Summary of Risk Factors

The purchase of Notes, derivative Notes and Pfandbriefe (collectively, "Non Equity Securities") issued under the Programme is associated with the risks summarised below. The specific risks of the Non Equity Securities issued from time to time may only be set out in the respective Final Terms, which must therefore always be included in the assessment of risks. In this respect, investors should consider the information on the Issuer and the Notes contained in this Prospectus and in the Final Terms as well as the risks factors for their investment decision.

Prospective purchasers of the Non Equity Securities offered hereby should consider their current financial circumstances and investment objectives and always consult their own financial, legal and tax advisers with regard to the suitability of such Non Equity Securities in the light of their personal circumstances before acquiring such Non Equity Securities.

Should one or several of these risks occur, this could lead to a material and long-term decline in the price of the Non Equity Securities or, in extreme cases, to a total loss of interest and of the amount invested by the investor.

Risks related to WL BANK

The Keep-well statement provided by WGZ BANK for the benefit of the Issuer does not constitute a guarantee. Therefore, it does not give holders of Non Equity Securities any direct payment claim against WGZ BANK in the event that the Issuer defaults with regard to payments to be made under the Non Equity Securities. No assurance is provided that WGZ BANK will remain a majority shareholder of the Issuer.

Unforeseen events such as severe natural catastrophes, terrorist attacks or other comparable states of emergency can lead to an abrupt interruption of the Issuer's operations, which can cause substantial expenses and losses. Such events may also make insurance coverage for certain risks unavailable and thus increase the Issuer's risk.

As with most other mortgage banks, the Issuer relies heavily on communication and information systems to conduct its business. If, for example, the Issuer's information systems failed, even for a short period of time, it would be unable to close open positions as planned and possibly not carry out customer orders. The damage and costs arising therefrom, including expenses for the recovery of required data, may cause considerable costs and customer losses despite existing backup systems and emergency plans, which might in turn lead to a material deterioration of the Issuer's financial situation and operating result.

All divisions of the Issuer, in particular in the mortgage bond business and its cover pool business, are facing strong competition. The Issuer's focus on real estate and public sector financing is in Germany, a fully developed market on which the competitive pressure has rapidly increased. In particular in the banking sector, an ongoing consolidation could even aggravate competition. If the Issuer does not manage to meet the strong competition and the economic situation in Germany and the other major markets of the Issuer with a diligent selection of debtors and attractive and profitable products and services, its profitability could be endangered. As a Pfandbriefbank, the Issuer is exposed to the creditworthiness of its customers and counterparties. At year-end 2007, all of the Issuer's loans and advances to customers were secured by real estate and 90% thereof were within 60% of the value of the obligation. If the value of the collateral securing the loan portfolio declines, the Issuer will be exposed to higher credit risk and increased risk of non-recovery in the event that any of its loans fail to perform. At 31 December 2007, the Issuer's balance of possible bad debt provisions was € 40.6million (equalling 0.47% of the portfolio). However, the Issuer cannot provide assurances that its level of provisions will be adequate or that it will not have to make significant additional provisions for possible bad and doubtful debts in future periods.

Declining financial markets in Germany, Europe, the United States and around the world, changed interest rates due to factors beyond the Issuer's control (e.g. monetary policy) may result in a reduction of the Issuer's net interest income, the largest source of its revenues, an increase in interest expenses and, as a result, a deterioration of the income situation eroding profitability. In some of the Issuer's business units, volatility or protracted market movements may result in a reduced market activity and decreased liquidity. Such development may lead to material losses if the Issuer cannot close out deteriorating positions in a timely way. Increasing interest rates may lead to a decrease in the demand for loans and thus the sales potential of the Issuer's loans. Decreasing official interest rates could, inter alia, affect the Issuer through, among other things, increased prepayments on its loan and increased competition for deposits. Likewise, a decrease in interest rates may affect the Issuer's ability to issue mortgage-backed securities, securitize parts of its balance sheet or otherwise issue debt securities.

If the Issuer's business environment, risk profile or profitability deteriorates, this could lead to a change in the assessment by the rating agencies. As a result, the Issuer's refinancing costs would rise, while its profitability and competitive situation would be adversely affected.

Risks related to WGZ BANK

Unforeseen events such as severe natural catastrophes, terrorist attacks or other comparable states of emergency can lead to an abrupt interruption of WGZ BANK's operations, which can cause substantial expenses and losses. Such events may also make insurance coverage for certain risks unavailable and thus increase the WGZ BANK's risk.

As with most other banks, WGZ BANK relies heavily on communication and information systems to conduct its business. If, for example, the WGZ BANK's information systems failed, even for a short period of time, it would be unable to close open positions as planned and possibly not carry out customer orders. The damage and costs arising therefrom, including expenses for the recovery of required data, may cause considerable costs and customer losses despite existing backup systems and emergency plans, which might in turn lead to a material deterioration of the WGZ BANK's financial situation and operating result.

If WGZ BANK's business environment, risk profile or profitability deteriorates, this could lead to a change in the assessment by the rating agencies. As a result, WGZ BANK's refinancing costs would rise, while its profitability and competitive situation would be adversely affected.

Risks Related to Securities

The risks related to securities will generally include the following types of risks.

The market for debt securities issued by German companies and banks is influenced by economic and market conditions in Germany and, to varying degrees, market conditions, interest rates, currency exchange rates and inflation rates in other European and other industrialised countries.

The rating of the Issuer reflects its creditworthiness as determined by the respective rating agency. If the rating changes, this may have an adverse effect on the price of a Non Equity Security.

There can be no assurance that an active trading market will develop or be maintained for all Non Equity Securities. If an active trading market for the Non Equity Securities does not develop or is not maintained, the market or trading price of the Non Equity Securities and the possibility to sell the Non Equity Securities at any time may be adversely affected.

