vermögens-, Finanz- und Ertragslage) of WGZ BANK and may have negative effects on the value of Notes of WL BANK.

Political risks

"Political risks" within the meaning of this paragraph are defined as extraordinary political measures or political events such as political uprising, revolution or war. These risks could lead to a substantial deterioration in WGZ BANK's business opportunities and thus also have a negative impact on the net assets, financial positions and results of operations.

Undetected or unforeseeable risks

Despite compliance with the legal requirements, WGZ BANK's methods and procedures for measuring, monitoring and controlling risks may be insufficient and could expose the Bank to undetected or unforeseeable risks.

For instance, it could turn out that the Bank's procedures and measures of risk limitation are not fully effective in a certain economic environment or with regard to certain risks, including such risks that the Bank does not recognise or foresee. The instruments could be inappropriate to assess future risks that may arise, for example, from factors not foreseen by the Bank or not adequately accounted for in its statistical models. This could lead to significant unexpected losses.

Risk Factors relating to the Non Equity Securities

Risk Factors Relating to Notes

If one or more of the risks described below occur, this may result in material and sustained decreases in the price of the Notes or, in the worst case, in a total loss of the capital invested by the Investor.

Noteholders may not rely on the deposit guarantee scheme.

According to the current legal position, the obligations of the Issuer under the Notes (and like the obligations of other issuers under bearer notes or Pfandbriefe, respectively) are not protected by the German statutory deposit protection scheme pursuant to the German Act on Deposit Protection and Investors' Compensation (Einlagensicherungs- und Anlegerentschädigungsgesetz).

Nevertheless, as a member of the cooperative banking sector (genossenschaftlicher FinanzVerbund) the Issuer participates in the deposit guarantee scheme operated by the Bundesverband der Deutschen Volksbanken und Raiffeisenbanken e.V. ("BVR"). Based on the by-laws of the guarantee scheme, all deposits and unsubordinated notes held by non-bank customers of the participating banks are protected without any limitation. Furthermore, the BVR scheme warrants the solvency of the participating banks themselves (so-called institution-based protection): Pursuant to its statutes and to the extent possible, the guarantee scheme provides that, in case of any financial difficulties, participating banks are to be always financially rehabilitated and supported to meet all their legal obligations.

However, the protection scheme is an institution on voluntary basis and neither Noteholders nor the Issuer or WGZ BANK have any legal right to demand or receive any payments under the protection scheme (kein Rechtsanspruch auf Hilfeleistung durch die Sicherungseinrichtung). Accordingly, investors must be aware that it is uncertain if and to which extent the protection scheme may mitigate the risk of a non-payment by the Issuer under the Notes.

A change of the respective ratings of the Issuer may effect the price of a Non Equity Security.

If the Issuer's business environment, risk profile or profitability deteriorates, this could lead to a change in the assessment by the respective rating agencies. As the ratings of the Issuer reflect its creditworthiness as determined by the respective rating agency, the change of such rating may have an adverse effect on the price of a Non Equity Security.

The trading market for debt securities may be volatile and may be adversely impacted by many events.

The market for debt securities issued by German companies and banks is influenced by economic and market conditions in Germany and, to varying degrees, by market conditions, interest rates, currency exchange rates and inflation rates in other European and other industrialised countries. There can be no assurance that events in Germany, Europe or elsewhere will not cause market volatility or that such volatility will not adversely affect the price of Notes or that economic and market conditions will not have any other adverse effect.

An active trading market for the Notes may not develop.

There can be no assurance that an active trading market for the Notes will develop, or, if one does develop, that it will be maintained. If an active trading market for the Notes does not develop or is not maintained, the market or trading price and liquidity of the Notes may be adversely affected. The Issuer and its affiliates are entitled to buy and sell the Notes for their own account or for the account of others, and to issue further Notes. Such transactions may favourably or adversely affect the price development of the Notes. If additional and competing products are introduced in the markets, this may adversely affect the value of the Notes.

Any right of termination at the option of the Issuer, if provided for in any Final Terms for a particular issue of Notes, could cause the yield anticipated by Noteholders to be considerably less than anticipated.

The Final Terms for a particular issue of Notes may provide for a right of termination of the Issuer. If the Issuer exercises its termination option, the yields received upon redemption may be lower than expected, and the redeemed face amount of the Notes may be lower than the purchase price for the Notes paid by the Noteholder. As a consequence, part of the capital invested by the Noteholder may be lost, so that the Noteholder in such case would not receive the total amount of the capital invested. In addition, investors that have received monies prematurely may reinvest such monies only in securities with a lower yield than the redeemed Notes.

A Noteholder's actual yield on the Notes may, as a result of transaction costs, be lower than the stated yield.

When Notes are purchased or sold, several types of incidental costs (including transaction fees and commissions) are incurred in addition to the current price of the security. These incidental costs may significantly reduce or even exclude the profit potential of the Notes. For instance, credit institutions as a rule charge their clients for own commissions which are either fixed minimum commissions or pro-rata commissions depending on the order value. To the extent that additional – domestic or foreign – parties are involved in the execution of an order, including but not limited to domestic dealers or brokers in foreign markets, Noteholders must take into account that they may also be charged for the brokerage fees, commissions and other fees and expenses of such parties (third party costs).

In addition to such costs directly related to the purchase of securities (direct costs), Noteholders must also take into account any follow-up costs (such as custody fees). Investors should inform themselves about any additional costs incurred in connection with the purchase, custody or sale of the Notes before investing in the Notes.

The Issuer may be required to withhold U.S. tax in respect of Notes issued after 1 January 2013 pursuant to the foreign account provisions of the U.S. Hiring Incentives to Restore Employment Act of 2010 – FATCA.

The Issuer and other non-U.S. financial institutions through which payments on the Notes are made may be required to withhold U.S. tax at a rate of 30 per cent. on all, or a portion of, payments made after 31 December 2016 in respect of any Notes issued after 1 January 2013 pursuant to the foreign account provisions of the U.S. Hiring Incentives to Restore Employment Act of 2010 ("FATCA"). This withholding tax may be triggered if (i) the Issuer is a foreign financial institution ("FFI") (as defined in FATCA) which enters into and complies with an agreement with the U.S. Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") to provide certain information on its account holders (a term which includes the holders of its debt or equity interests that are not regularly traded on an established securities market) making the Issuer a "Participating FFI", (ii) the Issuer has a positive "passthru percentage" (as defined in FATCA), and (iii) (a) an investor does not provide information sufficient for the Participating FFI to determine whether the investor is a U.S. person or should otherwise be treated as holding a "United States Account" of such Issuer, or (b) any FFI through which payment on such Notes is made is not a Participating FFI.

The application of FATCA to interest, principal or other amounts paid with respect to the Notes is not clear.

If an amount in respect of U.S. withholding tax were to be deducted or withheld from interest, principal or other payments on the Notes as a result of a holder's failure to comply with these rules or as a result of the presence in the payment chain of a non-Participating FFI, none of the Issuer, any paying agent or any other person would, pursuant to the Terms and Conditions of the Notes be required to pay additional amounts as a result of the deduction or withholding of such tax.

As a result, investors may, if FATCA is implemented as currently proposed by the IRS, receive less interest or principal than expected. Holders of the Notes should consult their own tax advisers on how these rules may apply to payments they receive under the Notes.

The application of FATCA to Notes issued after 1 January 2013 may be addressed in the relevant Final Terms or a supplement to this Base Prospectus, as applicable.

Margin lending, where it is permitted, can materially increase the risk to a Noteholder of non-performance of the Notes.

If a loan is used to finance the acquisition of the Notes and the Notes subsequently go into default, or if the trading price diminishes significantly, the Noteholder not only has to face a potential loss on its investment, but it will also have to repay the loan and pay interest thereon. This may significantly increase the risk of a loss. Investors should not assume that they will be able to repay the loan or pay interest thereon from the profits of a transaction. Instead, investors should assess their financial situation prior to an investment, as to whether they are able to pay interest on the loan, or to repay the loan on demand, even if they may suffer losses instead of realising gains.

Noteholder Resolutions amending the Conditions of the Notes in accordance with the German Act on Issues of Debt Securities may have significant negative effects on such Notes.

If the Final Terms provide that the Conditions of a series of Non Equity Securities – other than Pfandbriefe – may be amended by way of a majority resolution in a Noteholders Meeting or a vote not requiring a physical meeting (Abstimmung ohne Versammlung) as described in Sections 5 et seq. of the German Act on Issues of Debt Securities (Schuldverschreibungsgesetz – "SchVG"), the Issuer may subsequently amend by the Conditions with the consent of the majority of Noteholders specified in the Final Terms, which amendment will be binding on all Noteholders the relevant Series of Notes even if they may have voted against the change.

Therefore, a Noteholder is subject to the risk of being outvoted by a majority resolution of the Noteholders. As such majority resolution is binding on all Noteholders of a particular Series of Notes, certain rights of such Noteholders against the Issuer under the Terms and Conditions may be amended or reduced or even cancelled, which may have significant negative effects on the value of the Notes and the return from the Notes.

An appointment of a Noteholders' joint representative may deprive the Noteholder's rights to enforce its rights under the Conditions of the Notes.

If the Final Terms of Non Equity Securities – other than Pfandbriefe – provide for the appointment of a Noteholders' joint representative, either in the Terms and Conditions or by a majority resolution of the Noteholders, a holder may be deprived of its individual right to pursue and enforce a part or all of its rights under the Conditions against the Issuer, such right passing to the Noteholders' joint representative who is then exclusively responsible to claim and enforce the rights of all the Noteholders.

A Noteholder's effective yield on the Notes may be diminished by the tax impact on that Noteholder of its investment in the Notes.

Payments of interest on the Notes, or profits realised by the Noteholder upon the sale or repayment of the Notes, may be subject to taxation in its home jurisdiction or in other jurisdictions in which it is required to pay taxes.

An investment in the Notes entails tax risks. Examples of taxation risk that investors should consider together with their advisors include the risk of double taxation (in Germany and their home jurisdiction).

Investors will not be able to calculate in advance their rate of return on Floating Rate Notes.

A key difference between Floating Rate Notes and Fixed Rate Notes is that interest income on Floating Rate Notes cannot be anticipated. Due to varying interest income, investors are not able to determine a definite yield of Floating Rate Notes at the time they purchase them, so that their return on investment cannot be compared with that of investments having longer fixed interest periods. If the Conditions of the Notes provide for frequent interest payment dates, investors are exposed to the reinvestment risk if market interest rates decline. That is, investors may reinvest the interest income paid to them only at the relevant lower interest rates then prevailing.

Reverse Floating Rate Notes are subject to sharp price fluctuations.

The interest income of Reverse Floating Rate Notes is calculated in reverse proportion to the reference rate: if the reference rate increases, interest income decreases whereas it increases if the reference rate decreases. Unlike the price of ordinary Floating Rate Notes, the price of Reverse Floating Rate Notes is highly dependent on the yield of Fixed Rate Notes having the same maturity. Price fluctuations of Reverse Floating Rate Notes are parallel but are substantially sharper than those of Fixed Rate Notes having a similar maturity. Investors are exposed to the risk that long-term market interest rates will increase even if short-term interest rates decrease and that such increase in long-term market interest rates may in turn impact on the levels of short-term interest rates. In this case, increasing interest income may not adequately offset the decrease in the reverse floater's price because it cannot be excluded that such decrease might be disproportionate.

Zero Coupon Notes are subject to higher price fluctuations than non-discounted notes.

Changes in market interest rates have a substantially stronger impact on the prices of Zero Coupon Notes than on the prices of ordinary notes because the discounted issue prices are substantially below par. If market interest rates increase, Zero Coupon Notes can suffer higher price losses than other notes having the same maturity and a comparable credit rating. Due to their leverage effect, Zero Coupon Notes are a type of investment associated with a particularly high price risk.

An investment in Notes with derivative interest structures is subject to additional risks.

In the case of Notes with derivative interest structures, the interest rate is coupled with a reference asset. Therefore, the interest claim is essentially subject to the risks described under "Additional Risks Relating to Derivative Notes". If the Notes are terminated prematurely or sold before maturity, there will further be the risk that part of the invested capital is lost.

In particular, payments of interest in respect of Index-linked Interest Notes will be made by reference to a single index or a basket of indices or other factors (including changes in the price of securities and commodities or movements in exchange rates) and/or such formula as may be specified by the Issuer and the relevant Dealer(s) (as specified in the relevant Final Terms). A Holder of Index-linked Interest Notes is particularly exposed to the risk of fluctuating interest rate levels and uncertain interest income or may even receive no interest at all which may have the effect that the yield of Index-linked Interest Notes is negative. Investors should be aware that the market price of Index-linked Interest Notes may be very volatile (depending on the volatility of the relevant index). Neither the current nor the historical value of the relevant index should be taken as an indication of the future performance of such index during the term of any Note. The more volatile the relevant index is, the greater is the volatility of the market price of such Notes and uncertainty in respect of interest income. This uncertainty makes it impossible to determine the yield of Index-linked Interest Notes in advance.

Target Redemption Notes are subject to specific market value and reinvestment risks.

The automatic redemption feature of Target Redemption Notes may limit their market value. Due to the overall maximum amount of interest paid under Target Redemption Notes, even in a favourable market/interest environment their market value may not rise substantially above the price at which they can be redeemed. The automatic redemption may take place when the cost of borrowing is generally lower than at the issue date of the relevant Instruments. At those times, an investor generally would not be able to reinvest the redemption proceeds at an effective interest rate as high as the interest rate on the Target Redemption Notes being redeemed and may only be able to do so at a significantly lower interest rate. Potential investors should consider reinvestment risk in light of other investments available at that time.

Daily Range Accrual Notes may bear no interest at all or for a significant period of time.

The Holder of Daily Range Accrual Notes is particularly exposed to the risk that interest on such Notes will not accrue on a day when a reference rate does not fall within a pre-defined range. The actual amount of the annual interest payment depends on the development of the reference rate. Interest will only be payable for those calendar days on which the reference rate is determined to be within the pre-defined range. For those calendar days on which the reference rate is determined to be outside the pre-defined range the Holder of Daily Range Accrual Notes is not entitled to receive interest payment.

Foreign currency notes expose investors to foreign-exchange risk as well as to issuer risk.

As purchasers of foreign currency notes, investors are exposed to the risk of changing foreign exchange rates. This risk is in addition to any risks that relate to the Issuer's ability to pay its debts or to the particular type of Note being issued.

Holders of Subordinated Notes face a significantly increased risk that the Notes will not perform as anticipated.

In the event of any insolvency or liquidation of the Issuer, holders of Subordinated Notes would receive payments on any outstanding Subordinated Notes only after senior Noteholders and other senior creditors have been repaid in full, if and to the extent that there is still cash available for those payments. Thus, holders of Subordinated Notes generally face a higher risk of non-payment by the Issuer than holders of senior Notes.

Additional Risk Factors Relating to Derivative Notes

In addition to the other information contained in this Base Prospectus and the risk factors set out above, investors investing in Derivative Notes should consider, in particular, the risks described below of investing in the Derivative Notes offered. However, the information set forth below merely refers to general risks related to an investment in the Derivative Notes and does not purport to be exhaustive. Please refer to the product information and the issue-specific risk warnings, if any, set out in the relevant Final Terms.

If one or more of the risks described below occur, investors investing in derivative Securities may incur a total or partial loss of their capital invested.

These risk warnings do not substitute advice by the investor's bank or by legal, business or tax advisers, which should in any event be obtained in order to be able to assess the consequences of an investment in Derivative Notes. Investment decisions should not be made solely on the basis of the risk warnings set out in this Base Prospectus and the relevant Final Terms since such information cannot serve as a substitute for individual advice and information which is tailored to the requirements, objectives, experience, knowledge and circumstances of the investor concerned.

An investment in Derivative Notes might not be suitable for investors who have not sufficient knowledge of the finance sector.

An investment in Derivative Notes entails significant risks if an investment in Derivative Notes is not suitable for the investor. Therefore, investors should determine whether an investment in Derivative Notes is appropriate in their particular circumstances. An investment in Derivative Notes requires a thorough understanding of the nature of the relevant transaction. Investors should be experienced with respect to an investment in the relevant reference assets (i.e. formulas, CMS (Constant Maturity Swap) rates, shares, share baskets, indices and index baskets as well as combinations thereof) and be aware of the related risks.

An investment in Derivative Notes is only suitable for investors who:

- have the requisite knowledge and experience in financial and business matters to evaluate the merits and risks of an investment in Derivative Notes;
- have access to, and knowledge of, appropriate analytical tools to evaluate such merits and risks in the context of their financial situation;
- are capable of bearing the economic risk of an investment in Derivative Notes for an indefinite period of time; and
- recognise that it may not be possible to dispose of the Derivative Notes for a substantial period of time, if at all.

Investments in Derivative Notes entail significant risks.