When Non Equity Securities are purchased or sold, several types of incidental and consequential costs (including transaction fees, commissions and deposit fees) are incurred in addition to the current price of the security. These incidental costs may significantly reduce or even exclude the profit potential of the Non Equity Securities.

Payments of interest on the Non Equity Securities, or profits realised by the Noteholder upon the sale or repayment of the Non Equity Securities, may be subject to taxation in its home jurisdiction or in other jurisdictions in which it is required to pay taxes. Any interest paid may only be invested at the market interest rate applicable from time to time, which may not have developed as expected.

If the purchase of Non Equity Securities is financed through loans and there is a subsequent delay or failure in payments of the Issuer with regard to the Non Equity Securities or the price decreases considerably, the Noteholder does not only have to accept the loss incurred but also pay interest on and redeem the loan. This may considerably increase the risk of loss. An investor should not rely on the prospect of being able to redeem the loan out of transaction profits.

The terms and conditions of Non Equity Securities may contain early redemption provisions for the Issuer or the noteholders. Upon exercise, the Non Equity Securities would be released prior to their maturity.

The premature redemption of a Non Equity Security may lead to negative deviations from the expected return and the repaid nominal amount of the Non Equity Securities is lower than the purchase price paid by the Noteholder and thus the invested capital is lost partially or completely.

Furthermore, there is the possibility that investors may invest the amounts received upon termination only at a rate of return which is lower than that of the terminated Non Equity Securities.

Due to varying interest income, investors are not able to determine a definite yield of Floating Rate Notes at the time they purchase them, so that their return on investment cannot be compared with that of investments having longer fixed interest periods.

The interest income of Reverse Floating Rate Notes is calculated in reverse proportion to the reference rate: if the reference rate increases, interest income decreases whereas it increases if the reference rate decreases. Investors are exposed to a high risk if the long-term market interest rates are about to increase, even if short-term interest rates decrease and that such increase in long-term market interest rates may in turn impact on the levels of short-term interest rates. In this case, increasing interest income may not adequately offset the decrease in the reverse floater's price because it cannot be excluded that such decrease might be disproportionate.

Changes in market interest rates have a substantially stronger impact on the prices of zero coupon bonds than on the prices of ordinary bonds because the discounted issue prices are substantially below par, which is due to the discounting.

As purchasers of foreign currency bonds, investors are additionally exposed to the risk of changing foreign exchange rates.

In the event of any insolvency or liquidation of the Issuer, holders of Subordinated Notes will receive payments on any outstanding Subordinated Notes only after senior Noteholders and other senior creditors have been repaid in full, if and to the extent that there is still cash available for those payments. Thus, holders of Subordinated Notes generally face a higher performance risk than holders of senior Notes.

An investment in derivative Notes will always comprise the risk that the interest and the invested capital may be lost completely or partly.

An investment in derivative Notes entails substantial risks. Therefore, an investment requires exact knowledge of the respective transaction. Investors should have reasonable knowledge of and experience in financial and business matters and be experienced with investments in the reference assets (e.g. shares, indices and baskets) and know the associated risks.

The currency, commodity, stock, bond or other index or value or basket of reference assets underlying a derivative Note may be subject to considerable changes, due to their composition or fluctuations in value of their components. A derivative Note referring to more than one reference asset or to formulas may have a cumulative or even potentiated risk compared to a note which is only related to one reference asset. Investors may not be able to secure themselves against these different risks with regard to derivative Notes. A material market disruption could lead to a substitution of the reference asset or a premature termination of the Note, so that the risks may be realised prematurely or any original chances are lost and new risks may be added.

Furthermore, the value of the derivative Notes, as it is dependent on one or several reference assets, will accordingly also be subject to cumulative risks in the Secondary Market. The performance of the respective reference asset is subject to a series of associated factors, including economic, financial and political events beyond the control of the Issuer.

If the formula used to determine the amount of principal, premium and/or interest payable with respect to derivative Notes contains a multiplier or leverage factor or maximum/minimum interest or repayment limits, the effect of any change in the applicable reference asset will be increased with regard to the amount payable. The historical performance of the reference asset may not be regarded as significant for the future performance during the term of derivative Notes.

The Issuer may enter into transactions for its own account or for account of customers, which also relate to "reference assets" under the derivative Notes. On the issue date of the derivative Notes or thereafter, the Issuer and its affiliated companies may have information with regard to the reference assets which may be material to the holders of derivative Notes and which may not be accessible to the public or known to Noteholders.

Pfandbriefe

The Terms and Conditions of the Notes which apply to Pfandbriefe will not contain any events of default and will not be issued with the benefit of a noteholder put option. Furthermore, in the event of the imposition of a withholding or deduction by way of tax on interest payments under the Pfandbriefe, no additional amounts will be paid to investors so that investors will receive interest payments net of such withholding or deduction. In addition, Pfandbriefe are subject to the same risks set forth above.

Zusammenfassung der Risikofaktoren

Der Erwerb von unter dem Angebotsprogramm begebenen Inhaberschuldverschreibungen, derivativen Schuldverschreibungen und Pfandbriefen (zusammen "Nicht-Dividendenwerte") ist mit den im Folgenden zusammengefassten Risiken verbunden. Spezifische zusätzliche Risiken der im Einzelfall begebenen Nicht-Dividendenwerte werden in den jeweiligen Endgültigen Bedingungen dargestellt. Diese müssen daher immer mit in die Risikobetrachtung einbezogen werden. In diesem Zusammenhang sollten Anleger auch die in diesem Prospekt und in den die Emission betreffenden Endgültigen Bedingungen enthaltenen Informationen über die Emittentin, die Wertpapiere sowie über Risikofaktoren für die Anlageentscheidung heranziehen.

Anleger sollten bei der Entscheidung über einen Erwerb von Nicht-Dividendenwerten zunächst ihre jeweilige finanzielle Situation und ihre Anlageziele berücksichtigen und die Eignung solcher Nicht-Dividendenwerte angesichts ihrer persönlichen Umstände immer vor Erwerb mit ihren eigenen Finanz-, Rechts- und Steuerberatern erörtern.

Sollte eines oder sollten mehrere dieser Risiken eintreten, könnte es zu wesentlichen und nachhaltigen Kursrückgängen der Nicht-Dividendenwerte oder im Extremfall zu einem Totalverlust der Zinsen und des vom Anleger eingesetzten Kapitals kommen.

Risiken der WL BANK

Die von der WGZ BANK zugunsten der Emittentin abgegebene Patronatserklärung stellt keine Garantie dar. Daher resultieren aus ihr keinerlei unmittelbare Zahlungsansprüche seitens der Inhaber der Nicht-Dividendenwerte gegen die WGZ BANK im Fall einer Unfähigkeit der Emittentin, gemäß den Nicht-Dividendenwerten fällige Zahlungen zu leisten. Es besteht keine Garantie, dass die WGZ BANK auch in Zukunft Mehrheitsaktionärin der Emittentin bleiben wird.

Unvorhergesehene Ereignisse wie schwere Naturkatastrophen, Terroranschläge oder sonstige Ereignisse vergleichbaren Ausmaßes können eine Unterbrechung des Geschäftsbetriebes der Emittentin mit erheblichen Kosten und Verluste zur Folge haben. Solche Ereignisse können zur Folge haben, dass für bestimmte Risiken kein Versicherungsschutz mehr gegeben wird und daher das Risiko der Emittentin erhöhen.

Die Geschäftstätigkeit der Emittentin hängt, wie bei Banken üblich, in hohem Maße von funktionierenden Kommunikations- und Datenverarbeitungssystemen ab. Schon bei einem kurzen Ausfall der Datenverarbeitungssysteme könnte die Emittentin offene Positionen nicht wie geplant schließen und Kundenaufträge möglicherweise nicht ausführen. Die dadurch entstehenden Schäden und Kosten, unter anderem auch für die Wiederbeschaffung der notwendigen Daten, könnte trotz vorhandener Backup-Systeme und Notfallpläne beträchtlichen finanziellen Aufwand und Kundenverluste verursachen, die wiederum zu einer wesentlichen Verschlechterung der Finanzlage und des Betriebsergebnisses der Emittentin führen könnten.

In allen Geschäftsbereichen der Emittentin, insbesondere im Pfandbriefgeschäft und dem damit verbundenen Deckungsgeschäft herrscht starker Wettbewerb. Der Schwerpunkt des Immobilien- und Kommunalkreditgeschäfts der Emittentin liegt in Deutschland, einem ausgereiften Markt, auf dem der Wettbewerbsdruck rapide zugenommen hat. Insbesondere im Bankensektor könnte eine anhaltende Konsolidierung den Wettbewerb noch verschärfen. Wenn es der Emittentin nicht gelingen sollte, dem starken Wettbewerb und der Wirtschaftslage in Deutschland und den anderen großen Märkten der Emittentin mit sorgfältiger Schuldnerauswahl und attraktiven und profitablen Produkten und Dienstleistungen zu begegnen, könnte ihre Profitabilität gefährdet sein. Als Pfandbriefbank ist die Emittentin Bonitätsrisiken ausgesetzt. Zum 31. Dezember 2007 sind 90% des Immobilienkreditportfolios im Realkreditbereich besichert (entspricht 60% des Beleihungswertes). Sollte die derzeitige Besicherungsquote sinken, wäre die Emittentin höheren Kredit- und Ausfallrisiken ausgesetzt. Die Emittentin hat zum 31. Dezember 2007 Wertberichtigungen für voraussichtlich uneinbringliche Forderungen in Höhe von Mio. EUR 40,6 (entspricht 0,47% des Portfolios) gebildet. Sie kann jedoch nicht garantieren, dass ihre Rückstellungen ausreichend sein werden und dass sie in Zukunft nicht zusätzliche Rückstellungen für etwaige zweifelhafte oder uneinbringliche Forderungen bilden muss.

Rückläufige Finanzmärkte in Deutschland, Europa, den USA und weltweit, veränderte Zinssätze auf Grund unbeeinflussbarer Faktoren (z.B. Geldpolitik) können zu einem Rückgang des Zinsüberschusses als wichtigster Ertragsquelle der Emittentin, einer Erhöhung der Zinsausgaben und daraus resultierend zu einer Verschlechterung der Ertragslage mit einer Aushöhlung der Profitabilität führen. In einigen Geschäftsbereichen der Emittentin können Volatilität oder Seitwärtsbewegungen der Märkte zur Folge haben, dass die Markttätigkeit zurückgeht und die Liquidität sinkt. Eine solche Entwicklung kann zu erheblichen Verlusten führen, wenn es der Emittentin nicht rechtzeitig gelingt, die sich verschlechternden Positionen zu liquidieren. Steigende Zinssätze könnten einen Rückgang der Nachfrage nach Krediten und damit der Absatzmöglichkeiten von Krediten der Emittentin zur Folge haben. Sinkende Leitzinsen könnten sich u.a. durch vermehrte vorzeitige Rückzahlungen von Krediten und stärkeren Wettbewerb um Kundeneinlagen auf die Emittentin auswirken. Sinkende Zinssätze können sich auch auf die Begebung von Pfandbriefen oder anderweitige Ausgaben von Schuldtiteln durch die Emittentin nachteilig auswirken.

Sollte sich das Geschäftsumfeld der Emittentin, das Risikoprofil oder die Rentabilität verschlechtern, könnte dies zu einer geänderten Einschätzung der Ratingagenturen führen. Hierdurch könnten sich die Refinanzierungskosten erhöhen, die Rentabilität und die Wettbewerbssituation verschlechtern.

Risiken der WGZ BANK

Unvorhergesehene Ereignisse wie schwere Naturkatastrophen, Terroranschläge oder sonstige Ereignisse vergleichbaren Ausmaßes können eine Unterbrechung des Geschäftsbetriebes der WGZ BANK mit erheblichen Kosten und Verluste zur Folge haben. Auch eine Auswirkung auf die Versicherbarkeit eines solchen Ereignisses mit möglichen erhöhten zukünftigen Risiken kann die Folge sein.