An investment in Derivative Notes entails significant risks that are not associated with similar investments in a conventional fixed or floating rate debt security. These risks include the possibility that:

- such index or basket of reference assets may be subject to significant changes, whether due to the composition of the index itself, or because of fluctuations in value of the basket;
- the resulting interest rate may be less than that payable in the case of a conventional debt security issued by the Issuer at the same time;
- the repayment of principal can occur at times other than that expected by the investor;
- the holder of a Derivative Note could lose all or a substantial portion of the principal of such Note (whether payable at maturity or upon redemption or repayment), and, if the principal is lost, interest may cease to be payable on the Derivative Note;
- the risks of investing in Derivative Notes encompasses both risks relating to the underlying reference assets and risks that are unique to the Notes as such;
- a Derivative Note that is indexed to more than one type of reference asset, or on formulas that encompass the risks associated with more than one type of asset, may carry levels of risk that are greater than Notes that are indexed to one type of asset only;
- it may not be possible for investors to hedge their exposure to these various risks relating to Derivative Notes; and
- a significant market disruption could mean that the index on which the Derivative Notes are based ceases to exist.

In addition, the value of Derivative Notes on the secondary market is subject to greater levels of risk than is the value of other Notes. The secondary market, if any, for Derivative Notes will be affected by a number of factors, irrespective of the creditworthiness of the Issuer and the value of the applicable underlying reference asset (i.e. formulas, CMS (Constant Maturity Swap) rates, shares, share baskets, indices and index baskets as well as combinations thereof), including the volatility of the applicable underlying reference asset, the time remaining to the maturity of such Notes, the amount outstanding of such Notes and market interest rates. The value of the underlying reference asset depends on a number of interrelated factors, including economic, financial and political events beyond the Issuer's control. Additionally, if the formula used to determine the amount of principal, premium and/or interest payable with respect to Derivative Notes contains a multiplier or leverage factor, the effect of any change in the applicable underlying reference asset will be increased. In the case of maximum/minimum interest or repayment limits, investors may benefit from the performance of the relevant reference asset(s) only to a limited extent. The historical experience of the relevant underlying reference asset should not be taken as an indication of future performance of such underlying reference asset during the term of any Derivative Note. Additionally, there may be regulatory and other ramifications associated with the ownership by certain investors of certain Derivative Notes.

The respective credit ratings assigned to the Issuer's medium-term note program are a reflection of the credit status of the Issuer, and in no way a reflection of the potential impact of any of the factors discussed above, or any other factors, on the market value of any Derivative Note. Accordingly, prospective investors should consult their own financial and legal advisors as to the risks entailed by an investment in Derivative Notes and the suitability of such Notes in light of their particular circumstances.

Various transactions by the Issuer could impact the performance of any Derivative Notes, which could lead to conflicts of interest between the Issuer and holders of its Derivative Notes.

The Issuer is active in the international and domestic German securities markets on a daily basis. It may thus, for its own account, engage in transactions directly or indirectly involving assets that are "reference assets" under Derivative Notes and may make decisions regarding these transactions in the same manner as it would if the Derivative Notes had not been issued. The Issuer and its affiliates may on the issue date of the Derivative Notes or at any time thereafter be in possession of information in relation to any reference assets that may be material to holders of any Derivative Notes and that may not be publicly available or not known to the Noteholders. There is no obligation on the part of the Issuer to disclose any such business or information to the Noteholders.

Overview of the German Pfandbrief Market

The following is a description reduced to some of the more fundamental principles governing the laws regarding Pfandbriefe and Pfandbrief Banks in summary form and without addressing all the laws' complexities and details. Accordingly, it is qualified in its entirety by reference to the applicable laws.

Introduction

Until 19 July 2005 the Issuer operated as a mortgage bank (Pfandbriefbank) under the Mortgage Bank Act in the version as published on 9 September 1998, as amended) (Hypothekenbankgesetz). As of 19 July 2005, the Pfandbrief operations of the Issuer are subject to the amended Pfandbrief Act (Pfandbriefgesetz), as further amended on 16 July 2007, 21 December 2007, 20 March 2009, 29 July 2009, on 31 July 2009, 19 November 2010 and on 9 December 2010.

The legislation accompanying the Pfandbrief Act, i.e., the Act on the Reorganisation of the Law on Pfandbriefe (Gesetz zur Neuordnung des Pfandbriefrechts), rescinded all existing special legislation regarding the Pfandbrief business in Germany, including, inter alia, (i) the Mortgage Banking Act applicable to the existing mortgage banks such as the Issuer being specialist institutions authorised to issue Mortgage Pfandbriefe (Hypothekenpfandbriefe) covered by mortgage loans, as well as Public Sector Pfandbriefe (Öffentliche Pfandbriefe) covered by obligations of public sector debtors (and, in each case, by certain other qualifying assets), (ii) the Act on Pfandbriefe and Related Bonds of Public- Law Credit Institutions (Gesetz über die Pfandbriefe und verwandten Schuldverschreibungen öffentlich-rechtlicher Kreditanstalten) in the version as published on 9 September 1998, as amended, applicable to various types of public sector banks, in respect of Mortgage Pfandbriefe and Public Sector Pfandbriefe issued by them, and (iii) finally, the Ship Banking Act (Schiffsbankgesetz), as last amended on 5 April 2004, governing the operations of ship mortgage banks issuing Ship Mortgage Pfandbriefe (Schiffspfandbriefe).

The new Pfandbrief Act abolishes the concept of specialist Pfandbrief institutions hitherto prevailing in respect of the existing mortgage banks and ship mortgage banks. It establishes a new and uniform regulatory regime for all German credit institutions. As of 19 July 2005 onwards, all German credit institutions are permitted, subject to authorisation and further requirements of the Pfandbrief Act, to engage in the Pfandbrief business and to issue Mortgage Pfandbriefe, Public Sector Pfandbriefe, Ship Mortgage Pfandbriefe as well as, as of 26 March 2009, Aircraft Mortgage Pfandbriefe, and, from such date onwards, existing mortgage banks, ship mortgage banks and aircraft mortgage banks will be authorised to engage in most other types of banking transactions, eliminating the limitations in respect of the scope of their permitted business which existed in the past. The Act thus creates a level playing field for all German credit institutions, operating as universal banks and engaged in the issuance of Pfandbriefe.

German credit institutions wishing to take up the Pfandbrief business must obtain special authorisation under the Banking Act (Kreditwesengesetz) from the Federal Financial Services Supervisory Authority (Bundesanstalt für Finanzdienstleistungsaufsicht – "BaFin") and, for that purpose, must meet some additional requirements as specified in the Pfandbrief Act.

Mortgage banks such as the Issuer and ship mortgage banks, that operated as such up to 19 July 2005 as well as public sector banks carrying on the Pfandbrief business up to such date, are all grandfathered in respect of authorisation for the particular type of Pfandbrief business in which they were engaged at such time, subject to giving a comprehensive notice to the BaFin by 18 October 2005. As of 19 July 2005, mortgage banks and ship mortgage banks are authorised to engage in a broad spectrum of other banking transactions, including, inter alia, deposit taking, the extension of credits, securities custody, the guarantee business, underwriting as well as others, up to then not permitted to be carried out by them.

The operations of all banks engaged in the issuance of Pfandbriefe are as from 19 July 2005 regulated by the Pfandbrief Act and the Banking Act, and are subject to the prudential supervision of the BaFin. In particular, the BaFin carries out audits of the assets forming part of any Cover Pool, regularly in bi-annual intervals.

As of 26 March 2009 the Pfandbrief Act was amended again, by the law regarding the reorganisation of Pfandbrief legislation (Gesetz zur Fortentwicklung des Pfandbriefrechts). The reporting on maturity bands within the cover pools of Pfandbrief Banks has been refined. Further a new introduction to the Pfandbrief Act is the Aircraft Pfandbrief. It is the fourth Pfandbrief category along Public, Mortgage and Ship Pfandbriefe.

In this summary, banks authorised to issue Pfandbriefe will generally be referred to as "Pfandbrief Banks" which is the term applied by the Pfandbrief Act.

Rules applicable to all types of Pfandbriefe

Pfandbriefe are standardised debt instruments issued by a Pfandbrief Bank. The quality and standards of Pfandbriefe are strictly governed by provisions of the Pfandbrief Act and subject to the prudential supervision of the BaFin. Pfandbriefe generally are medium- to long-term notes, typically with an original maturity of two to ten years, which are secured or "covered" at all times by a pool of specified qualifying assets (Deckung), as described below. Pfandbriefe are recourse obligations of the issuing bank, and no separate vehicle is created for their issuance generally or for the issuance of any specific series of Pfandbriefe. Pfandbriefe may not be redeemed at the option of the holders prior to maturity.

As mentioned before, Pfandbriefe may either be Mortgage Pfandbriefe, Public Sector Pfandbriefe, Ship Mortgage Pfandbriefe or Aircraft Mortgage Pfandbriefe. The outstanding Pfandbriefe of any one of these types must be covered by a separate pool of specified qualifying assets: a pool for Mortgage Pfandbriefe only, a pool for Public Sector Pfandbriefe only, a pool for Ship Mortgage Pfandbriefe only and a pool for Aircraft Mortgage Pfandbriefe only (each a "Cover Pool"). An independent trustee appointed by the BaFin has wide responsibilities in monitoring the compliance by the Pfandbrief Bank with the provisions of the Pfandbrief Act. In particular, the trustee monitors the sufficiency of the cover assets and maintains a register listing the assets provided as cover from time to time in respect of the Pfandbriefe of any given type.

At any time the coverage of all outstanding Pfandbriefe on the basis of the present value (Barwert), which has to include the obligation with respect to interest and principal has to be ensured. In addition, the present value of the assets contained in the Cover Pool must exceed the present value (Barwert) of liabilities to be covered by at least 2 per cent. (sichernde Überdeckung).

Such 2 per cent. excess cover must consist of highly liquid assets. Qualifying assets for the excess cover are (i) debt securities of the German government, a special fund of the German government, a German state, the European Communities, the states comprising the European Economic Area, the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development, the European Investment Bank, the Council of Europe Development Bank or, under certain circumstances, Switzerland, the United States, Canada, Japan, the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development; (ii) debt securities where the payment of interest and the repayment of principal has been guaranteed by any of the foregoing entities; and (iii) credit balances maintained with the European Central Bank, the central banks of the member states of the European Union and appropriate credit institutions having its seat in one of the countries mentioned under (i) provided that the amount of the claims of the Pfandbrief bank is known already upon acquisition.

As at 1 November 2009, the Pfandbrief bank will have to provide for a 180 calendar day liquidity reserve in form of assets which are eligible for Eurosystem credit operations.

The aggregate principal amount of assets in the Cover Pools must at all times at least be equal to the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Pfandbriefe issued against such Cover Pool. If the maximum redemption amount, known at the time of the issuance of the Pfandbriefe, exceeds the principal amount, then such maximum redemption amount shall be used instead of the principal amount.

The Pfandbrief Bank must record in the register of cover assets for any Cover Pool of a given Pfandbrief type each asset and the liabilities arising from derivative transactions. Derivative transactions may be entered in such register only with the consent of the trustee and the counterparty.

The Pfandbrief Bank must command over an appropriate risk management system meeting the requirements specified in detail in the Pfandbrief Act and must comply with comprehensive disclosure requirements on a quarterly and annual basis set out in detail in the Pfandbrief Act.

Cover Pool for Mortgage Pfandbriefe

The principal assets qualifying for the Cover Pool for Mortgage Pfandbriefe are loans secured by land charges which may serve as cover up to the initial 60 per cent. of the value of the property, as assessed with comprehensive evaluation rules designed to arrive at the fair market value of the property.

The property that may be encumbered by land charges must be situated in a state of the European Economic Area, Switzerland, the United States, Canada or Japan.

In addition, the Cover Pool for Mortgage Pfandbriefe may comprise a limited portion of other assets as follows: (i) equalisation claims converted into bearer notes; (ii) subject to certain qualifications, those assets which may also be included in the 2 per cent. excess cover described above, up to a total sum of 10 per cent. of the aggregate principal amount of outstanding Mortgage Pfandbriefe; (iii) the assets which may also be included in the Cover Pool for Public Sector Pfandbriefe referred to below, up to a total of 20 per cent. of the aggregate principal amount of outstanding Mortgage Pfandbriefe, whereby the assets pursuant to (ii) above will be deducted, and, finally, (iv) claims arising under interest rate derivative transactions concluded with certain qualifying counterparties, provided that it is assured that the claims pursuant to the master agreement will not be prejudiced in the event of the insolvency of the Pfandbrief Bank or any other Cover Pool maintained by it. The amount of the claims of the Pfandbrief Bank arising under derivative transactions which are included in the Cover Pool measured against the total amount of all assets forming part of the Cover Pool as well as the amount of the liabilities of the Pfandbrief Bank arising from such derivative transactions measured against the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Mortgage Pfandbriefe plus the liabilities arising from derivative transactions may in either case not exceed 12 per cent., calculated in each case on the basis of the net present values.

Cover Pool for Public Sector Pfandbriefe

The Cover Pool for Public Sector Pfandbriefe may comprise payment claims under loans, notes or similar transactions or other claims of a wide spectrum of states and other public instrumentalities, including, but not limited to: (i) the German government as well as any German federal state, municipality or other qualifying public body in Germany; (ii) the European Communities, the states comprising the European Economic Area or their national central banks; (iii) the regional administrations and territorial political subdivisions of any state of the European Communities and states comprising in the European Economic Area; (iv) under certain circumstances the United States, Canada or Switzerland and their national central banks and regional administrations and political subdivisions in these states; (v) the European Central Bank and further claims as set out in the Pfandbrief Act.

The Cover Pool may furthermore include the following assets: (i) equalisation claims converted into bearer notes; (ii) credit balances maintained with suitable credit institution, up to 10 per cent. of a total sum of the aggregate principal amount of outstanding Public Sector Pfandbriefe; and (iii) claims arising under derivative transactions as mentioned above, subject to the conditions and restrictions described in such paragraph. The limitations which apply to Mortgage Pfandbriefe apply here as well.

Cover Pool for Ship Mortgage Pfandbriefe

The principal assets of the Cover Pool for Ship Mortgage Pfandbriefe are loans secured by ship mortgages. Any such mortgage may serve as cover up to an amount not exceeding 60 per cent of the fair market value of the ship.

In addition, the Cover Pool for Ship Mortgage Pfandbriefe may include other assets of the kind which qualify for a Cover Pool of Mortgage Pfandbriefe (see above).

Cover Pool for Aircraft Mortgage Pfandbriefe

The principal assets of the Cover Pool for Aircraft Mortgage Pfandbriefe are loans secured by aircraft mortgages. Any such mortgage may serve as cover up to an amount not exceeding 60 per cent of the fair market value of the aircraft.

In addition, the Cover Pool for Aircraft Mortgage Pfandbriefe may include other assets of the kind which qualify for a Cover Pool of Mortgage Pfandbriefe (see above).

Insolvency Proceedings

In the event of the institution of insolvency proceedings over the assets of the Pfandbrief Bank, any Cover Pool maintained by it would not be part of the insolvency estate (Insolvenzmasse), and, therefore, such insolvency would not automatically result in an insolvency of any Cover Pool. Only if at the same time or thereafter the relevant Cover Pool were to become insolvent, separate insolvency proceedings would be initiated against such Cover Pool by the BaFin. In this case, holders of Pfandbriefe would have the first claim on the respective Cover Pool. Their preferential right would also extend to interest on the Pfandbriefe accrued after the commencement of insolvency proceedings. Furthermore, but only to the extent that holders of Pfandbriefe suffer a loss, holders would also have recourse to any assets of the Pfandbrief Bank not included in the Cover Pools. As regards those assets, holders of the Pfandbriefe would rank equal with other unsecured and unsubordinated creditors of the Pfandbrief Bank.

One or two administrators (Sachwalter – "Administrator") will be appointed in the case of the insolvency of the Pfandbrief Bank to administer each Cover Pool for the sole benefit of the holders of Pfandbriefe. The Administrator will be appointed by the court having jurisdiction at the location of the head office of the Pfandbrief Bank at the request of the BaFin before or after the institution of insolvency proceedings. The Administrator will be subject to the supervision of the court and also of the BaFin with respect to the duties of the Pfandbrief Bank arising in connection with the administration of the assets included in the relevant Cover Pool. The Administrator will be entitled to dispose of the Cover Pool's assets and receive all payments on the relevant assets to ensure full satisfaction of the claims of the holders of Pfandbriefe. To the extent, however, that those assets are obviously not necessary to satisfy such claims, the insolvency receiver of the Pfandbrief Bank is entitled to demand the transfer of such assets to the insolvency estate.