Wertpapierrisiken

Die Wertpapierrisiken umfassen im Allgemeinen die folgenden Risikoarten:

Der Markt für von deutschen Unternehmen und Banken begebene Anleihen und deren Kurse wird von volkswirtschaftlichen Faktoren, dem Marktumfeld in Deutschland sowie in unterschiedlichem Umfang von dem Marktumfeld, Zinssätzen, Devisenkursen und Inflationsraten in anderen europäischen und sonstigen Industrieländern beeinflusst.

Das Rating der Emittentin spiegelt deren Bonität nach Einschätzung der jeweiligen Ratingagentur wieder. Bei Ratingveränderungen kann dies negativen Einfluss auf den Kurs eines Nicht-Dividendenwertes haben.

Ein aktiver Markt für den Handel mit den Nicht-Dividendenwerten kann nicht bei allen Nicht-Dividendenwerten sichergestellt werden mit möglicherweise nachteiligen Auswirkungen auf den Kurs bzw. Handelspreis und die jederzeitige Verkaufsmöglichkeit der Nicht-Dividendenwerte.

Beim Kauf und Verkauf von Nicht-Dividendenwerten fallen neben dem aktuellen Preis des Wertpapiers verschiedene Nebenkosten und Folgekosten (insbesondere Transaktionskosten, Provisionen, Depotentgelte) an, die das Gewinnpotential der Nicht-Dividendenwerte erheblich verringern oder sogar ausschließen können.

Zinszahlungen auf die Nicht-Dividendenwerte oder vom Anleihegläubiger bei Verkauf oder Rückzahlung der Nicht-Dividendenwerte steuerlich realisierte Gewinne sind in seiner Heimatrechtsordnung oder in anderen Rechtsordnungen, in denen er Steuern zahlen muss, möglicherweise steuerpflichtig. Die Anlage von ausgezahlten Zinsen kann nur zu jeweils aktuellen Marktzinsen erfolgen, die sich anders als erwartet entwickelt haben können.

Wird der Erwerb der Nicht-Dividendenwerte mit Kredit finanziert und kommt es anschließend zu einem Zahlungsverzug oder -ausfall der Emittentin hinsichtlich der Nicht-Dividendenwerte oder sinkt der Kurs erheblich, muss der Anleihegläubiger nicht nur den eingetretenen Verlust hinnehmen, sondern auch den Kredit verzinsen und zurückzahlen. Dadurch kann sich das Verlustrisiko erheblich erhöhen. Ein Anleger sollte nicht darauf vertrauen, den Kredit aus Gewinnen eines Geschäfts verzinsen und zurückzahlen zu können.

Die Emissionsbedingungen der Nicht-Dividendenwerte können für die Emittentin oder die Inhaber der Nicht-Dividendenwerte ein Recht zur vorzeitigen Kündigung vorsehen, dessen Ausübung zu einer vorzeitigen Rückzahlung führt.

Die vorzeitige Rückzahlung eines Nicht-Dividendenwertes kann dazu führen, dass negative Abweichungen gegenüber der erwarteten Rendite eintreten und der zurückgezahlte Nennbetrag der Nicht-Dividendenwerte niedriger als der für die Nicht-Dividendenwerte vom Anleihegläubiger gezahlte Kaufpreis ist und dadurch das eingesetzte Kapital zum Teil oder vollständig verloren ist.

Darüber hinaus besteht die Möglichkeit, dass Anleger die Beträge, die sie bei einer Kündigung erhalten, nur noch mit einer niedrigeren Rendite als die gekündigten Nicht-Dividendenwerte anlegen können.

Beim Erwerb von Floating Rate Notes können Anleger auf Grund der schwankenden Zinserträge die endgültige Rendite von Floating Rate Notes zum Kaufzeitpunkt nicht feststellen, so dass auch ein Rentabilitätsvergleich gegenüber Anlagen mit längerer Zinsbindungsfrist nicht möglich ist.

Bei Reverse Floating Rate Notes berechnet sich der Zinsertrag in entgegengesetzter Richtung zum Referenzzinssatz: Bei steigendem Referenzzinssatz sinkt der Zinsertrag, während er bei fallendem Referenzzinssatz steigt. Das Risiko für den Anleger ist hoch, wenn sich ein Anstieg der langfristigen Marktzinsen anbahnt, auch wenn die kurzfristigen Zinsen fallen und ein solcher Anstieg von langfristigen Marktzinsen kann wiederum Auswirkungen auf kurzfristige Zinsen haben. Es ist möglich, dass der steigende Zinsertrag in diesem Fall kein adäquater Ausgleich für die eintretenden Kursverluste der Reverse Floating Rate Notes ist, da nicht ausgeschlossen werden kann, dass diese überproportional ausfallen können.

Bei Nullkupon-Anleihen haben Veränderungen des Marktzinsniveaus wegen der stark unter par liegenden Emissionskurse, die durch die Abzinsung zustande kommen, wesentlich stärkere Auswirkungen auf die Kurse als bei üblichen Anleihen.

Als Käufer von Fremdwährungsanleihen sind Anleger zusätzlich dem Risiko schwankender Devisenkurse ausgesetzt.

Inhaber von Nachrangschuldverschreibungen erhalten im Falle der Insolvenz oder der Liquidation der Emittentin Zahlungen auf ausstehende Nachrangschuldverschreibungen erst, nachdem alle anderen nicht nachrangigen Ansprüche von Gläubigern vollständig befriedigt wurden, wenn und soweit dann noch Vermögenswerte für Zahlungen auf die nachrangigen Schuldverschreibungen vorhanden sind. Sie tragen damit ein größeres Ausfallrisiko als die Inhaber nicht nachrangiger Schuldverschreibungen.

Eine Anlage in derivativen Schuldverschreibungen umfasst immer das Risiko, dass die Zinsen und das eingesetzte Kapital ganz oder zum Teil verloren werden können.

Eine Anlage in derivativen Schuldverschreibungen ist mit erheblichen Risiken verbunden. Deshalb erfordert eine Anlage die genaue Kenntnis der Funktionsweise der jeweiligen Transaktion. Anleger sollten über das erforderliche Wissen und die erforderliche Erfahrung in finanziellen und geschäftlichen Angelegenheiten verfügen und Erfahrung mit der Anlage in die zu Grunde liegenden Basiswerte (z.B. Aktien, Indizes und Körbe) haben und die damit verbundenen Risiken kennen.

Bei dem einer derivativen Schuldverschreibung zu Grunde liegenden Währungs-, Rohstoff-, Aktien-, Renten- oder sonstigen Index oder Wertes oder Korb von Basiswerten können wesentliche Änderungen eintreten, sei es auf Grund deren Zusammensetzung oder auf Grund von Wertschwankungen seiner Bestandteile. Eine derivative Schuldverschreibung, die auf mehr als einen Basiswert oder auf Formeln bezogen ist, hat möglicherweise ein kumulierte oder sogar potenziertes Risiko gegenüber einer Schuldverschreibung, die nur auf einen Basiswert bezogen ist. Anleger sind möglicherweise nicht in der Lage, sich gegen diese verschiedenen Risiken in Bezug auf derivative Schuldverschreibungen abzusichern. Eine wesentliche Marktstörung könnte dazu führen, dass der Basiswert ersetzt oder die Schuldverschreibung vorzeitig beendet werden muss, so dass sich Risiken vorzeitig realisieren können oder ursprüngliche Chancen verloren gehen und möglicherweise neue Risiken hinzukommen.

Darüber hinaus ist der Wert der derivativen Schuldverschreibungen zusätzlich am Sekundärmarkt auf Grund der Abhängigkeit von einem oder mehreren Basiswerten auch entsprechend kumulierten Risiken ausgesetzt. Die Wertentwicklung des jeweiligen Basiswertes hängt von einer Reihe zusammenhängender Faktoren ab, darunter volkswirtschaftliche, finanzwirtschaftliche und politische Ereignisse, über die die Emittentin keine Kontrolle hat.

Falls die Formel zur Ermittlung von auf derivative Schuldverschreibungen fällige Kapitalbeträge, Aufschläge und/oder Zinsen darüber hinaus einen Multiplikator oder Hebelfaktor, Zins- oder Rückzahlungsober- oder -untergrenzen enthält, wird die Wirkung von Veränderungen bei dem jeweiligen Basiswert für den zu zahlenden Betrag verstärkt. Eine historische Wertentwicklung des Basiswertes kann nicht als aussagekräftig für die künftige Wertentwicklung während der Laufzeit von derivativen Schuldverschreibungen angesehen werden.

Die Emittentin kann für eigene Rechnung oder für Kundenrechnung Geschäfte abschließen, die auch "Basiswerte" im Rahmen der derivativen Schuldverschreibungen betreffen. Die Emittentin und ihre verbundenen Unternehmen verfügen möglicherweise am Ausgabetag der derivativen Schuldverschreibungen oder anschließend über Informationen in Bezug auf die Basiswerte, die für Inhaber von derivativen Schuldverschreibungen möglicherweise wesentlich sind und die möglicherweise nicht öffentlich zugänglich oder den Anleihegläubigern nicht bekannt sind.

Pfandbriefe

Die allgemeinen Bedingungen der Schuldverschreibungen, die auf Pfandbriefe anwendbar sind, werden weder ein Kündigungsrecht (Event of Default) noch ein Anleihegläubigerkündigungsrecht

(Noteholder Put Option) enthalten. Weiterhin werden in Fällen der Auferlegung einer Quellensteuer oder der Einbehaltung in Form von gemäß den Schuldverschreibungen auf Zinszahlungen erhobenen Steuern keine zusätzlichen Beträge an die Investoren gezahlt werden, so dass Investoren Zinszahlungen abzüglich solcher Quellensteuern oder Einbehaltungen erhalten werden. Die Pfandbriefe unterliegen im Übrigen grundsätzlich denselben Risiken, die bereits vorstehend beschrieben wurden.

Zusammenfassung des Angebotsprogramms

Gründe für das Angebot

Das Angebotsprogramm dient der Emittentin zur Refinanzierung ihres Aktivgeschäfts durch die Begebung von deutschem Recht unterliegenden Inhaberschuldverschreibungen ("Standardschuldverschreibungen" genannt) und deutschem Recht unterliegenden derivativen Inhaberschuldverschreibungen, einschließlich solcher ohne Nennbetrag (zusammenfassend "derivative Schuldverschreibungen" genannt), jeweils mit oder ohne Nachrang (zusammenfassend "Schuldverschreibungen" genannt) sowie von deutschem Recht unterliegenden Hypothekenpfandbriefen sowie Öffentlichen Pfandbriefen (zusammenfassend "Pfandbriefe" genannt). Die Schuldverschreibungen und die Pfandbriefe werden nachfolgend zusammenfassend die "Nicht-Dividendenwerte" genannt.

Angebotsstatistiken und voraussichtlicher Zeitplan

Die Emittentin wird während der Laufzeit dieses Basisprospektes im Rahmen des Angebotsprogrammes fortlaufend Nicht-Dividendenwerte begeben. Die Konditionen und der Zeitplan dieser Emissionen ergeben sich aus dem jeweiligen, die Endgültigen Bedingungen im Sinne des Art. 26 Ziff. 5 Verordnung (EG) Nr. 809/2004 der Kommission vom 29. April 2004 enthaltenden, Dokument (jeweils "Endgültige Bedingungen").