Subject to the consent of the BaFin, the Administrator may transfer all or part of the cover assets and the liabilities arising from the Pfandbriefe issued against such assets to another Pfandbrief Bank.

Description of main activities and services, important new products/services, important markets and competitive position

Real Estate Lending Business

The main focus of the real estate lending business is on the financing of residential objects. Apart from that, also commercially used, multi-function properties are financed. Most of the objects serving as collateral for real estate financing are located in Germany.

The main target groups are self-users of properties, the institutional housing sector as well as investors. New real estate lending is being done, on the one hand, in the Volksbanken Raiffeisenbanken cooperative financial network through the mediation of the Volksbanken und Raiffeisenbanken and, on the other hand, in direct business, above all with the institutional housing sector.

The mortgage portfolio is characterised by a large number of lower volume loans and a high proportion of real estate loans.

In the last few years, the Issuer has continually expanded its market position to become, according to its own estimates, one of the larger providers of real estate financing in Germany. The environment is characterised by competition within the cooperative FinanzVerbund, but also with the local savings banks and, increasingly, with direct providers and internet banks.

State and Municipal Lending Business

The focus of the state and municipal lending business is on the granting of loans to the Federal government, the Federal states, cities and municipalities, to domestic corporations and public law institutions, as well as to member states of the European Union or the European Economic Area and their regional governments and local authorities, and to other debtors that can be used as coverage for Pfandbriefe pursuant to the Pfandbrief Act.

The granting of municipal loans is carried out through direct contacts with the municipalities, through the regional activities of the local industrial and agricultural credit cooperatives (Volksbanken und Raiffeisenbanken) in the Verbund business, and through other mediators. The loan portfolio with the cities and communities is characterised by nationwide diversification with focus on North Rhine-Westphalia. Most of the loans are fixed-rate annuity loans with long maturities.

The higher-volume state lending business, which goes beyond the municipal lending, is mostly carried out by domestic and internationally active capital market partners buying notes and registered notes. Debtors in the state lending business are primarily the German Federal states, German public-sector financial institutions with guarantor's liability by a public authority, as well as states and regions within the EU/EEA.

Other Capital Market Business

Apart from the granting of mortgage loans and public-sector loans, liquid assets are invested in the notes of European private law banks with a minimum rating of single A- (Standard & Poor's or Fitch) or A3 (Moody's). For reasons of liquidity control and interest rate management, money and derivatives lines have been provided to selected financial institutions.

The Issuer refinances its active business mainly through the issuance of public sector and mortgage Pfandbriefe in the form of bearer notes and registered notes. That part of the lending business which is not available to cover Pfandbriefe is refinanced by other uncovered notes and money market transactions.

The shareholders shall exercise their rights in the shareholders' meeting. Each share grants one vote, each shareholder being entitled to exercise only the vote vested in one single share owned by it (maximum voting right, principle of "one member one vote"), unless otherwise provided for in the articles of association or by law. The resolutions of the shareholders' meeting shall require the simple majority of the votes validly cast, unless a larger voting or capital majority is required by law or by the articles of association. Important Agreements

Keep-well statements (Patronatserklärungen)

With the exemption of political risk and to the extent of its direct and indirect participation share, WGZ BANK will ensure that WL BANK AG Westfälische Landschaft Bodenkreditbank, WGZ BANK Ireland plc and Impetus Bietergesellschaft mbH will be able to meet their obligations. This may lead to risks for WGZ BANK (see section "Risk Factors").

Domination and Profit and Loss Transfer Agreement

On 25 October 2011, WL BANK and WGZ BANK entered into a domination and profit and loss transfer agreement (Beherrschungs- und Gewinnabführungsvertrag) with a fixed term of six years, starting with the beginning of the business year in which it was entered into the commercial register (Handelsregister). The agreement has been entered into the commercial register on 12 December 2011. Pursuant to the domination and profit and loss transfer agreement but subject to Section 301 of the German Stock Corporation Act (Aktiengesetz – "AktG"), WL BANK shall transfer its total profit to WGZ BANK. Pursuant to Section 302 AktG, WGZ BANK shall compensate any annual loss occurring during the term of the domination and profit and loss transfer agreement in return.

Obligations in connection with the protection scheme of the BVR

WGZ BANK is a member of the protection scheme existing at the Bundesverband der Deutschen Volksbanken und Raiffeisenbanken e.V. (BVR), with a guarantee fund and a guarantee network. It participates in the scheme with contributions and guarantee obligations. Details are determined by the statutes of the protection scheme.

With the resources accumulated in the guarantee fund and the guarantee obligation made within the framework of the guarantee network, the protection scheme implements restructuring measures in favour of a member bank of the Bundesverband if this bank is not able to overcome impending or existing economic difficulties on its own.

After revision of the statutes of the protection scheme the basic levy contribution for WGZ BANK is 0.5‰ in 2011. For WGZ BANK, the basic levy contribution amounted to EUR 3,150 thousand in 2011. The calculation of the basic levy contribution is largely based on the balance sheet item, loans and advances to customers.

Within the framework of the guarantee fund, WGZ BANK's contribution amounted to EUR 9,450 thousand in 2011 according to the previous basis of calculation. But according to the statutes, the annual amount can be fixed at a maximum of five times the basic levy contribution.

Within the framework of the guarantee network, WGZ BANK has assumed a guarantee obligation equal to eight times the basic levy contribution to the guarantee fund (corresponding to EUR 25,200 thousand for 2011). The guarantee obligations and a possibly increased availment within the framework of the guarantee fund may lead to risks for WGZ BANK (see section "Risk factors", "Risk factors related to WGZ BANK", section "Specific banking risks", "Risks arising from the availment under important agreements", "Obligations in connection with the protection scheme of the BVR").

Court or Arbitration Proceedings

WGZ BANK is not involved, nor was it involved during the last twelve months, in any governmental interventions, legal proceedings or arbitration proceedings (including those proceedings which are still pending or may be threatened according to the knowledge of WGZ BANK) that possibly will have or have recently had significant effects on the financial situation or profitability of WGZ BANK and WGZ BANK Group.

Ratings

Ratings of WGZ BANK

Within the framework of a regular rating review on 3 November 2011, Moody's Deutschland GmbH, the German-based corporation of Moody's Investor Service ("Moody's") assigned the following ratings to WGZ BANK:

Rating of WGZ BANK	Moody's Investor Service
Long-term liabilities (categories Aaa, Aa, A, Baa, Ba, B, Caa, Ca, C)	A1
Short-term liabilities (categories P-1, P-2, P-3, NP):	P-1
Financial strength (categories A, B, C, D, E):	C-
Outlook Tendencies: positive, negative, stable, developing:	stable

A1 long-term rating:

Liabilities with an A rating are considered upper medium grade and are subject to low credit risk.

P-1 short-term rating:

Issuers who have been assigned a Prime-1 rating have an excellent ability to repay their short-term notes.

Stable outlook:

This rating expresses the opinion on the direction in which the rating of an issuer will presumably develop in the medium term, i.e. within the next 18 months.

Financial strength rating: C-

Banks with a C rating have sufficient financial strength. As a rule, these are banks with a rather restricted but still high-quality business structure. They are either in an acceptable financial position in a secure and stable operating environment or in a good financial position in a less secure and stable operating environment.

Credit ratings included or referred to in this Prospectus with regard to WGZ BANK have been issued by Moody's, which is established in the European Union and is registered under Regulation (EC) No 1060/2009 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 16 September 2009 on credit rating agencies as amended by Regulation (EU) No. 513/2011 and is included in the list of registered credit rating agencies published on the website of the European Securities and Markets Authority at <http://www.esma.europa.eu/page/Listregistered-and-certified-CRAs>.

Verbundrating

Given the increasing importance of external credit assessments in the financial and capital markets, the Bundesverband der Deutschen Volksbanken und Raiffeisenbanken (BVR) asked Fitch Ratings and Standard & Poor's, among others, for a credit assessment for the cooperative financial services association (Genossenschaftliche FinanzGruppe Volksbanken Raiffeisenbanken). On 28 July 2011, the cooperative financial services association was assigned a rating by Fitch Deutschland GmbH and on 5 December 2011 by Standard & Poor's Credit Market Service Europe Limited (S&P), which comprises, apart from the more than 1,100 Volksbanken und Raiffeisenbanken and other institutes of the network, also WGZ BANK.

The "Verbundrating" (rating for the financial services network) contains the following assessments:

Verbundrating	Fitch Ratings	S&P*
Long-Term Credit Rating (categories: AAA, AA, A, BBB; BB, B, CCC, CC, C, RD, D):	A+	AA-
Short-Term Credit Rating (categories: F1, F2, F3, B, C, D):	F1+	A-1+
Outlook (tendencies: positive, stable, negative, stable, evolving):	stable	stable
Support Rating (categories 1, 2, 3, 4, 5):	1	**

* WGZ BANK is not included

 S&P does not make a classification.

An A+ long-term credit rating (international long-term credit assessment) means that the credit quality is high and the expected credit risk is very low.

An AA- long-term credit rating (international long-term credit assessment) means that the obligor has very strong capacity to meet its financial commitments.

An F1+ A-1+ short-term rating (international short-term credit assessments) means "highest credit quality" and "shows the strongest ability to meet financial liabilities punctually".

A "stable" outlook means a stable overall situation and thus a low probability that the rating is downgraded in the short term.

A "support rating" describes a potential supporter's propensity and ability to support the assessed bank. "1" means that there is a high probability of external support. The potential provider of support is very highly rated in its own right and has a very high propensity to support the bank in question.

Fitch and S&P are established in the European Union and have applied to be registered under Regulation (EC) No. 1060/2009 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 16 September 2009 on credit rating agencies as amended by Regulation (EU) No. 513/2011 and is included in the list of registered credit rating agencies published on the website of the European Securities and Markets Authority at <http://www.esma.europa.eu/page/Listregistered-and-certified-CRAs>.

Securities Description

General Description of the Programme

The information set out below in relation to the types of Non Equity Securities which may be issued under this Programme provides a summary overview of material terms of the Non Equity Securities. Since the Final Terms and characteristics of the Non Equity Securities as well as the terms of the offer may only be determined when the Non Equity Securities are issued, such information and the Terms and Conditions of the Non Equity Securities set out below should be read in conjunction with the applicable Final Terms which will be published upon each issue of Notes in accordance with article 16 of the Luxembourg Prospectus Law.

The Issuer intends to issue Standard Notes governed by German law, Derivative Notes as well as mortgage Pfandbriefe and public sector Pfandbriefe under the Programme described in this Base Prospectus on a continuing basis. Under the Programme, the Issuer may issue Non Equity Securities in the form of, inter alia, fixed or floating rate Notes, Zero Coupon Notes, Notes having derivative interest rate structures, subordinated or unsubordinated Notes as well as fixed or floating rate Pfandbriefe and zero-coupon Pfandbriefe, and non-interest bearing Derivative Notes or Derivative Notes with the above types of interest, whose redemption amount is determined by reference to one or more reference assets.

According to the current legal position, the obligations of the Issuer under the Non Equity Securities (and like the obligations of other issuers under bearer notes or Pfandbriefe, respectively) are not protected by the German statutory deposit protection scheme pursuant to the German Act on Deposit Protection and Investors' Compensation (Einlagensicherungs- und Anlegerentschädigungsgesetz).

Nevertheless, as a member of the cooperative banking sector (genossenschaftlicher FinanzVerbund) the Issuer participates in the deposit guarantee scheme operated by the Bundesverband der Deutschen Volksbanken und Raiffeisenbanken e.V. ("BVR"). Based on the by-laws of the guarantee scheme, all deposits and unsubordinated notes held by non-bank customers of the participating banks are protected without any limitation. Furthermore, the BVR scheme warrants the solvency of the participating banks themselves (so-called institution-based protection): Pursuant to its statutes and to the extent possible, the guarantee scheme provides that, in case of any financial difficulties, participating banks are to be always financially rehabilitated and supported to meet all their legal obligations.

However, the protection scheme is an institution on voluntary basis and neither holders of Non Equity Securities nor the Issuer or WGZ BANK have any legal right to demand or receive any payments under the protection scheme (kein Rechtsanspruch auf Hilfeleistung durch die Sicherungseinrichtung).

The description of the Non Equity Securities is set out as securities description in Section A (to be read in conjunction with Schedule 1) for Standard Notes, and in Section B (to be read in conjunction with Schedule 1) for Derivative Notes, and in Section C (to be read in conjunction with Schedules 2 and 3) for Pfandbriefe. Section D contains a description of the Keep-well statement given by WGZ BANK for the benefit of the Issuer, and Section E contains other conditions applicable to all Non Equity Securities.

The description is made in the order set out below:

Standard Notes

- Subordinated and unsubordinated Notes having specified denominations and fixed rates;
- subordinated and unsubordinated Notes having specified denominations and floating rates;

- subordinated and unsubordinated Zero Coupon Notes having specified denominations and not bearing interest; and
- subordinated and unsubordinated Notes having specified denominations and having a derivative interest rate structure, where interest will be determined by reference to the following reference assets and where structured components may be used as formulas:
 - interest rates;
 - CMS (Constant Maturity Swap) rates;
 - shares or share baskets;
 - indices or index baskets; and
 - combinations of the above mentioned reference assets, as specified in the Final Terms.

In each case, the Notes will be redeemed at maturity or, in the event of Instalment Notes, on the Instalment payment dates specified in the Final Terms, in any event, however, at an aggregate of 100% or more of their principal amount.

Derivative Notes

Notes in the form of (i) non-interest bearing Notes, (ii) Notes with fixed or (iii) floating rates, or (iv) Notes with a derivative interest rate structure, in each case having a derivative redemption structure determined by reference to the reference assets set out below.

- Subordinated and unsubordinated Notes having a derivative redemption amount and fixed rates;
- subordinated and unsubordinated Notes having a derivative redemption amount and floating rates;
- subordinated and unsubordinated Notes having a derivative redemption amount and not bearing interest; and
- subordinated and unsubordinated Notes having a derivative redemption amount and a derivative interest rate structure; provided that any redemption and interest rate structures may be combined in any combination. Both derivative interest and redemption may be linked to the reference assets set out below and structured components may be used as formulas:

- interest rates;
- CMS (Constant Maturity Swap) rates;
- shares or share baskets;
- indices or index baskets; and
- combinations of the above mentioned reference assets, as specified in the Final Terms.

If provided for in the Final Terms, delivery of the relevant reference assets may be made instead of payment.

As the redemption amount is determined by reference to one or more reference assets as specified in the Final Terms, the redemption amount at maturity may be significantly less than the capital invested, and in extreme cases, investors may incur a total loss.

Pfandbriefe

- Pfandbriefe having specified denominations and fixed rates, and a fixed redemption amount of 100% or more of their principal amount;
- Pfandbriefe having specified denominations and floating rates, and a fixed redemption amount of 100% or more of their principal amount; and
- Zero Coupon Pfandbriefe having specified denominations and not bearing interest, and a fixed redemption amount which equals the cash value of the Zero Coupon Pfandbriefe when due.

In each case, the Pfandbriefe will be redeemed at maturity or, in the event of Instalment Pfandbriefe, on the instalment payment dates specified in the Final Terms.

Stock Exchange Listing and Trading, Clearing and Counterparties

Application has been made to admit the Non Equity Securities issued under the Programme to the Official List of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange and for trading on the regulated market of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange as well as to admit them to trading on the Düsseldorf Stock Exchange's Regulated Market. Application may, in the future, be made to list Non Equity Securities on a regulated market of any stock exchange in a Member State within the European Economic Area in each case as specified in the relevant Final Terms.

Non Equity Securities will be accepted for clearing through one or more Clearing Systems as specified in the applicable Final Terms. These systems will include those operated by Clearstream Banking AG, Frankfurt am Main, Clearstream Banking, société anonyme, Luxembourg and Euroclear Bank SA/NV.

WGZ BANK AG Westdeutsche Genossenschafts-Zentralbank will initially act as Principal Paying Agent and Calculation Agent.

Consolidated Conditions

If the Final Terms specify that consolidated conditions apply (the "Consolidated Conditions") the Consolidated Conditions will be set out in full in the Final Terms. Such Conditions will be constituted by

- incorporating from the Terms and Conditions the provisions applicable to the Series, and deleting all provisions and options not applicable to the Series; and
- completing and specifying the Terms and Conditions by selecting options provided for in the Terms and Conditions by square brackets, and
- inserting specific contractual information or wordings for the time being represented by a square bracket and/or a placeholder in the Terms and Conditions.

The Consolidated Conditions shall replace the Terms and Conditions in their entirety.

Where Consolidated Conditions apply, the Consolidated Conditions alone will constitute the Conditions. The Consolidated Conditions will be attached to each global note representing Non Equity Securities of the relevant Series.

Risk Factors

The risk factors are set out above in the "Risk Factors" section.