Erlösverwendung

Risk Factors

The purchase of the Non Equity Securities issued under the Programme is associated with certain risks. The information set forth below represents the material risk factors related to an investment in the Non Equity Securities. Investors should acknowledge that series specific risks cannot yet be fully described below, and will therefore be set out in the relevant Final Terms. Please refer to the product information and the specific risk warnings, if any, set out in the relevant Final Terms for further information with respect to specific risks arising from the relevant underlying and the details of the relevant payout-profile of the Non Equity Securities. Investors should take into account their current financial situation and their investment objectives before deciding whether to invest in the Non Equity Securities. In this context, they should take into consideration the risks of an investment in the Non Equity Securities set out below in particular, in addition to the other information contained in this Base Prospectus.

Risk Factors relating to the Issuer

If one or more of the risks described below occur, this could have an adverse effect on the Issuer's financial condition and results of operations and this may result in material and sustained decreases in the price of the Non Equity Securities or, in the worst case, in a total loss of the capital invested by the Investor.

The Issuer's levels of profitability are tied to its access to low cost funds. The Issuer's costs of funds may prove to be more expensive in the future than was the case historically and more expensive than currently contemplated in the Issuer's plans.

Due to the nature of the Issuer's business, it does not have access to a large base of customer deposits as an inexpensive source of funds. Its principal sources of funds instead include mortgage Pfandbriefe and public sector Pfandbriefe.

The Issuer's risk management policies, procedures and methods may – despite compliance with statutory provisions – be insufficient and leave the Issuer exposed to unidentified or unanticipated risks, which could lead to material losses

The Issuer has devoted significant resources to developing its risk management policies, procedures and assessment methods and intends to continue to do so in the future. The Issuer's techniques and strategies may not be fully effective in mitigating its risk exposure in all economic market environments or against all types of risk, including risks that the Issuer fails to identify or anticipate. Some of the Issuer's qualitative tools and metrics for managing risk are based upon its use of observed historical market behaviour. The Issuer applies statistical and other tools to these observations to arrive at quantifications of its risk exposures. These tools and metrics may fail to predict future risk exposures. These risk exposures could, for example, arise from factors the Issuer did not anticipate or correctly evaluate in its statistical models. In addition, the Issuer's quantified modelling does not take all risks into account. Its more qualitative approach to managing those risks could prove insufficient, exposing it to material unanticipated losses. If the Issuer's risk management turns out to be inadequate, losses greater than anticipated could harm the Issuer's revenues and profits as well as its reputation.

Unforeseen events can interrupt the Issuer's operations and cause substantial losses and additional costs.

Unforeseen events like severe natural catastrophes, terrorist attacks or other states of emergency can lead to an abrupt interruption of the Issuer's operations, which can cause substantial losses. Such losses can relate to property, financial assets, trading positions and to key employees. Such unforeseen events can also lead to additional costs (such as cost triggered by the relocation of employees affected) and increase the Issuer's costs (such as insurance premiums). Such events may also make insurance coverage for certain risks unavailable and thus increase the Issuer's risk.

Risk factors regarding the real estate business.

As a credit institution, the Issuer is exposed to the creditworthiness of its customers and counterparties. At year-end 2007, all of the Issuer's loans and advances to customers were secured by real estate and 90% thereof were within 60% of the value of the obligation. If the value of the collateral securing the loan portfolio declines, the Issuer will be exposed to higher credit risk and increased risk of non-recovery in the event that any of its loans fail to perform. At 31 December 2007, the Issuer's balance of possible bad debt provisions was € 40.6 million, and its level was 0.47% of the real estate portfolio. The Issuer cannot assure that its level of risk provisioning will be adequate or that it will not have to make significant additional provisions for possible bad and doubtful debts in future periods.

Risk factors relating to public sector credits and capital markets business.

The capital markets portfolio contains public debtors as well as credit institutions that are privately organized and organized under public law, within Germany and abroad. The main emphasis of the capital markets portfolio are public sector loans and the securities business with public debtors or credit institutions organized under public law that meet the requirements for the cover pool.

In addition, the capital markets portfolio contains the interbank business with its derivative and financial operations as well as the purchase of listed bonds for the investment of capital.

The classical public sector loan business with local authorities is classified by a large diversification. Generally, these have small amounts with the possibility of an early redemption. In order to enlarge its offerings, the bank increased its cash credits with an average maturity of 60 days. To a lesser extent, the portfolio contains structured public sector loans and cash credits.

The less important credit instruments within the public sector credit business are loans against borrowers notes (Schuldscheindarlehen) and bonds of public debtors. These bonds have generally a high fungibility with a maturity. The average volume of public debtors is EUR 20,000,000 and of the institutions organized under public law EUR 10,000,000, whereas the volumes of securities are generally larger than those of loans against borrower notes and Sparkassenbriefe. In addition to the public sector business of the Issuer, the Issuer's credit portfolio also contains to a lesser extent securities of banks.

Therefore, the credit default risk of these portfolios could change due to a negative development in the economy.

An interruption in or breach of the Issuer's information systems may result in losses.

As with most other banks, the Issuer relies heavily on communications and information systems to conduct its business. Any failure or interruption or breach in security of these systems could result in failures or interruptions in the Issuer's customer relationship management, general ledger, deposit, servicing and/or loan organisation systems. If, for example, the Issuer's information systems failed, even for a short period of time, it would be unable to timely serve some customers' needs and could thus lose their business. Likewise, a temporary shut-down of the Issuer's information systems, even though it has back-up recovery systems and contingency plans, could result in considerable costs that are required for information retrieval and verification. The Issuer's cannot provide assurances that such failures or interruptions will not occur or, if they do occur, that they will be adequately addressed. The occurrence of any failures or interruptions could have a material adverse effect on the Issuer's financial condition and results of operations.

Intense competition, especially in the Issuer's home market of Germany, where the Issuer conducts the majority of its business, could materially adversely affect the Issuer's revenues and profitability.