Investors investing in derivative securities may incur a total or partial loss of the amount invested if the risk involved in the reference asset(s) and/or the derivative component is realised in whole or in part. (See section "Risk Factors – Additional Risk Factors Relating to Derivative Notes").

Key Information

The Issuer and its affiliates may buy and sell the Non Equity Securities for their own account or for the account of others, and to issue further Non Equity Securities. Further, the Issuer and its affiliates participate in the international and domestic German securities, currency and commodity markets. Accordingly, they may, for their own account or for the account of customers, engage in transactions directly or indirectly involving assets that are "reference assets" under the Derivative Notes and may make decisions regarding these transactions in the same manner as they would if the Derivative Notes had not been issued. The Issuer and its affiliates may on the issue date of the Derivative Notes or at any time thereafter be in possession of information in relation to any reference assets that may be material to holders of any Derivative Notes and that may not be publicly available or known to the Noteholders. (See "Risk Factors" for further information). If Non Equity Securities are underwritten by individual banks or by a group of banks, the underwriting banks will receive a commission for the underwriting and placing, if any, of the Non Equity Securities. Details of such commission will be set forth in the Final Terms. The Final Terms may, if relevant, contain any further information about conflicts of interest regarding the Issuer or any other persons involved in the issuance of Non Equity Securities.

The net proceeds from each issue of the Non Equity Securities under the Programme will be used by the Issuer for general banking purposes.

A. Securities Information Concerning the Standard Notes

The following section contains the Securities Description relating to the Standard Notes to be issued under the Programme and to be redeemed at maturity at 100% (or more) of their principal amount.

Type and Class of the Notes

The Issuer will issue different series of non-interest bearing subordinated and unsubordinated Notes having specified denominations and without interest (Zero Coupon Notes), and fixed rate, floating rate or derivative interest rate subordinated and unsubordinated Notes (or subordinated and unsubordinated Notes with a combination of interest structures) under the Programme. Each series may be subdivided into different tranches. The terms of the Notes of any one tranche must be identical in every respect, whereas the tranches of a series may have different issue dates, interest commencement dates and/or issue prices.

The final terms and characteristics of the Notes of any tranche or series and the ISIN or any other security identification code will be specified in the Final Terms (see Schedule 4). The Final Terms will also set forth the terms and conditions applicable to the relevant issue.

The Conditions may also be prepared by the Issuer in consolidated form. This will usually be the case if the Issuer intends to sell the Notes to non-qualified investors within the meaning of Section 2 no. 6 of the German Securities Prospectus Act. For these purposes, the Issuer will use the relevant sections set out in the form of Final Terms (see Schedule 4) as the basis and publish such sections, in each case together with the consolidated version of the conditions of Conditions of the Notes, in accordance with Section 14 of the German Securities Prospectus Act. In the event of non-consolidated conditions, the final conditions will be determined using the relevant sections set out in the form of Final Terms.

Governing Law (see Terms and Conditions Schedule 1 § 14)

The Notes of each tranche or series will be issued under the terms specified in the Final Terms, and will be governed by German law.

Form, Custody and Transfer of the Notes (see Terms and Conditions Schedule 1 § 1(1)-(5))

The Notes will be issued as Global Notes in bearer form and in the denominations specified in the Final Terms. For Notes of a particular tranche or series to which U.S. Treasury Regulation §1.163-5(c)(2)(i)(D) (the "TEFRA D Rules") apply, as specified in the relevant Final Terms, the aggregate principal amount of each tranche or series will initially be represented by a Temporary Global Note and subsequently, after expiry of 40 days from the relevant issue date and upon certification as to non-U.S. beneficial ownership, by a Permanent Global Note. Notes of a particular tranche or series to which U.S. Treasury Regulation §1.163-5(c)(2)(i)(C) (the "TEFRA C Rules") apply or which neither the TEFRA C Rules nor the TEFRA D Rules apply, as specified in the relevant Final Terms, will be represented by a Permanent Global Note. For Notes not issued in New Global Note form, the Global Notes will be deposited with either Clearstream Banking AG, Frankfurt am Main (Mergenthalerallee 61, 65760 Eschborn, Germany) or a depositary common to Clearstream Banking, société anonyme, Luxembourg (42 Avenue JF Kennedy, L-1855 Luxembourg, Luxembourg) and Euroclear Bank SA/NV (1 Boulevard du Roi Albert IIB, 1210 Brussels, Belgium) or any other clearing system (each a "Clearing System"), as specified in the Final Terms.

If specified in the relevant Final Terms, Notes potentially eligible as collateral for the Eurosystem monetary policy and intra-day credit operations – if not deposited with Clearstream Banking AG, Frankfurt am Main, as Classical Global Notes – may be issued in a form compliant with the New Global Note Structure for international bearer debt securities and will be kept in safe custody with a common safekeeper for Euroclear and/or Clearstream Banking, Luxembourg, the International Central Securities Depositories (the "ICSD").

Definitive securities will not be issued, unless the Final Terms provide for the issue of definitive securities.

The Notes may be transferred in accordance with rules of the relevant Clearing System.

Currency (see Terms and Conditions Schedule 1 § 1(1))

The currency of issue of the Notes is the euro, unless the Final Terms provide for a different currency (see "Risk Factors – Risk Factors Relating to the Notes").

Status and Ranking (see Terms and Conditions Schedule 1 § 2)

The Notes may be issued as subordinated or as unsubordinated Notes, as determined in the Final Terms. The Notes of any one tranche or series, however, will at all times rank pari passu and without any preference among themselves.

(i) Unsubordinated Notes

If the Notes are issued as unsubordinated Notes, they will rank equally with all other unsubordinated unsecured obligations of the Issuer (see Schedule 1 § 2 alternative 1), save for certain claims of other creditors required to be preferred by law. In particular, Pfandbriefe issued under the Programme will have a preferred claim over cover assets reserved for the Pfandbriefe pursuant to the German Pfandbrief Act (see Schedule 2 § 2 and Schedule 3 § 5).

(ii) Subordinated Notes

If the Notes are issued as Tier 2 subordinated Notes in accordance §10 para 2b German Banking Act (Kreditwesengesetz) and Tier 3 subordinated Notes in accordance with § 10 para 2c and 7 German Banking Act (Kreditwesengesetz), they will be subordinated to all unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer (see Schedule 1 § 2 alternative 2).

In the event of insolvency of the Issuer, repayment will be made to the holders of subordinated Notes only if all prior ranking claims of all unsubordinated creditors of the Issuer have been fully satisfied and if subsequently there are funds which remain to satisfy the claims of the holders of the subordinated Notes (see "Risk Factors – Risk Factors Relating to the Notes"). Early redemption of the Notes is subject to certain limitations pursuant to § 10 paras. 5a and 7 German Banking Act (Kreditwesengesetz).

Early Redemption Rights (see Terms and Conditions Schedule 1 § 4 and § 9)

The Final Terms may provide that there is no early redemption right (ordentliches Kündigungsrecht), or provide for early redemption rights as described below.

(i) No General Early Redemption Right (ordentliches Kündigungsrecht)

There is no general early redemption right in relation to the Notes prior to the final redemption date (see Schedule 1 § 4(c) alternative 2 and Schedule 1 § 4(d) alternative 1).

(ii) Extraordinary Redemption Rights (Sonderkündigungsrechte)

In exceptional cases, the Issuer may redeem such Notes or holders of unsubordinated Notes may require early redemption of such Notes upon the occurrence of an event of default (see Schedule 1 § 9), or the Issuer may redeem such Notes early upon the occurrence of a tax event (see Schedule 1 § 4(b)).

In the case of subordinated Notes, this redemption right is limited pursuant to § 10 paras. 5a and 7 of the German Banking Act (Gesetz über das Kreditwesen – KWG).

(iii) Early Redemption at the Option of the Issuer or at the Option of the Noteholders

Otherwise, the redemption of the Notes prior to maturity may only be required if the Final Terms provide for a call option by either the Issuer (see Schedule 1 § 4(c) alternative 3) or for a put option by the Noteholders (see Schedule 1 § 4(d) alternative 2) (see "Risk Factors – Risk Factors Relating to the Notes").

(iv) Early Redemption Procedure

If the Issuer may redeem the Notes early, the Noteholders have to be notified of such redemption. This is done by giving notice in accordance with § 13 of the Conditions (see Schedule 1 § 13).

If the Noteholders may require early redemption of the Notes, the Issuer has to be notified of such redemption. This is done, subject to the applicable provisions in the relevant Terms and Conditions, either by sending the early redemption notice directly to the Issuer or to the office of the Fiscal Agent (see Schedule 1 § 4(d) alternative 2 or § 9).

In the case of subordinated Notes, the provisions of the German Banking Act have to be complied with in addition.

(v) Purchase

The Issuer may at any time cancel unsubordinated Notes purchased in the open market (see Schedule 1 § 4(e)), in the case of subordinated Notes, subject to legal restrictions.

Interest (see Terms and Conditions Schedule 1 § 3)

The Final Terms may provide for the issue of non-interest bearing, fixed rate or floating rate Notes, or Notes having derivative interest rates linked to the performance of a reference asset. The Final Terms may provide for maximum or minimum interest, or a step-up interest or any other interest method.

If none or one of the following types of interest have been provided for a Note, the interest periods will be specified in the Final Terms.

(i) Fixed Rate Notes

If the Final Terms provide for fixed interest on the Notes (see Schedule 1 § 3 Fixed Rate Alternative), the Final Terms will specify the interest rate or the interest amount, as applicable, the interest periods, the interest payment date(s) per calendar year, the applicable business day convention and the interest calculation method (see "Risk Factors – Risk Factors Relating to the Notes").

(ii) Zero Coupon Notes

If the Notes do not bear interest during their maturity, Zero Coupon Notes, this will be specified in the Final Terms.

If, according to the provisions in the Final Terms, the Notes do not bear interest during certain periods only, the Final Terms will specify the commencement and the end of each such period (see Schedule 1 § 3 Zero Coupon Alternative and "Risk Factors – Risk Factors Relating to the Notes").

(iii) Floating Rate Notes

If the Final Terms provide for floating interest (not linked to the performance of a reference asset) on the Notes, the Final Terms, in addition to the commencement and the end of interest accrual, the interest payment date(s) or interest period(s) per calendar year and the interest calculation method, will specify the business day convention, the individual interest components, the reference interest rate and the methodology of determination and calculation (also in case of market disruption) (see "Risk Factors – Risk Factors Relating to the Notes").

The interest components will generally comprise a reference interest rate (in particular a EURIBOR or LIBOR rate) and a margin, if applicable. The Final Terms will set out in detail how the reference interest rate will be determined.

The range of volatility of floating rates may be limited by provisions in the Final Terms stipulating a maximum and/or a minimum interest. The range of volatility may be increased by including multipliers (see Schedule 1 § 3 Floating Rate Alternative).

(iv) Derivative Interest Structure

If the Final Terms provide for interest to be linked to one or more reference assets, the Final Terms will specify the underlying reference asset(s) and the mathematical relation between interest rate and reference asset(s), and the determination of interest upon the occurrence of Market Disruption or Adjustment Events. In such case, the Final Terms will contain a description as to how the reference asset affects the interest right, and a risk factors section specific to such Final Terms, if applicable. Notes providing for derivative interest structure are subject to the risk that no interest will accrue on the Notes in a specific or in all interest periods.

The derivative interest payment under the Notes may be inter alia linked to the positive or negative or absolute performance of the reference rate(s) or reference asset(s) or the spread between the performance of two specific reference rates or reference assets.

The range of volatility of interest bearing Notes linked to reference assets may be limited by provisions in the Final Terms stipulating a maximum and/or a minimum interest. The range of volatility may be increased by including multipliers.

Further, the accrual of interest under the Notes may be subject to the condition that the price or level of one or more reference assets exceeds or not exceeds a specified barrier level or stays within a specified range. Furthermore, the start or end of the accrual of interest under the Notes may be subject to the satisfaction of an interest accrual condition, for example if the reference interest rate or price or level of the reference asset exceeds or is below a specified price or level.

(a) Interest linked to a formula with interest components

If the Final Terms provide for interest to be linked to certain formulas with interest rate components, the Final Terms will specify the interest rate and the mathematical relation between the interest rate and the underlying interest rate, and the determination of interest upon the occurrence of Market Disruption or Adjustment Events. In such case, the Final Terms will contain a description of the linkage of the interest right to the relevant underlying interest rate, and a risk factors section specific to such Final Terms, if applicable (see "Risk Factors – Risk Factors Relating to the Notes").

(b) Interest linked to a CMS rate

If the Final Terms provide for interest to be linked to a CMS (Constant Maturity Swap) rate, the Final Terms will specify the reference asset and the mathematical relation between interest rate and CMS rate, and the determination of interest upon the occurrence of Market Disruption or Adjustment Events. In such case, the Final Terms will contain a description of the linkage of the interest right to the CMS rate, and a risk factors section specific to such Final Terms, if applicable (see "Risk Factors – Risk Factors Relating to the Notes").

(c) Interest linked to a share or a share basket

If the Final Terms provide for interest to be linked to a share or a share basket, the Final Terms will specify the share or the share basket, as applicable, together with the respective weightings of the constituent shares and the possibility of modifications, if any, to the composition of the relevant share basket, as well as the mathematical relation between interest rate and the shares or the shares in the share basket, as applicable, and the determination of interest upon the occurrence of Market Disruption or Adjustment Events. The Calculation Agent, in accordance with the provisions of the Terms and Conditions, will determine the occurrence or existence of a Market Disruption Event (including, but not limited to, Trading Disruptions, Exchange Disruptions or Early Closures) or of a Disrupted Day (i.e. on any Scheduled Trading Day, a relevant Exchange or Related Exchange is not open for trading or the price of the relevant share cannot be determined) as of a relevant time. As a result of a Potential Adjustment Event and various events relating to shares (including, but not limited to, Merger Events, Tender Offers, Nationalisation, Delisting or Insolvency), the Calculation Agent may make certain adjustments to the Terms and Conditions in order to take into account the occurrence of such event. In such case, the Final Terms will contain a description of the linkage of the interest right to the share or the share basket, as applicable, the determination of the Market Disruption Events and the Potential Adjustment Events, the possibilities of adjustment by the Calculation Agent, the information provided by the information source(s) – in particular in relation to the historical performance and volatility of the share(s), and a risk factors section specific to such Final Terms, if applicable (see "Risk Factors – Risk Factors Relating to the Notes").

(d) Interest linked to an index or index basket

If the Final Terms provide for interest to be linked to an index or index basket, the Final Terms will specify the index or index basket, as applicable, together with the respective weightings of the constituent indices and the possibility of modifications, if any, to the composition of the relevant index basket, as well as the mathematical relation between interest rate and the index or the index basket, as applicable, and the determination of interest upon the occurrence of Market Disruption or Adjustment Events. The Calculation Agent, in accordance with the provisions of the Terms and Conditions, will determine the occurrence or existence of a Market Disruption Event as of a relevant time. As a result of an Index Adjustment Event, the Calculation Agent may make such adjustments to any amounts payable in respect of the Notes and/or to other figures relevant to payments under the Notes as it deems appropriate. In such case, the Final Terms will contain a description of the linkage of the interest right to the index or index basket, as applicable, the determination of the Market Disruption Events and Index Adjustment Events, the possibilities of adjustment by the Calculation Agent, the information provided by the information source(s), in particular in relation to the historic performance and volatility of the index or indices, and a risk factors section specific to such Final Terms, if applicable (see "Risk Factors – Risk Factors Relating to the Notes").

(v) Target Redemption Notes

If the Final Terms provide for Target Redemption Notes, the Final Terms will – in addition to the reference interest rate or reference asset, the commencement and the end of interest accrual, the interest payment date(s) or interest period(s) per calendar year and the interest calculation method – specify a maximum interest amount that will be paid until maturity. If such maximum interest amount is reached on an interest payment date, the Target Redemption Notes will be redeemed early (see "Risk Factors – Risk Factors Relating to the Notes").

(vi) Daily Accrual Notes

If the Final Terms provide for Daily Accrual Notes, the Final Terms will – in addition to the reference interest rate or reference asset, the commencement and the end of interest accrual, the interest payment date(s) or interest period(s) per calendar year and the interest calculation method – provide that interest will only be payable with respect to those calendar days during the relevant interest period on which the reference interest rate is determined to be within a pre-defined range. For those calendar days on which the reference rate is determined to be outside such pre-defined range no interest will accrue (see "Risk Factors – Risk Factors Relating to the Notes").

(vii) Prescription

The right to interest under bearer Notes is subject to prescription. The period of prescription is two years. The prescription period begins at the end of the 10-year period during which the Notes must be duly presented (see Schedule 1 § 8).

(viii) Calculation Agent

Unless otherwise provided in the Final Terms, the relevant amount of interest payable on any Note will be finally and conclusively determined by WGZ BANK AG Westdeutsche Genossenschafts-Zentralbank as Calculation Agent.

Redemption at Maturity and Settlement Procedure (see Terms and Conditions Schedule 1 § 4(a) and § 5

The Final Terms may provide for redemption of the principal amount of the Notes at a specified redemption date or for redemption of the Notes in instalments.

(i) Redemption at Maturity

The redemption date in relation to the principal amount at maturity will be specified in the Final Terms. On the redemption date, the holders are entitled to payment of the principal amount of the Notes.

(ii) Redemption in Instalments

If the Final Terms provide for redemption of the Notes in instalments, the redemption dates and the payments due on such dates will be specified in the Final Terms. The aggregate amount of redemption instalments will at least equal the principal amount.

(iii) Early Redemption

In the event of early redemption, the redemption date will be specified in the provisions applicable to the relevant termination.

If Notes have a derivative interest rate structure (which means all interest rate structures referred to in Section "Interest (iv) Derivative Interest Structures"), the Final Terms may provide that the Early Redemption Amount shall equal the fair market value of the Notes determined in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner by the Calculation Agent, adjusted to account for any reasonable expenses and costs of unwinding any reference assets and/or related hedging and funding arrangements of the Issuer. In certain circumstances, this value may be lower than the principal amount per Note or the amount invested, and as a result the Noteholders may recover less than the principal amount per Note or the amount invested in the event of Early Redemption.

(iv) Method of Redemption (see Schedule 1 § 5)

Any amounts payable in accordance with the Terms and Conditions of the Notes will be paid by the Issuer to the relevant Clearing System for credit to the accounts of the relevant depositary banks to be paid to the Noteholders (see Schedule 1 § 5).

If any due date for payment is not a business day, the Final Terms will provide for the determination of an alternative payment date. In such event, the Noteholders will neither be entitled to payment as a consequence of the payment date falling after the due date for payment nor to default interest (Verzugszinsen) or any other compensation on account of such adjustment.

(v) Prescription

The rights to payment of interest and principal under bearer Notes are subject to prescription. The period of prescription is two years. The prescription period begins at the end of the 10-year period during which the Notes must be duly presented (see Schedule 1 § 8).

(vi) Early Redemption Rights

The different early redemption rights are set out above under "Early Redemption Rights".

Meetings of Noteholders

For certain Notes, the Final Terms may provide that the Conditions may be amended by the Issuer with consent of the Noteholders by way of a majority resolution in a Noteholders' Meeting or a vote not requiring a physical meeting (Abstimmung ohne Versammlung) in accordance with the German Act on Issues of Debt Securities, as amended (Schuldverschreibungsgesetz – "SchVG"). A majority resolution in accordance with the SchVG is binding on all Noteholders of the relevant Series of Notes (see Schedule 1 Terms and Conditions § 12 Amendments to the Conditions by resolution of the Noteholders; Joint Representative).

Details on Noteholders' Meetings and resolutions for a specific Series of Notes are described in the relevant Final Terms.

The following sections 1-5 provide an overview of the statutory provisions of the SchVG.

1. Overview of the SchVG

The SchVG applies to debt securities "from an issue of identical debt securities" (Gesamtemission) which are governed by German law. Consequently, the SchVG is not limited to issuers with registered offices in Germany. The SchVG does not apply to debt securities for which the issuer or a joint obligor (Mitverpflichteter) is the Federal Republic of Germany, a German federal state (Land) or a municipality, or to covered notes (gedeckte Schuldverschreibungen) within the meaning of the German Pfandbrief Act (Pfandbriefgesetz – "PfandBG").

Under the new SchVG, it is possible to extensively change and therefore restructure the conditions (the so-called terms and conditions) of those debt securities to which the SchVG applies. Amendments to the terms and conditions of debt securities are only allowed if and to the extent the relevant terms and conditions themselves provide for such changes and only with the debtor's consent. Any amendments to terms and conditions are only binding in respect of the debt securities of a specific issuance.

If the terms and conditions provide for the possibility of majority resolutions with binding effect on all securities holders, a joint representative for the securities holders may be appointed.

2. Individual subjects of resolutions

The SchVG does not provide an exclusive list of admissible amendments to the terms and conditions but provides an exemplary list. Individual subjects for resolutions may include:

- amendments to the principal claim (due date, amount, currency, rank, debtors, object of performance);
- amendments to or removal of ancillary conditions of the debt securities;
- modification or waiver of a right of termination and removal of the effect of the collective right of termination;
- substitution and release of security;
- amendments to legal transactions with joint obligors; and
- amendments to ancillary claims (due date, amount, exclusion, currency, rank, debtors, object of performance);

In addition, resolutions not affecting the contents of the terms and conditions of the debt securities may be passed on the subjects below:

- exchange of the debt securities for other debt securities or shares; and
- appointment, duties and removal of a joint representative.

3. Relevant Majorities of the SchVG

Any resolutions which materially alter the terms and conditions, in particular in the cases as listed in § 5 para. 3 sentence 1 nos. 1-9 SchVG, require a majority of at least 75% of the votes participating in the vote (a "Qualified Majority") The terms and conditions may also require higher majorities for certain measures. All other resolutions may generally be passed with a simple majority of 50% of the participating votes. The relevant terms and conditions may also require a higher majority for certain measures.

4. Procedures of the SchVG

Resolutions of the securities holders are either passed in a securities holders' meeting or by way of a vote without a meeting (§§ 9 ff and § 18 SchVG).

Securities holders who together hold 5% of the outstanding nominal amount of debt securities of the same series may demand in writing that a securities holders' meeting or a vote without a meeting will take place. In the event of a securities holders' meeting, a prior registration of the securities holders may be required for participation in the meeting or any vote.

5. Joint representative (gemeinsamer Vertreter)

A joint representative may be appointed in the terms and conditions of the debt securities or by way of a majority resolution passed by the securities holders' meeting. If at the same time rights are assigned to the joint representative, thereby enabling it to consent to material amendments to the terms and conditions on behalf of the securities holders, the appointment requires a Qualified Majority.

The securities holders may at any time and without reason terminate the appointment of the joint representative by majority resolution with a simple majority. The joint representative is bound by the securities holders' instructions (which are based on the relevant majority resolutions).

Any individual or competent legal entity may be appointed as joint representative, provided that, for the avoidance of conflicts of interest, certain disclosure requirements are to be met and certain persons are excluded from an appointment in the terms of conditions.

The duties and rights of the joint representative are determined by the SchVG, any resolutions of the securities holders or the original terms and conditions of the debt securities.

To the extent that the exercise of securities holders' rights has been transferred to the joint representative, the securities holders themselves may not assert these rights, unless the terms and conditions or a majority resolution of the securities holders provide otherwise. However, the joint representative appointed by the terms and conditions may not be granted the right to waive rights of the securities holders, and material amendments to the terms and conditions within the meaning of § 5 para. 3 sentence 1 nos. 1-9 SchVG furthermore require at least a resolution passed by a Qualified Majority.

The joint representative's liability may be restricted in accordance with the SchVG. In case the joint representative is appointed in the terms and conditions of the debt securities, the joint representative's liability may be restricted to the tenfold of its annual remuneration, unless it is liable for wilful misconduct (Vorsatz) or gross negligence (grobe Fahrlässigkeit).

B. Securities Information Concerning the Derivatives Notes

The following section contains the Securities Description relating to interest-bearing and non-interest bearing Derivative Notes to be issued under the Programme, the redemption amount of which is linked to a reference asset. Within the functionality of Derivative Notes the possibility exists that – subject to the interest- and redemption-structure and the relevant reference assets as determined in the Final Terms- no interest will be paid and/or less than the principal amount of the Notes is redeemed at maturity.

Information Concerning the Derivative Notes to be Offered or Admitted to Trading

Type and Class of the Notes

Under the Programme, the Issuer will issue different series of non-interest bearing subordinated or unsubordinated Notes, or fixed rate, floating rate or derivative interest rate subordinated or unsubordinated Notes (or subordinated or unsubordinated Notes with a combination of interest types), the redemption amount of which is linked to reference assets. Each series may be subdivided into different tranches. The terms of the Notes of any one tranche must be identical in every respect, whereas the tranches of a series may have different issue dates, interest commencement dates and/or issue prices.

The final terms and characteristics of any tranche or series and the ISIN or any other security identification code will be specified by a document containing the Final Terms (the "Final Terms") (see Schedule 4). The Final Terms will also set forth the terms and conditions applicable to the relevant issue.

The Terms and Conditions may be prepared by the Issuer in consolidated form also. This will usually be the case if the Issuer intends to sell the Notes to non-qualified investors within the meaning of Section 2 no. 6 of the German Securities Prospectus Act. For these purposes, the Issuer will use the relevant sections set out in the form of Final Terms (see Schedule 4) as the basis and publish such sections, in each case (in the case of Notes governed by German law) together with the consolidated version of the conditions of Terms and Conditions of the Notes, in accordance with Section 14 of the German Securities Prospectus Act. In the event of non-consolidated conditions, the final conditions will be determined using the relevant sections set out in the form of Final Terms.

Relation between Reference Asset and Investment

The Final Terms might provide for interest and/or redemption linked to one or more reference assets. This means that an investor, under certain circumstances and depending on the interest and redemption structure and the reference assets as set out in the Final Terms, may receive no interest payments and less than the principal amount of the Notes. With such structure a partially or total loss of the invested capital cannot be excluded. How the investment is affected by the reference asset depends on whether the reference asset is a structured interest rate, a CMS rate, a share or a share basket (i.e. a basket which comprises at least two different shares, which may be weighted unequally), as applicable, or an index or an index basket (i.e. a basket which comprises at least two different indices, which may be weighted unequally), as applicable. The Final Terms will specify the relevant reference asset and the mathematical relation between the redemption amount and the relevant reference asset(s) as well as the determination of the redemption amount upon the occurrence of Market Disruption or Adjustment Events. In such case, the Final Terms will contain a description of the reference asset(s), the linkage of the redemption amount to the reference asset(s), and a risk factors section specific to such Final Terms, if applicable.

Information regarding reference assets are set out in this securities description under "Type of the Reference Asset and Information on the Reference Asset, Market Disruption Events and Adjustment Rules with Relation to Events Concerning the Reference Asset".

Governing Law (see Terms and Conditions Schedule 1 § 14)

The Notes of each tranche or series will be issued under the terms specified in the Final Terms, and under German law.

Form, Custody and Transfer of the Notes (see Terms and Conditions Schedule 1 § 1(1)-(5))

The Notes will be issued as Global Notes in bearer form and in the denominations specified in the Final Terms. For Notes of a particular tranche or series to which U.S. Treasury Regulation §1.163-5(c)(2)(i)(D) (the "TEFRA D Rules") apply, as specified in the relevant Final Terms, the aggregate principal amount of each tranche or series will initially be represented by a Temporary Global Note and subsequently, after expiry of 40 days from the relevant issue date and upon certification as to non-U.S. beneficial ownership, by a Permanent Global Note. Notes of a particular tranche or series to which U.S. Treasury Regulation §1.163-5(c)(2)(i)(C) (the "TEFRA C Rules") apply or to which neither the TEFRA C Rules nor the TEFRA D Rules apply, as specified in the relevant Final Terms, will be represented by a Permanent Global Note. For Notes not issued in New Global Note form, the Global Notes will be deposited with Clearstream Banking AG, Frankfurt am Main (Mergenthalerallee 61, 65760 Eschborn, Germany), or a depositary common to Clearstream Banking, société anonyme, Luxembourg (42 Avenue JF Kennedy, L-1855 Luxembourg, Luxembourg) and Euroclear Bank SA/NV (1 Boulevard du Roi Albert IIB, 1210 Brussels, Belgium) or any other clearing system (each a "Clearing System"), as specified in the Final Terms.

If specified in the relevant Final Terms, Notes potentially eligible as collateral for the Eurosystem monetary policy and intra-day credit operations – if not deposited with Clearstream Banking AG, Frankfurt am Main, as Classical Global Notes – may be issued in a form compliant with the New Global Note Structure for international bearer debt securities and will be kept in safe custody with a common safekeeper for Euroclear and/or Clearstream Banking, Luxembourg, the International Central Securities Depositories (the "ICSD").

Definitive securities will not be issued, unless the Final Terms provide for the issue of definitive securities.

The Notes may be transferred in accordance with rules of the relevant Clearing System.

Currency (see Terms and Conditions Schedule 1 § 1(1))

The currency of issue of the Notes is the euro, unless the Final Terms provide for a different currency (see "Risk Factors – Additional Risk Factors Relating to Derivative Notes").

Status and Ranking (see Terms and Conditions Schedule 1 § 2)

The Notes may be issued as subordinated or as unsubordinated Notes, as determined in the Final Terms. The Notes of any one tranche or series, however, will at all times rank pari passu and without any preference among themselves.

(i) Unsubordinated Notes

If the Notes are issued as unsubordinated Notes, they will rank equally with all other unsubordinated unsecured obligations of the Issuer (see Schedule 2 Section 2.1.1 § 2 alternative 1), save for certain claims of other creditors required to be preferred by law. In particular, Pfandbriefe issued under the Programme will have a preferred claim over cover assets reserved for the Pfandbriefe pursuant to the German Pfandbrief Act (see Schedule 2 § 2 and Schedule 3 § 5).

(ii) Subordinated Notes

If the Notes are issued as subordinated Notes, they will be subordinated to all unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer (see Schedule 1 § 2 alternative 2).

In the event of insolvency of the Issuer, repayment will be made to the holders of subordinated Notes only if all prior ranking claims of all unsubordinated creditors of the Issuer have been fully satisfied and if subsequently there are funds which remain to satisfy the claims of the holders of the subordinated Notes (see "Risk Factors – Additional Risk Factors Relating to Derivative Notes"). Early redemption of the Notes is subject to certain limitations pursuant to § 10 paras. 5a and 7 KWG.

Rights and Procedure for the Exercise of Rights

(i) No General Early Redemption Right (ordentliches Kündigungsrecht)

There is no general early redemption right in relation to Notes prior to the final redemption date (see Schedule 1 § 4(c) alternative 2 and § 4(d) alternative 2).

(ii) Extraordinary Redemption Rights (Sonderkündigungsrechte)

In exceptional cases, the Issuer may redeem such Notes or holders of unsubordinated Notes may require early redemption of such Notes upon the occurrence of an event of default (see Schedule 1 § 9), or the Issuer may redeem such Notes early upon the occurrence of a tax event (see Schedule 1 § 4(b)).

In the case of subordinated Notes, this extraordinary redemption right is limited by § 10 paras. 5a and 7 of the German Banking Act (Gesetz über das Kreditwesen – KWG).

If the redemption amount is linked to one or more reference asset(s), redemption which is made in a situation where the reference asset itself is subject to changes, is subject to particular risks for the investor (see "Risk Factors – Additional Risk Factors Relating to Derivative Notes").

(iii) Early Redemption Procedure

If the Issuer may redeem the Notes early, the Noteholders have to be notified of such redemption. This is done by giving notice in accordance with § 13 of the Terms and Conditions (see Schedule 1 § 13).

If the Noteholders may require early redemption of the Notes, the Issuer has to be notified of such redemption. This is done either directly by notice to the Issuer or by sending the early redemption notice to the office of the Fiscal Agent (see Schedule 1 § 4(d) alternative 2 or § 9).

In the case of subordinated Notes, the provisions of the German Banking Act have to be complied with in addition.

(iv) Purchase

The Issuer may at any time cancel unsubordinated Notes purchased in the open market (see Schedule 1 § 4(e)), in the case of subordinated Notes, subject to legal restrictions.

Interest

The Final Terms may provide for the issue of non-interest bearing Notes (see Schedule 1 § 3 Zero Coupon Alternative), fixed rate (see Schedule 1 § 3 Fixed Rate Alternative), or floating rate Notes (see Schedule 1 § 3 Floating Rate Alternative), or Notes having derivative interest rates linked to one or more reference asset(s). The types and structures of interest correspond to those under the Standard Notes (see "Securities Description Standard Notes – Interest").

Redemption at Maturity and Settlement Procedure

The Final Terms may provide for redemption of the principal amount of the Notes at a maturity date or for redemption of the Notes at their derivative redemption amount or for redemption of the Notes in instalments or for physical delivery of reference assets (see Schedule 1 § 4).

(i) Redemption at Maturity

The redemption date and the manner of calculation of the derivative redemption amount at maturity will be specified in the Final Terms. In the event of early termination, the redemption date will be specified in the provisions applicable to the relevant termination. On the redemption date, the holders are entitled to payment of the derivative redemption amount which may be less than the principal amount of the Notes.

(ii) Physical Delivery of Reference Assets

The details and requirements of a physical delivery of reference assets will be specified in the Final Terms.

(iii) Redemption in Instalments

If the Final Terms provide for redemption of the Notes in instalments, the redemption dates and the payments due on such dates will be specified in the Final Terms.