Competition is intense in all of the Issuer's primary business areas in Germany and other European countries and the United States. The Issuer derived most of its operating profit after risk provisioning and evaluation in 2006 from Germany, a mature market where competitive pressures have been increasing quickly. If the Issuer is unable to respond to the competitive environment in Germany or in the Issuer's other major markets with attractive and profitable products and service offerings, it may lose market share in important areas of its business or incur losses on some or all of its activities.

Market declines and high volatility can materially adversely affect the Issuer's profits.

Conditions in the financial markets in Germany, in Europe, in the United States and around the world materially affect the Issuer's businesses. An overall market downturn can adversely affect the Issuer's business and financial performance. Market downturns can occur not only as a result of purely economic factors, but also as a result of war, acts of terrorism, natural disasters or other similar events. Market declines can cause the Issuer's revenues to decline, and, if the Issuer is unable to reduce its expenses at the same pace, can cause the Issuer's profitability to erode. Volatility can sometimes also adversely affect the Issuer's business and results of operations.

In some of the Issuer's businesses, protracted market movements, particularly asset price declines, can reduce the level of activity in the market or reduce market liquidity. These developments can lead to material losses if the Issuer cannot close out deteriorating positions in a timely way. This may be especially the case the Issuer holds assets which are not traded on liquid markets. Assets that are not traded on stock exchanges or other public trading markets may have values that the Issuer calculates using models other than publicly-quoted prices. Monitoring the deterioration of prices of assets like these is difficult and could lead to losses the Issuer did not anticipate.

The Issuer operates in a difficult economic environment.

Approximately 100% of the Issuer's real estate loan business is originated in Germany. Operating conditions for banks in Germany remain difficult, as economic growth has been and is slow, unemployment is high and the number of insolvencies of companies over the past several years has been high. Necessary structural reforms by changing German laws and regulations are only taking place slowly. As a result, the German economy is increasingly dependent on exports. The great importance of export markets for Germany means that even more than in the past, a decline in growth in Europe, the United States or Asia may have greater adverse effects in Germany than in other western European countries. Any further deterioration of the economy in Germany could have a material and adverse effect on the Issuer's financial condition and results of operation.

It is uncertain whether and when the consolidation of the German banking industry will materialise and what the effects for the Issuer will be.

Many market analysts expect that further consolidation of the German banking industry will take place in the future. The concept of consolidation has been explicitly endorsed by German government officials. The consolidation may involve private sector banks, public sector banks and cooperative banks and may also involve non-German banks. This consolidation could take various forms, ranging from full-fledged bank mergers and acquisitions to partnerships and joint ventures in discrete service areas. If this further bank consolidation does take place, it may result in the German banking market becoming even more competitive than it is today.

Volatility in interest rates may negatively affect the Issuer's net interest income and have other adverse consequences.

As with any bank, changes in market interest rates could affect the interest rates the Issuer charges on its interest-earning assets differently than the interest rates it pays on its interest-bearing liabilities. This difference could result in an increase in interest expense relative to interest income, which would reduce the Issuer's net interest income, the largest source of its revenues. An increase in interest rates may reduce the demand for loans and the Issuer's ability to originate loans. A decrease in the general level of interest rates may affect the Issuer through, among other things, increased prepayments on its loan and mortgage portfolio and increased competition for deposits. Likewise, a decrease in interest rates may affect the Issuer's ability to issue mortgage-backed securities, securitize parts of its balance sheet or otherwise issue debt securities. Interest rates are highly sensitive to many factors beyond the Issuer's control, including monetary policies and domestic and international economic and political conditions.

General Banking Risks

The Issuer is subject to the general banking risks which can have a negative impact on its economic situation. These general banking risks can have an adverse effect on the financial condition and results of operations, and the value of the issued product could decrease.

Risks may arise in particular in the form of counterparty default risks, market price risks, liquidity risks, operational and strategic risks.

Counterparty default risk describes the risk of a loss or lost profit due to default or credit deterioration on the part of a business partner; it includes default risk, counterparty credit risk, country risk and shareholder risk.

Market price risks are defined as potential losses that can result from trading and investment book positions due to adverse changes in market prices or price-influencing parameters in the financial markets. This includes in particular the interest rate risk.

Liquidity risk is the risk that present or future payment obligations cannot be met in full at the due date (liquidity risk in the narrower sense), or that refinancing capital can only be raised at higher rates than expected (refinancing risk), or that business transactions can only be liquidated or settled at a loss or not at all due to insufficient market depth or market disruptions (market liquidity risk).

Operational risks are potential future events with adverse effects on the Issuer, resulting from inadequate or failed internal processes, people and systems failure or from external events.

The Issuer defines strategic risks as risks resulting from changes in basic conditions, such as customer requirements, competition, or technological changes, which could adversely affect the Issuer's essential success potentials or the achievement of long-term corporate goals.

Risks from a Change in Rating

The Issuer obtained a voluntary rating from the internationally active rating agency Standard & Poor's. The rating agency has made an assessment of the business environment the Issuer operates in and of the risks it is engaged in. This assessment by the rating agency serves to provide an investor an overview of the Issuer solvency. The published rating is subject to ongoing review and may be changed at any time.

The current rating is as follows:

Bank rating	A+/Stable/A-1
Public-sector Pfandbriefe	AAA

Pfandbriefe	AAA
Certificates of deposits	A+/A-1
Unsecured liabilities	A+
Short-term liabilities	A-1
Secured short-term liabilities	A-1+
AAA

An obligation rated "AAA" is the highest possible rating. The capacity of the obligor to meet its financial commitments on the obligation is to be viewed as extremely strong.

A

An obligation rated "A" is somewhat more susceptible to the adverse effects of changes in circumstances and economic conditions than obligations in higher-rated categories. However, the capacity of the obligor to meet its financial commitments on the obligation is, in this case, still to be viewed as strong.