(iv) Early Redemption

In the event of early redemption, the redemption date will be specified in the provisions applicable to the relevant termination.

The Final Terms may provide that the Early Redemption Amount shall equal the fair market value of the Notes determined in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner by the Calculation Agent, adjusted to account for any reasonable expenses and costs of unwinding any reference assets and/or related hedging and funding arrangements of the Issuer. In certain circumstances, this value may be lower than the principal amount per Note or lower the amount invested, and as a result the Noteholders may recover less than the principal amount per Note or less than the amount invested in the event of Early Redemption.

(v) Method of Redemption (see Schedule 1 § 5)

Any amounts payable in accordance with the Terms and Conditions of the Derivative Notes will be paid by the Issuer to a Clearing System for credit to the accounts of the relevant depositary banks to be paid to the Noteholders (see Schedule 1 § 5).

If any due date for payment is not a business day, the Final Terms will provide for the determination of an alternative payment date. In such event, the Noteholders will neither be entitled to payment as a consequence of the payment date falling after the due date for payment nor to default interest (Verzugszinsen) or any other compensation on account of such adjustment.

(vi) Physical Delivery

The settlement procedure in relation to a physical delivery of reference assets or other securities will be specified in the Final Terms. In any event, physical delivery will not be made to an address or to an account located in the U.S. When physical delivery is at the option of the holder, any holder that fails to certify as to non-U.S. personhood will receive only the cash settlement amount.

(vii) Prescription

The rights to payment of interest and principal under bearer Notes are subject to prescription. The period of prescription is two years. The prescription period begins at the end of the 10-year period during which the Notes must be duly presented (see Schedule 1 § 8).

Meetings of Noteholders

Please see "Securities Description Standard Notes – Meeting of Noteholders".

Information Relating to the Reference Assets

Exercise Price or Final Reference Price of the Reference Asset

The Final Terms will specify either the exercise price and/or the final reference price.

Type of the Reference Asset and Information on the Reference Asset, Market Disruption Events and Adjustment Rules with Relation to Events Concerning the Reference Asset

The Final Terms may provide that the redemption amount of the Notes will be linked to certain reference assets (in particular formulas with structured interest components, CMS rates, shares or share baskets or indices or index baskets). In such case, the Final Terms will contain a description of the relevant reference asset (including where information about the past and the further performance of the reference assets and the volatility can be obtained) and the linkage of the redemption amount to the reference asset, and a risk factors section specific to such Final Terms, if applicable. (See "Risk Factors – Additional Risk Factors Relating to Derivative Notes").

(i) Formula with Structured Interest Components

If the Final Terms provide for redemption to be linked to a formula with structured interest components, the Final Terms will specify the interest rate and the mathematical relation between the redemption amount and the interest rate, and the determination of the redemption amount upon the occurrence of Market Disruption or Adjustment Events, as well the place where information relating to the relevant interest rate (including information relating to past and expected performance of the rate and its volatility) can be obtained. In such case, the Final Terms will contain a description of the linkage of the redemption amount to the relevant interest rate, and a risk factors section specific to such Final Terms, if applicable. (See "Risk Factors – Additional Risk Factors Relating to Derivative Notes").

(ii) CMS Rates

If the Final Terms provide for redemption to be linked to a CMS (Constant Maturity Swap) rate, the Final Terms will specify the CMS rate and the mathematical relation between the redemption amount and the CMS rate, and determination of the redemption amount upon the occurrence of Market Disruption or Adjustment Events, as well the place where information relating to the relevant CMS rate (including information relating to past and expected performance of the rate and its volatility) can be obtained. In such case, the Final

Terms will contain a description of the linkage of the redemption amount to the relevant CMS rate, and a risk factors section specific to such Final Terms, if applicable. (See "Risk Factors – Additional Risk Factors Relating to Derivative Notes").

(iii) Shares or Share Baskets

If the Final Terms provide for redemption to be linked to a share or a share basket, the Final Terms will specify the share or the share basket, as applicable, together with the respective weightings of the constituent shares and the possibility of modifications, if any, to the composition of the relevant share basket, the names of the share issuer(s), the relevant ISIN of the share(s), as well as the mathematical relation between the redemption amount and the shares or the shares in the share basket, as applicable, and the determination of the redemption amount upon the occurrence of Market Disruption or Adjustment Events. The Calculation Agent, in accordance with the provisions of the Terms and Conditions, will determine the occurrence or existence of a Market Disruption Event (including, but not limited to, Trading Disruptions, Exchange Disruptions or Early Closures) or of a Disrupted Day (i.e. on any Scheduled Trading Day, a relevant Exchange or Related Exchange is not open for trading or the price of the relevant share cannot be determined) as of a relevant time. As a result of a Potential Adjustment Event and various events relating to shares (including, but not limited to, Merger Events, Tender Offers, Nationalisation, Delisting or Insolvency), the Calculation Agent may make certain adjustments to the Terms and Conditions in order to take into account the occurrence of such event. In such case, the Final Terms will contain a description of the linkage of the redemption amount to the share or the share basket, as applicable, the determination of the Market Disruption Events and the Potential Adjustment Events, the possibilities of adjustment by the Calculation Agent, the information provided by the information source(s) – in particular in relation to the availability of the historic and further performance and volatility of the share(s), and a risk factors section specific to such Final Terms, if applicable (see "Risk Factors – Additional Risk Factors Relating to Derivative Notes").

(iv) Indices or Index Baskets

If the Final Terms provide for redemption to be linked to an index or an index basket, the Final Terms will specify the index or index basket, as applicable, together with the respective weightings of the constituent indices and the possibility of modifications, if any, to the composition of the relevant index basket, a description of the index (or, if the index is not composed by the Issuer, the place where information relating to the index or indices can be obtained, as well as the mathematical relation between the redemption amount and the index or the index basket, as applicable, and the determination of the redemption amount upon the occurrence of Market Disruption or Adjustment Events. The Calculation Agent, in accordance with the provisions of the Terms and Conditions, will determine the occurrence or existence of a Market Disruption Event as of a relevant time. As a result of an Index Adjustment Event, the Calculation Agent may make such adjustments to any amounts payable in respect of the Notes and/or to other figures relevant to payments under the Notes as it deems appropriate. In such case, the Final Terms will contain a description of the linkage of the redemption amount to the index or index basket, as applicable, the determination of the Market Disruption Events and Index Adjustment Events, the possibilities of adjustment by the Calculation Agent, the information provided by the information source(s), in particular in relation to the availability of the historic and further performance and volatility of the index or index basket, and a risk factors section specific to such Final Terms, if applicable (see "Risk Factors – Additional Risk Factors Relating to Derivative Notes").

C. Securities information concerning Pfandbriefe

The following section contains the Securities Description relating to the Mortgage Pfandbriefe (Hypothekenpfandbriefe), and Public Sector Pfandbriefe (Öffentliche Pfandbriefe) which may also be issued as Jumbo Pfandbriefe to be issued under the Programme.

Rules applicable to all Types of Pfandbriefe

Pfandbriefe are standardised debt instruments issued by a Pfandbrief Bank. The quality and standards of Pfandbriefe are strictly governed by provisions of the Pfandbrief Act and subject to the prudential supervision of the BaFin. Pfandbriefe generally are medium- to long-term notes, typically with an original maturity of two to ten years, which are secured or "covered" at all times by a pool of specified qualifying assets (Deckung), as described below. Pfandbriefe are recourse obligations of the issuing bank, and no separate vehicle is created for their issuance generally or for the issuance of any specific series of Pfandbriefe. Pfandbriefe may not be redeemed at the option of the holders prior to maturity.

As mentioned before, Pfandbriefe may either be Mortgage Pfandbriefe, Public Sector Pfandbriefe Ship Mortgage Pfandbriefe or Aircraft Mortgage Pfandbriefe. The outstanding Pfandbriefe of any one of these types must be covered by a separate pool of specified qualifying assets: a pool for Mortgage Pfandbriefe only, a pool for Public Sector Pfandbriefe only, a pool for Ship Mortgage Pfandbriefe only, and a pool for Aircraft Mortgage Pfandbriefe only (each a "Cover Pool"). An independent trustee appointed by the BaFin has wide responsibilities in monitoring the compliance by the Pfandbrief Bank with the provisions of the Pfandbrief Act. In particular, the trustee monitors the sufficiency of the cover assets and maintains a register listing the assets provided as cover from time to time in respect of the Pfandbriefe of any given type.

At any time the coverage of all outstanding Pfandbriefe on the basis of the present value (Barwert), which has to include the obligation with respect to interest and principal has to be ensured. In addition, the present value of the assets contained in the Cover Pool must exceed the present value (Barwert) of liabilities to be covered by at least 2 per cent (sichere Überdeckung).

Such 2 per cent excess cover must consist of highly liquid assets. Qualifying assets for the excess cover are (i) debt securities of the German government, a special fund of the German government, a German state, the European Communities, the states comprising the European Economic Area, the European Investment Bank, the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development, the Council of Europe Development Bank, or, under certain circumstances, Switzerland, the United States, Canada, Japan, the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development; (ii) debt securities where the payment of interest and the repayment of principal has been guaranteed by any of the foregoing entities; and (iii) credit balances maintained with the European Central Bank, the central banks of the member states of the European Union and appropriate credit institutions having its seat in one of the countries mentioned under (i) provided that the amount of the claims of the Pfandbrief bank is known already upon acquisition.

As at 1 November 2009, the Pfandbrief Bank will have to provide for a 180 calendar day liquidity reserve in form of assets which are eligible for Eurosystem credit operations.

The aggregate principal amount of assets in the Cover Pools must at all times at least be equal to the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Pfandbriefe issued against such Cover Pool. If the maximum redemption amount, known at the time of the issuance of the Pfandbriefe, exceeds the principal amount, then such maximum redemption amount shall be used instead of the principal amount.

The Pfandbrief Bank must record in the register of cover assets for any Cover Pool of a given Pfandbrief type each asset and the liabilities arising from derivative transactions. Derivative transactions may be entered in such register only with the consent of the trustee and the counterparty.

The Pfandbrief Bank must command over an appropriate risk management system meeting the requirements specified in detail in the Pfandbrief Act and must comply with comprehensive disclosure requirements on a quarterly and annual basis set out in detail in the Pfandbrief Act.

Cover Pool for Mortgage Pfandbriefe

The principal assets qualifying for the Cover Pool for Mortgage Pfandbriefe are loans secured by mortgages which may serve as cover up to the initial 60 per cent of the value of the property, as assessed by experts of the Pfandbrief Bank not taking part in the credit decision in accordance with comprehensive evaluation rules designed to arrive at the fair market value of the property.

The property that may be encumbered by the mortgages must be situated in a state of the European Economic Area, Switzerland, the United States, Canada or Japan.

In addition, the Cover Pool for Mortgage Pfandbriefe may comprise a limited portion of other assets as follows: (i) equalization claims converted into bearer notes; (ii) subject to certain qualifications, those assets which may also be included in the 2 per cent excess cover described above, up to a total sum of 10 per cent of the aggregate principal amount of outstanding Mortgage Pfandbriefe; (iii) the assets which may also be included in the Cover Pool for Public Sector Pfandbriefe referred to below, up to a total of 20 per cent of the aggregate principal amount of outstanding Mortgage Pfandbriefe, whereby the assets pursuant to (ii) above will be deducted, and, finally, (iv) claims arising under derivative transactions concluded with certain qualifying counterparties, provided that it is assured that the claims pursuant to the master agreement will not be prejudiced in the event of the insolvency of the Pfandbrief Bank or any other Cover Pool maintained by it. The amount of the claims of the Pfandbrief Bank arising under derivative transactions which are included in the Cover Pool measured against the total amount of all assets forming part of the Cover Pool as well as the amount of the liabilities of the Pfandbrief Bank arising from such derivative transactions measured against the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Mortgage Pfandbriefe plus the liabilities arising from derivative transactions may in either case not exceed 12 per cent., calculated in each case on the basis of the net present values.

Cover Pool for Public Sector Pfandbriefe

In accordance with § 20 of the Pfandbrief Act, the Cover Pool for Public Sector Pfandbriefe may comprise payment claims under loans, notes or similar transactions or certain other receivables of a wide spectrum of states and other public instrumentalities, including, but not limited to: (i) the German government as well as any German state, municipality or other qualifying public body in Germany; (ii) the European Communities, the states comprising in the European Economic Area or their national central banks; (iii) the regional administrations and political subdivisions listed in para. (ii) above; (iv) under certain circumstances the United States, Canada or Switzerland and their national central banks and regional administrations and political subdivisions in these states; (vi) the European Central Bank and further claims as set out in the Pfandbrief Act.

The Cover Pool may furthermore include the following assets: (i) equalisation claims converted into bearer notes; (ii) credit balances maintained with suitable credit institution, up to a total sum of 10 per cent. of the aggregate principal amount of outstanding Public Sector Pfandbriefe; and (iii) claims arising under derivative transactions as mentioned above, subject to the conditions and restrictions described in such paragraph. The limitations which apply to Mortgage Pfandbriefe apply here as well.

Cover Pool for Ship Mortgage Pfandbriefe

The principal assets of the Cover Pool for Ship Mortgage Pfandbriefe are loans secured by ship mortgages. Any such mortgage may serve as cover up to an amount not exceeding 60 per cent. of the fair market value of the ship.

In addition, the Cover Pool for Ship Mortgage Pfandbriefe may include other assets of the kind which qualify for a Cover Pool of Mortgage Pfandbriefe (see above).

Cover Pool for Aircraft Mortgage Pfandbriefe

The principal assets of the Cover Pool for Aircraft Mortgage Pfandbriefe are loans secured by aircraft mortgages. Any such mortgage may serve as cover up to an amount not exceeding 60 per cent. of the fair market value of the aircraft.

In addition, the Cover Pool for Aircraft Mortgage Pfandbriefe may include other assets of the kind which qualify for a Cover Pool of Mortgage Pfandbriefe (see above).

Insolvency Proceedings

In the event of the institution of insolvency proceedings over the assets of the Pfandbrief Bank, any Cover Pool maintained by it would not be part of the insolvency estate (Insolvenzmasse), and, therefore, such insolvency would not automatically result in an insolvency of any Cover Pool. Only if at the same time or thereafter the relevant Cover Pool were to become insolvent, separate insolvency proceedings would be initiated against such Cover Pool by the BaFin. In this case, holders of Pfandbriefe would have the first claim on the respective Cover Pool. Their preferential right would also extend to interest on the Pfandbriefe accrued after the commencement of insolvency proceedings. Furthermore, but only to the extent that holders of Pfandbriefe suffer a loss, holders would also have recourse to any assets of the Pfandbrief Bank not included in the Cover Pools. As regards those assets, holders of the Pfandbriefe would rank equal with other unsecured and unsubordinated creditors of the Pfandbrief Bank.

One or two administrators (Sachwalter – "Administrator") will be appointed in the case of the insolvency of the Pfandbrief Bank to administer each Cover Pool for the sole benefit of the holders of Pfandbriefe. The Administrator will be appointed by the court having jurisdiction at the location of the head office of the Pfandbrief Bank at the request of the BaFin before or after the institution of insolvency proceedings. The Administrator will be subject to the supervision of the court and also of the BaFin with respect to the duties of the Pfandbrief Bank arising in connection with the administration of the assets included in the relevant Cover Pool. The Administrator will be entitled to dispose of the Cover Pool's assets and receive all payments on the relevant assets to ensure full satisfaction of the claims of the holders of Pfandbriefe. To the extent, however, that those assets are obviously not necessary to satisfy such claims, the insolvency receiver of the Pfandbrief Bank is entitled to demand the transfer of such assets to the insolvency estate.

Subject to the consent of the BaFin, the Administrator may transfer all or part of the cover assets and the liabilities arising from the Pfandbriefe issued against such assets to another Pfandbrief Bank.

Type and Class of the Pfandbriefe

The Issuer will issue different series of non-interest bearing Pfandbriefe having specified denominations (Zero Coupon Pfandbriefe), and fixed rate or floating rate Pfandbriefe (or Pfandbriefe with a combination of interest structures) under the Programme. Each series may be subdivided into different tranches. The terms of the Pfandbriefe of any one tranche must be identical in every respect, whereas the tranches of a series may have different issue dates, interest commencement dates and/or issue prices.

The type of Pfandbriefe (i.e., mortgage Pfandbriefe or public sector Pfandbriefe) as well as the final terms and characteristics of the Pfandbriefe of any tranche or series and the ISIN or any other security identification code will be specified in the Final Terms (see Schedule 4). The Final Terms will also set forth the terms and conditions applicable to the relevant issue. In case of Pfandbriefe other than Jumbo Pfandbriefe, the Terms and Conditions comprise the "Terms and Conditions" applicable to all issues (see Schedule 2), and in case of Jumbo Pfandbriefe, the Terms and Conditions comprise the "Terms and Conditions" (see Schedule 3).

The Terms and Conditions may be prepared by the Issuer in consolidated form also. This will always be the case in case of Jumbo Pfandbriefe, and will usually be the case if the Issuer intends to sell the Pfandbriefe to non-qualified investors within the meaning of Section 2 no. 6 of the German Securities Prospectus Act. For these purposes, the Issuer will use the relevant sections set out in the form of Final Terms (see Schedule 4) as the basis and publish such sections, in each case together with the consolidated version of the conditions of Terms and Conditions of the Pfandbriefe, in accordance with Section 14 of the German Securities Prospectus Act. In the event of non-consolidated conditions, the final conditions will be determined using the relevant sections set out in the form of Final Terms.

Governing Law (see Schedule 2 Terms and Conditions § 11 and Schedule 3 Terms and Conditions § 9)

The Pfandbriefe of each tranche or series will be issued under the terms specified in the Final Terms, under German law

Form, Custody and Transfer of the Pfandbriefe (see Schedule 2 Terms and Conditions § 1(b) and (c) and Schedule 3 Terms and Conditions § 1(2))

The Pfandbriefe will be issued as Global Pfandbriefe in bearer form and in the denominations specified in the Final Terms. For Pfandbriefe of a particular tranche or series to which U.S. Treasury Regulation §1.163-5(c)(2)(i)(D) (the "TEFRA D Rules") apply, as specified in the relevant Final Terms, the aggregate principal amount of each tranche or series will initially be represented by a Temporary Global Pfandbrief and subsequently, after expiry of 40 days from the relevant issue date and upon certification as to non-U.S. beneficial ownership, by a Permanent Global Pfandbrief. Pfandbriefe of a particular tranche or series to which U.S. Treasury Regulation §1.163-5(c)(2)(i)(C) (the "TEFRA C Rules") apply or to which neither the TEFRA C Rules nor the TEFRA D Rules apply, as specified in the relevant Final Terms, will be represented by a Permanent Global Pfandbrief. For Pfandbriefe not issued in New Global Note form, the Global Note will be deposited with Clearstream Banking AG, Frankfurt am Main (Mergenthalerallee 61, 65760 Eschborn, Germany) or, in the case of Pfandbriefe, other than Jumbo Pfandbriefe, with a depositary common to Clearstream Banking, société anonyme, Luxembourg (42 Avenue JF Kennedy, L-1855 Luxembourg, Luxembourg) and Euroclear Bank SA/NV (1 Boulevard du Roi Albert IIB, 1210 Brussels, Belgium) or any other clearing system (each a "Clearing System"), as specified in the Final Terms.

If specified in the relevant Final Terms, Pfandbriefe (other than Jumbo Pfandbriefe) potentially eligible as collateral for the Eurosystem monetary policy and intra-day credit operations – if not deposited with Clearstream Banking AG, Frankfurt am Main, as Classical Global Notes – may be issued in a form compliant with the New Global Note Structure for international bearer debt securities and will be kept in safe custody with a common safekeeper for Euroclear and/or Clearstream Banking, Luxembourg, the International Central Securities Depositories (the "ICSD").

Definitive securities will not be issued, unless the Final Terms provide for the issue of definitive securities.

The Pfandbriefe may be transferred in accordance with rules of the relevant Clearing System.

Currency (see Schedule 2 Terms and Conditions § 1(a) and Schedule 3 Terms and Conditions § 1(1))

The currency of issue of the Pfandbriefe is the euro, unless the Final Terms provide for a different currency (see "Risk Factors – Risk Factors Relating to the Pfandbriefe").

Status and Ranking (see Schedule 2 Terms and Conditions § 2 and Schedule 3 Terms and Conditions § 5)

The Pfandbriefe to be issued will at all times rank pari passu and without any preference among themselves. In accordance with the Pfandbriefgesetz and depending on the type of Pfandbrief, the Pfandbriefe will be secured by a specific cover pool (see section "Rules applicable to all Types of Pfandbriefe", p.112).

In the event of the institution of insolvency proceedings over the assets of the Issuer, the cover pool maintained by it would not be part of the insolvency estate, and, therefore, the holders of Pfandbriefe would have the first claim on the cover pool (see section "Rules applicable to all Types of Pfandbriefe" under "Insolvency Proceedings", p.114)

Early Redemption Rights (see Schedule 2 Terms and Conditions § 4(b) and Schedule 3 Terms and Conditions § 3)

The Final Terms may provide for an early redemption right (ordentliches Kündigungsrecht) of the Issuer, or may exclude such early redemption rights.

(i) No General Early Redemption Right (ordentliches Kündigungsrecht) for Holders of Pfandbriefe

There is no general early redemption right in relation to the Pfandbriefe for holders of Pfandbriefe prior to the final redemption date (see Schedule 2 Terms and Conditions and Schedule 3 Terms and Conditions § 3).

(ii) Early Redemption at the Option of the Issuer

Otherwise, the redemption of the Pfandbriefe prior to maturity may only be required if the Final Terms provide for a call option by the Issuer (see Schedule 2 Terms and Conditions § 4(b) alternative 2) (see "Risk Factors – Risk Factors Relating to the Pfandbriefe").

(iii) Early Redemption Procedure

If the Issuer may redeem the Pfandbriefe early, the Pfandbriefholders have to be notified of such redemption. This is done by giving notice in accordance with § 10 of the Terms and Conditions (see Schedule 2 Terms and Conditions § 10).

(iv) Purchase

The Issuer may at any time cancel Pfandbriefe purchased in the open market (see Schedule 2 Terms and Conditions § 4(3)).

Interest (see Schedule 2 Terms and Conditions § 3 and Schedule 3 Terms and Conditions § 2)

The Final Terms may provide for the issue of non-interest bearing, fixed rate or floating rate Pfandbriefe. The Final Terms may provide for maximum or minimum interest, or a step-up interest or any other interest method.

If none or one of the following types of interest have been provided for a Pfandbrief, the interest periods will be specified in the Final Terms.

(i) Fixed Rate Pfandbriefe

If the Final Terms provide for fixed interest on the Pfandbriefe (see Schedule 2 Terms and Conditions § 3 and Schedule 3 Terms and Conditions § 2), the Final Terms will specify the interest rate or the interest amount, as applicable, the interest periods, the interest payment date(s) per calendar year, the applicable business day convention and the interest calculation method (see "Risk Factors – Risk Factors Relating to the Pfandbriefe").

(ii) Zero Coupon Pfandbriefe

If the Pfandbriefe do not bear interest during their maturity, Zero Coupon Pfandbriefe, this will be specified in the Final Terms.

If, according to the provisions in the Final Terms, the Pfandbriefe do not bear interest during certain periods only, the Final Terms will specify the commencement and the end of each such period (see Schedule 2 Terms and Conditions § 3 and "Risk Factors – Risk Factors Relating to the Pfandbriefe").

(iii) Floating Rate Pfandbriefe

If the Final Terms provide for floating interest (not linked to the performance of a reference asset) on the Pfandbriefe, the Final Terms, in addition to the commencement and the end of interest accrual, the interest payment date(s) or interest period(s) per calendar year and the interest calculation method, will specify the business day convention, the individual interest components, the reference interest rate and the methodology of determination and calculation (also in case of market disruption) (see "Risk Factors – Risk Factors Relating to the Pfandbriefe").

The interest components will generally comprise a reference interest rate (in particular a EURIBOR or LIBOR rate) and a margin, if applicable. The Final Terms will set out how the reference interest rate will be determined.

The range of volatility of floating rates may be limited by provisions in the Final Terms stipulating a maximum and/or a minimum interest. The range of volatility may be increased by including multipliers (see Schedule 2 Terms and Conditions § 3.3(c)).

(iv) Prescription

The right to interest under bearer Pfandbriefe is subject to prescription. The period of prescription of the right to interest under bearer Pfandbriefe is two years. The prescription period begins at the end of the 10-year period during which the Pfandbriefe must be duly presented (see Schedule 2 Terms and Conditions § 8).

(v) Calculation Agent

Unless otherwise provided in the Final Terms, the relevant amount of interest payable on any Pfandbrief will be finally and conclusively determined by WGZ BANK AG Westdeutsche Genossenschafts-Zentralbank as Calculation Agent.

Redemption at Maturity and Settlement Procedure (see Schedule 2 Terms and Conditions § 4(a) and § 5 and Schedule 3 Terms and Conditions § 3)

The Final Terms may provide for redemption of 100% or more of the principal amount of the Pfandbriefe at a specified redemption date or for redemption of the Pfandbriefe in instalments.

- (i) Redemption at Maturity (see Schedule 2 Terms and Conditions § 4(a) and Schedule 3 Terms and Conditions § 3)

- (ii) Redemption in Instalments (see Schedule 2 Terms and Conditions § 4(a))

If the Final Terms provide for redemption of the Pfandbriefe in instalments, the redemption dates and the payments due on such dates will be specified in the Final Terms. The aggregate amount of redemption instalments will at least equal the principal amount.

- (iii) Early Redemption

In the event of early termination, the redemption date will be specified in the provisions applicable to the relevant termination.

- (iv) Method of Redemption (see Schedule 2 Terms and Conditions § 5 and Schedule 2 Terms and Conditions § 4)

Any amounts payable in accordance with the Terms and Conditions of the Pfandbriefe will be paid by the Issuer to the relevant Clearing System for credit to the accounts of the relevant depositary banks to be paid to the Pfandbriefholders.

If any due date for payment is not a business day, the Final Terms will provide for the determination of an alternative payment date. In such event, the Pfandbriefholders will neither be entitled to payment as a consequence of the payment date falling after the due date for payment nor to default interest (Verzugszinsen) or any other compensation on account of such adjustment.

- (v) Prescription

The rights to payment of principal under bearer Pfandbriefe are subject to prescription. The period of prescription of the rights to payment under bearer Pfandbriefe is two years. D. Information concerning the Keep-well statement (Patronatserklärung) of WGZ BANK

Keep-well statement

WGZ BANK has granted a Keep-well statement (Patronatserklärung) for the benefit of the Issuer, pursuant to which WGZ BANK has undertaken, in the maximum proportion of its participation in the Issuer's share capital, to procure – except in case of political risk – that the Issuer shall always be run and financially equipped so that it can meet its obligations which have been entered into during WGZ BANK's shareholding in the Issuer as and when they fall due.

Application of Keep-well statement

In the event the Issuer should not be able to pay its obligations for Non Equity Securities issued under the Programme when due, WGZ BANK is, during the term of its shareholdings of the Issuer, required to pay to the Issuer all amounts so that the Issuer is in a position to pay any amount due principal and/or interest to the holders of Non Equity Securities.

The Keep-well statement does not constitute a guarantee. Therefore, it does not give holders of Non Equity Securities any direct payment claim against WGZ BANK in the event that the Issuer defaults with regard to payments to be made under the Non Equity Securities. No assurance is provided that WGZ BANK will remain a majority shareholder of the Issuer.

E. Other Conditions applicable to all Non Equity Securities

The Non Equity Securities are freely transferable. (i) EEA States

In relation to each Member State of the European Economic Area which has implemented the Prospectus Directive (each, a "Relevant Member State"), each Dealer has represented and agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to represent and agree, that with effect from and including the date on which the Prospectus Directive is implemented in that Relevant Member State (the "Relevant Implementation Date") it has not made and will not make an offer of Non Equity Securities which are the subject of the offering contemplated by this Base Prospectus as completed by the final terms in relation thereto to the public in that Relevant Member State except that it may, with effect from and including the Relevant Implementation Date, make an offer of such Non Equity Securities to the public in that Relevant Member State:

- (a) if the final terms in relation to the Non Equity Securities specify that an offer of those Non Equity Securities may be made other than pursuant to Article 3(2) of the Prospectus Directive in that Relevant Member State (a "Non-exempt Offer"), following the date of publication of a prospectus in relation to such Non Equity Securities which has been approved by the competent authority in that Relevant Member State or, where appropriate, approved in another Relevant Member State and notified to the competent authority in that Relevant Member State, provided that any such prospectus has subsequently been completed by the final terms contemplating such Non-exempt Offer, in accordance with the Prospectus Directive, in the period beginning and ending on the dates specified in such prospectus or final terms, as applicable and the Issuer has consented in writing to its use for the purpose of that Non-exempt Offer;

- (b) at any time to any legal entity which is a qualified investor as defined in the Prospectus Directive;
- (c) at any time to fewer than 100 or, if the Relevant Member State has implemented the relevant provisions of the PD Amending Directive, 150, natural or legal persons (other than qualified investors as defined in the Prospectus Directive) subject to obtaining the prior consent of the relevant Dealer or Dealers nominated by the Issuer for any such offer; or
- (d) at any time in any other circumstances falling within Article 3(2) of the Prospectus Directive, provided that no such offer of Non Equity Securities referred to in (b) to (d) above shall require the Issuer or any Dealer to publish a prospectus pursuant to Article 3 of the Prospectus Directive or supplement a prospectus pursuant to Article 16 of the Prospectus Directive.

For the purposes of this provision, the expression an "offer of Non Equity Securities to the public" in relation to any Non Equity Securities in any Relevant Member State means the communication in any form and by any means of sufficient information on the terms of the offer and the Non Equity Securities to be offered so as to enable an investor to decide to purchase or subscribe the Non Equity Securities, as the same may be varied in that Member State by any measure implementing the Prospectus Directive in that Member State, the expression "Prospectus Directive" means Directive 2003/71/EC (and amendments thereto, including the PD Amending Directive) and includes any relevant implementing measure in each Relevant Member State and the expression "PD Amending Directive" means Directive 2010/73.

(ii) United States

The Non Equity Securities and any securities to be delivered upon exercise or redemption of the Non Equity Securities have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act and trading in the Non Equity Securities has not been approved by the U.S. Commodity Futures Trading Commission under the U.S. Commodity Exchange Act, as amended. The Non Equity Securities and any securities to be delivered upon exercise or redemption of the Non Equity Securities may not be offered or sold within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. Persons except in certain transactions exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act.

Each Dealer has agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will agree, that, except as permitted by the Dealer Agreement, it will not offer or, sell or deliver any Non Equity Securities and any securities to be delivered upon exercise or redemption of the Non Equity Securities, (i) as part of their distribution at any time or (ii) otherwise until 40 days after the later of the commencement of the offering and the Closing Date, within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. Persons, and it will have sent to each Dealer to which it sells Non Equity Securities during the distribution compliance period a confirmation or other notice setting forth the restrictions on offers and sales of the Non Equity Securities and the securities to be delivered upon exercise or redemption of the Non Equity Securities within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. Persons.

In addition, until 40 days after the commencement of the offering of any identifiable tranche of such Non Equity Securities, an offer or sale of Non Equity Securities within the United States by any dealer (whether or not participating in the offering) may violate the registration requirements of the Securities Act. Terms used in the preceding paragraphs have the meanings given them by Regulation S under the Securities Act.

In addition, the following applies for Non Equity Securities that are subject to the TEFRA C Rules:

The Non Equity Securities are subject to U.S. tax law requirements and may not be offered, sold or delivered within the United States or its possessions. Each Dealer has agreed that it will not offer, sell or deliver any Non Equity Securities within the United States. Terms used in the preceding paragraph have the meanings given them by the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended and the regulations thereunder.

In addition, the following applies for Non Equity Securities that are subject to the TEFRA D Rules:

The Non Equity Securities are subject to U.S. tax law requirements and may not be offered, sold or delivered within the United States or its possessions or to U.S. Persons except in transactions permitted by U.S. tax regulations. Each Dealer has agreed that it will not offer, sell or deliver any Non Equity Securities within the United States or to U.S. Persons, except as permitted by the Dealer Agreement. Terms used in the preceding paragraph have the meanings given them by the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended and the regulations thereunder.

(iii) United Kingdom

Each Dealer has represented, warranted and agreed and each further Dealer appointed will be required to represent, warrant and agree that:

- (1) in relation to any Non Equity Securities which have a maturity of less than one year, (a) it is a person whose ordinary activities involve it in acquiring, holding, managing or disposing of investments (as principal or agent) for the purposes of its business and (b) it has not offered or sold and will not offer or sell any Non Equity Securities other than to persons whose ordinary activities involve them in acquiring, holding, managing or disposing of investments (as principal or agent) for the purposes of their businesses or who it is reasonable to expect will acquire, hold, manage or dispose of investments (as principal or agent) for the purposes of their businesses where the issue of the Non Equity Securities would otherwise constitute a contravention of section 19 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (the "FSMA") by the Issuer;
- (2) it has only communicated or caused to be communicated and will only communicate or cause to be communicated any invitation or inducement to engage in investment activity (within the meaning of section 21 of the FSMA) received by it in connection with the issue or sale of any Non Equity Securities in circumstances in which section 21(1) of the FSMA does not apply to the Issuer; and
- (3) it has complied and will comply with all applicable provisions of the FSMA with respect to anything done by it in relation to such Non Equity Securities in, from or otherwise involving the United Kingdom.

Tax Treatment of the Non Equity Securities (see Terms and Conditions Schedules 1 and 2 § 7)

If payment under the Non Equity Securities is made to investors which are not resident in the Federal Republic of Germany, no tax should be withheld at source, i.e. by the Issuer, in the Federal Republic of Germany. In the event that withholding tax is introduced in Germany, in case of Non Equity Securities (other than Pfandbriefe) a gross-up amount must be paid by the Issuer to the relevant Noteholder equal to the amount required to put the Noteholder into the position he would be in if no withholding tax had been withheld (see Schedules 1 and 2 § 7). In such event, the Issuer will have an extraordinary redemption right (Sonderkündigungsrecht) (see Schedules 1 and 2 § 4(b)).

If the Non Equity Securities are offered by the Issuer other than in the Federal Republic of Germany, information relating to withholding tax may be disclosed in the Final Terms or, in the event of an offer which is made after completion of the Final Terms, in a supplement to this Base Prospectus.

Federal Republic of Germany

The following summary does not consider all aspects of income taxation in the Federal Republic of Germany ("Germany") that may be relevant to a holder of the Notes, Derivative Notes and Pfandbriefe (for purposes of this summary together the "Non Equity Securities") in the light of its particular circumstances and income tax situation. The summary applies to investors holding the Non Equity Securities as investment assets (except where explicitly stated otherwise) and is not intended to be, nor should it be construed to be, legal or tax advice. This discussion is based on German tax laws and regulations, all as currently in effect (except where explicitly stated otherwise) and all subject to change at any time, possibly with retroactive effect. In particular, the discussion herein is limited to Non Equity Securities that are issued and acquired after 31 December 2008. The tax treatment of Non Equity Securities that were issued and acquired prior to 1 January 2009 may, subject to certain transition rules in connection with the introduction of the flat tax (Abgeltungsteuer) on investment income, differ significantly from the description in this summary.

Prospective holders should consult their own tax advisers as to the particular tax consequences to them of subscribing, purchasing, holding and disposing of the Non Equity Securities, including the application and effect of state, local, foreign and other tax laws and the possible effects of changes in the tax laws of Germany.

German resident Noteholders

Interest income

If the Non Equity Securities are held as private assets (Privatvermögen) by an individual investor whose residence or habitual abode is in Germany, payments of interest under the Non Equity Securities are taxed as investment income (Einkünfte aus Kapitalvermögen) at a 25 per cent. flat tax (Abgeltungsteuer) (plus a 5.5 per cent. solidarity surcharge thereon and, if applicable to the individual investor, church tax).

The flat tax is generally collected by way of withholding (see succeeding paragraph – Withholding tax) and the tax withheld shall generally satisfy the individual investor's tax liability with respect to the Non Equity Securities. If, however, no or not sufficient tax was withheld the investor will have to include the income received with respect to the Non Equity Securities in its income tax return and the flat tax will then be collected by way of tax assessment. The investor may also opt for inclusion of investment income in its income tax return if the aggregated amount of tax withheld on investment income during the year exceeded the investor's aggregated flat tax liability on investment income (e.g., because of an available loss carry forward or a foreign tax credit). If the investor's total income tax liability on all taxable income including the investment income determined by generally applicable graduated income tax rates is lower than 25 per cent. the investor may opt to be taxed at graduated rates with respect to its investment income.

Individual investors are entitled to a tax allowance (Sparer-Pauschbetrag) for investment income of 801 Euro per year (1,602 Euro for married couples filing their tax return jointly). The tax allowance is considered for purposes of the withholding tax (see succeeding paragraph – Withholding tax) if the investor files a withholding tax exemption request (Freistellungsauftrag) with the respective bank or financial institution where the securities deposit account to which the Non Equity Securities are allocated is held. The deduction of related expenses for tax purposes is not possible.

If the Non Equity Securities are held as business assets (Betriebsvermögen) by an individual or corporate investor who is tax resident in Germany (i.e., a corporation with its statutory seat or place of management in Germany), interest income from the Non Equity Securities is subject to personal income tax at graduated rates or corporate income tax (each plus solidarity surcharge thereon) and trade tax. The trade tax liability depends on the applicable trade tax factor of the relevant municipality where the business is located. In case of individual investors the trade tax may, however, be partially or fully creditable against the investor's personal income tax liability depending on the applicable trade tax factor and the investor's particular circumstances. The interest income will have to be included in the investor's personal or corporate income tax return. Any German withholding tax (including surcharges) is generally fully creditable against the investor's personal or corporate income tax liability or refundable, as the case may be.

Withholding tax on interest

If the Non Equity Securities are kept or administered in a domestic securities deposit account by a German credit or financial services institution (or by a German branch of a foreign credit or financial services institution), or by a German securities trading firm (Wertpapierhandelsunternehmen) or a German securities trading bank (Wertpapierhandelsbank) (altogether the "Domestic Paying Agent") which pays or credits the interest, a 25 per cent. withholding tax, plus a 5.5 per cent. solidarity surcharge thereon, resulting in a total withholding tax charge of 26.375 per cent, is levied on the interest payments. The applicable withholding tax rate is in excess of the aforementioned rate if church tax is collected for the individual investor.

Capital gains from disposal or redemption of the Non Equity Securities

Subject to the tax allowance for investment income described under Interest income above capital gains from the sale or redemption of the Non Equity Securities held as private assets are taxed at the 25 per cent. flat tax (plus a 5.5 per cent. solidarity surcharge thereon and, if applicable to the individual investor, church tax). The capital gain is generally determined as the difference between the proceeds from the sale or redemption of the Non Equity Securities and the acquisition costs. Expenses directly related to the sale or redemption are taken into account. Otherwise, the deduction of related expenses for tax purposes is not possible.

Where the Non Equity Securities are denominated in a currency other than Euro, the acquisition costs and the proceeds from the sale or redemption are computed in Euro, each at the time of the acquisition, sale or redemption, respectively.

Capital losses from the Non Equity Securities held as private assets are tax-recognised irrespective of the holding period of the Non Equity Securities. The losses may, however, not be used to offset other income like employment or business income but may only be offset against investment income subject to certain limitations. Losses not utilised in one year may be carried forward into subsequent years but may not be carried back into preceding years.

The flat tax is generally collected by way of withholding (see succeeding paragraph – Withholding tax) and the tax withheld shall generally satisfy the individual investor's tax liability with respect to the Non Equity Securities. With respect to the return filing investors are referred to the description under Interest income above.

If the Non Equity Securities are held as business assets (Betriebsvermögen) by an individual or corporate investor that is tax resident in Germany, capital gains from the Non Equity Securities are subject to personal income tax at graduated rates or corporate income tax (plus solidarity surcharge thereon) and trade tax. The trade tax liability depends on the applicable trade tax factor of the relevant municipality where the business is located. In case of an individual investor the trade tax may, however, be partially or fully creditable against the investor's personal income tax liability depending on the applicable trade tax factor and the investor's particular circumstances. The capital gains will have to be included in the investor's personal or corporate income tax return. It cannot be excluded that certain Notes may be classified as forward transaction (Termingeschäft) for tax purposes. In this case the losses from the Notes could only be offset against gains from other forward transactions (ring-fencing of losses). Any German withholding tax (including surcharges) is generally fully creditable against the investor's personal or corporate income tax liability or refundable, as the case may be.

Withholding tax on capital gains

If the Non Equity Securities are kept or administered by a Domestic Paying Agent since their acquisition, a 25 per cent. withholding tax, plus a 5.5 per cent. solidarity surcharge thereon, is levied on the capital gains, resulting in a total withholding tax charge of 26.375 per cent. If the Non Equity Securities were sold or redeemed after being transferred to another securities deposit account, the 25 per cent. withholding tax (plus solidarity surcharge thereon) would be levied on 30 per cent. of the proceeds from the sale or the redemption, as the case may be, unless the investor or the previous account bank was able and allowed to provide evidence for the investor's actual acquisition costs to the new Domestic Paying Agent. The applicable withholding tax rate is in excess of the aforementioned rate if church tax is collected for the individual investor.

No withholding is generally required on capital gains derived by German resident corporate Noteholders and upon application by individual Noteholders holding the Non Equity Securities as business assets.

Non-German resident Noteholders

Income derived from the Non Equity Securities by holders who are not tax resident in Germany is in general exempt from German income taxation, and no withholding tax shall be withheld, provided however (i) the Non Equity Securities are not held as business assets of a German permanent establishment of the investor or by a permanent German representative of the investor, (ii) the income derived from the Non Equity Securities does not otherwise constitute German source income (such as income derived from debt instruments that are secured by German real estate subject to certain exceptions for notes issued in denominations (Teilschuldverschreibungen)) or (iii) the Non Equity Securities are not presented for payment or credit at the offices of a German credit or financial services institution including a German branch of a foreign credit or financial services institution (over-the-counter transaction).

Income from the Pfandbriefe should not constitute income from German sources as described under (ii) above since the Pfandbriefe are issued in denominations (Teilschuldverschreibungen).

If the income derived from the Non Equity Securities is subject to German taxation according to (i) to (iii) above, the income is subject to withholding tax similar to that described above under the paragraphs Withholding tax. Under certain circumstances, foreign investors may benefit from tax reductions or tax exemptions under applicable double tax treaties (Doppelbesteuerungsabkommen) entered into with Germany.

Inheritance tax / gift tax

The transfer of Non Equity Securities to another person by way of gift or inheritance is subject to German gift or inheritance tax, respectively, if

- (i) the testator, the donor, the heir, the donee or any other acquirer had his residence, habitual abode or, in case of a corporation, association (Personenvereinigung) or estate (Vermögensmasse), had its seat or place of management in Germany at the time of the transfer of property,
- (ii) except as provided under (i), the testator's or donor's Non Equity Securities belong to a business asset attributable to a permanent establishment or a permanent representative in Germany,
- (iii) the Non Equity Securities are secured by German real estate, or equivalent land rights, subject to an exception for notes issued in denominations (Teilschuldverschreibungen)

Special regulations apply to certain German expatriates.

Investors are urged to consult with their tax advisor to determine the particular inheritance or gift tax consequences in light of their particular circumstances.

Other taxes

The purchase, sale or other disposal of Non Equity Securities does not give rise to capital transfer tax, value added tax, stamp duties or similar taxes or charges in Germany. However, under certain circumstances entrepreneurs may choose liability to value added tax with regard to the sales of Non Equity Securities which would otherwise be tax exempt. Net wealth tax (Vermögensteuer) is, at present, not levied in Germany.

European directive on the taxation of savings income

On 3 June 2003 the Economic and Financial Affairs Council of the European Union (ECOFIN Council) adopted directive 2003/48/EC on taxation of savings income in the form of interest payments ("Savings Directive"). Under the Savings Directive and from 1 July 2005, each EU Member State is required to provide the tax authorities of another Member State with details of payments of interest and other similar income paid by a person in one Member State to an individual resident in another Member State. Austria and Luxembourg must instead impose a withholding tax for a transitional period unless during such period they elect to participate in the information exchange.

Investors should note that the European Commission has published proposals to amend the Savings Directive. If implemented, the proposed amendments would, inter alia, extend the scope of the Savings Directive to (i) payments made through certain intermediate structures (whether or not established in a Member State) for the ultimate benefit of an EU resident individual, and (ii) a wider range of income similar to interest. Investors who are in any doubt as to their position should consult their professional advisers.

In Germany, provisions for implementing the EU Savings Tax Directive have been enacted by legislative regulations of the federal government (Zinsinformationsverordnung). These provisions apply as from 1 July 2005.

Luxembourg

The statements herein are based on the laws in force in the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg as of the date of this Base Prospectus and are subject to any changes in law. The following summary does not purport to be a comprehensive description of all the tax considerations which may be relevant to a decision to purchase, own or dispose of the Non Equity Securities. Each prospective holder or beneficial owner of Non Equity Securities should consult its tax adviser as to the Luxembourg tax consequences of the ownership and disposition of the Non Equity Securities.

Luxembourg non-residents

Under Luxembourg tax law currently in effect and subject to the application of the Luxembourg laws dated 21 June 2005 (the "Laws") implementing the European Council Directive 2003/48/EC on the taxation of savings income (the "Savings Directive") and several agreements concluded between Luxembourg and certain dependent or associated territories of the European Union ("EU"), there is no Luxembourg withholding tax on payments of interest (including accrued but unpaid interest) made to Luxembourg non-resident holders of the Non Equity Securities. There is also no Luxembourg withholding tax, subject to the application of the Laws, upon repayment of principal in case of reimbursement, redemption, repurchase or exchange of the Non Equity Securities.

Under the Savings Directive as implemented by the Laws, a Luxembourg based paying agent (within the meaning of the Savings Directive) is required since 1 July 2005 to withhold tax on interest and other similar income paid by it to (or under certain circumstances, to the benefit of) an individual resident in another member state of the EU (a "Member State") or in certain EU dependent or associated territories, unless the beneficiary of the interest payments elects for the procedure of exchange of information or for the tax certificate procedure. The same regime applies to payments of interest and other similar income made to certain "residual entities" within the meaning of Article 4.2 of the Savings Directive established in a Member State or in certain EU dependent or associated territories (i.e., entities which are not legal persons (the Finnish and Swedish companies listed in Article 4.5 of the Savings Directive are not considered as legal persons for this purpose), whose profits are not taxed under the general arrangements for the business taxation, that are not UCITS recognised in accordance with the European Council Directive 85/611/EEC, as replaced by the European Council Directive 2009/65/EC, or similar collective investment funds located in Jersey, Guernsey, the Isle of Man, the Turks and Caicos Islands, the Cayman Islands,Montserrat or the British Virgin Islands and that have not opted to be treated as UCITS recognised in accordance with the European Council Directive 85/611/EEC, as replaced by the European Council Directive 2009/65/EC).

The current withholding tax rate is 35%. The withholding tax system will only apply during a transitional period, the ending of which depends on the conclusion of certain agreements relating to information exchange with certain third countries.

Prospective holders of Non Equity Securities should note that the European Commission has published proposals to amend the Savings Directive. If implemented, the proposed amendments would, inter alia, extend the scope of the Savings Directive to (i) payments made through certain intermediate structures (whether or not established in a Member State) for the ultimate benefit of an EU resident individual, and (ii) a wider range of income similar to interest. Prospective holders of Non Equity Securities who are in any doubt as to their position should consult their professional advisers.

Luxembourg residents

There is no withholding tax on interest payments made to corporate resident holders of Non Equity Securities.

Pursuant to the Luxembourg law of 23 December 2005 as amended by the law of 17 July 2008 (the "Law"), interest payments made by Luxembourg paying agents (defined in the same way as in the Savings Directive) to Luxembourg individual residents or to certain residual entities that secure interest payments on behalf of such individuals (unless such entities have opted either to be treated as UCITS recognised in accordance with the Council Directive 85/611/EEC, as replaced by the European Council Directive 2009/65/EC, or for the exchange of information regime) are subject to a 10 per cent. withholding tax (the "10 per cent. Luxembourg Withholding Tax").

In accordance with the Law, Luxembourg resident individuals, acting in the course of their private wealth, can opt to self-declare and pay a 10 per cent. tax (the "10 per cent. Tax") on interest payments made after 31 December 2007 by paying agents (defined in the same way as in the Savings Directive) located in a Member State other than Luxembourg, a Member State of the European Economic Area other than a Member State or in a State or territory which has concluded an international agreement directly related to the Savings Directive.

The 10 per cent. Luxembourg Withholding Tax or the 10 per cent. Tax represents the final tax liability for the Luxembourg individual resident taxpayers, receiving the payment in the course of their private wealth.

	Standard & Poor's	Fitch*
Public sector Pfandbriefe	AAA	-
Mortgage Pfandbriefe	AAA	-
Long-term liabilities	AA-	A+
Short-term liabilities	A-1+	F1+

If a Series of Non Equity Securities will be separately rated, the relevant rating will be set out in the Final Terms.

Rating information is merely an aid for investors for the purposes of decision-making and cannot replace an individual judgment to be made by the investor and may not be taken as a recommendation to purchase or sell certain Non Equity Securities. Ratings are merely intended as a support when making an investment decision and are only one of the factors relevant to an evaluation, which factor must be seen and weighted in the context of other factors. As ratings often are amended only after the creditworthiness of an issuer has changed, investors have to make their own judgments although a rating may exist (see "Risk Factors – Risk Factors Relating to the Non Equity Securities").

Post-Issuance Information

The Final Terms will specify whether the Issuer will provide post-issuance information and, if so, the manner of information and where such information can be obtained.