"A-1" is the highest possible rating for a short-term obligation. The capacity of the obligor to meet its financial commitments on the obligation is to be viewed as strong. Within this category several short-term obligations are designated with a plus sign (+). This indicates that the capacity of the obligor to meet its financial commitments is to be viewed as extremely strong. Should the Issuer's rating deteriorate, the Issuer's refinancing costs could increase and deteriorate both profitability and the competitive situation.

This could have an adverse effect on the financial condition and results of operations, and the value of the issued product could decrease.

Risk Factors relating to WGZ BANK

General Banking Risks

WGZ BANK is subject to the general banking risks which can have a negative impact on its economic situation. These general banking risks can have an adverse effect on the financial condition and results of operations.

Risks may arise in particular in the form of counterparty default risks, market price risks, liquidity risks, operational and strategic risks.

Counterparty default risk is defined as the risk of a loss or lost profit due to the default or credit deterioration of a business partner, and it includes the following risks. Default risk is defined as the risk of loss if a borrower is unable to meet its obligations under a loan agreement, for example because of insolvency. Counterparty risk is defined as the risk of loss if a counterparty fails to meet its payment or delivery obligations, for example within the framework of trading transactions. Country risk includes all risks arising from international transactions that are not caused by the contractual partner itself, but by the country in which it is based. The risks arise from the immediate economic, social and/or political environment of a certain country and must be defined specifically for the respective country. Shareholder risk is defined as the risk of a loss that may arise from the provision of equity capital to third parties.

Market price risks are defined as potential losses that can result from trading and investment book positions due to adverse changes in market prices or price-influencing parameters in the financial markets. This includes, in particular, the interest rate risk, share price risk and currency risk.

Liquidity risk is the risk that present or future payment obligations cannot be met in full at the due date (liquidity risk in the narrower sense), or that refinancing capital can only be raised at higher rates than expected (refinancing risk), or that business transactions can only be liquidated or settled at a loss or not at all due to insufficient market depth or market disruptions (market liquidity risk).

Operational risks are potential future events with adverse effects on WGZ BANK, resulting from inadequate or failed internal processes, people and systems failure or from external events.

WGZ BANK defines strategic risks as risks resulting from changes in basic conditions, such as customer requirements, competition, or technological changes, which could adversely affect WGZ BANK's essential success potentials or the achievement of long-term corporate goals.

Unidentified or unanticipated risks

The methods and procedures for the risk determination, risk monitoring and risk management of WGZ BANK could be insufficient, regardless its satisfaction of the legal requirements and WGZ BANK could be faced with unknown or unforeseeable risks which could lead to a material loss.

WGZ BANK's techniques and strategies may not be fully effective in mitigating its risk exposure and all economic market environments or against all types of risk, including risks that WGZ BANK fails to identify or anticipate. The instruments may not be suitable to estimate future risks, as for example could arise from factors that were not predicted by WGZ BANK or adequately considered in its statistical models. These could lead to unforeseen losses.

Risks resulting from an interruption of WGZ BANK's operations

Unforeseen events like severe natural catastrophes, terrorist attacks or other states of emergency can lead to abrupt interruption of WGZ BANK's operations which can cause substantial losses. Such losses can relate to property, financial assets, trading positions and to key employees. Such unforeseen events can also lead to additional costs (such as costs triggered by the relocation of employees affected) and increase WGZ BANK's costs (such as insurance premiums). Such events may also make insurance coverage for certain risks unavailable and thus increase WGZ BANK's risk. This could adversely affect WGZ BANK's financial condition and results of operations.

Competition risks

Competition is intense in all of WGZ BANK's primary business areas in North Rhine-Westphalia and parts of Rhineland-Palatinate. Intense competition in Germany, especially in Western Germany, could adversely affect the business model and its margins. This could adversely affect WGZ BANK's financial condition and results of operations.

Special market price risks

A market downturn due to changes in exchange rates, prices, interest rates or volatility or a reduction in market liquidity could lead to unforeseen losses and could affect WGZ BANK's financial condition and results of operations.

In form of the fixed rate risk, changes in interest rates could have a negative effect if on the one hand variable rates and on the other hand fixed rates were negotiated.

Due to the market price risk, WGZ BANK's financial condition and results of operations could be adversely affected.

Risks arising out of claims of important contracts

WGZ BANK entered into important contracts. WGZ BANK issued Keep-well statements of several of its subsidiaries and in addition, it is a member in the Sicherungseinrichtung des Bundesverband der Deutschen Volksbanken und Raiffeisenbanken e.V. (BVR). If WGZ BANK would be subject to claims under either of the Keep-well statements or its membership in the BVR, this could have an adverse effect on its financial conditions and results of operations.

Risks from a change in Rating

WGZ BANK obtained a voluntary rating from the internationally active rating agency Moody's.

Should the business environment of WGZ BANK, the risk profile or the profitability deteriorate, this could lead to a different rating of the rating agencies. This would increase refinancing costs and deteriorate both profitability and the competitive situation.

This could have a negative impact on the cash-flow, results of operations and financial conditions and the price of the issued product could decrease.

Risk Factors relating to the Notes

If one or more of the risks described below occur, this may result in material and sustained decreases in the price of the Notes or, in the worst case, in a total loss of the capital invested by the Investor.

The trading market for debt securities may be volatile and may be adversely impacted by many events.

The market for debt securities issued by German companies and banks is influenced by economic and market conditions in Germany and, to varying degrees, by market conditions, interest rates, currency exchange rates and inflation rates in other European and other industrialised countries. There can be no assurance that events in Germany, Europe or elsewhere will not cause market volatility or that such volatility will not adversely affect the price of Notes or that economic and market conditions will not have any other adverse effect.

An active trading market for the Notes may not develop.

There can be no assurance that an active trading market for the Notes will develop, or, if one does develop, that it will be maintained. If an active trading market for the Notes does not develop or is not maintained, the market or trading price and liquidity of the Notes may be adversely affected. The Issuer and its affiliates are entitled to buy and sell the Notes for their own account or for the account of others, and to issue further Notes. Such transactions may favourably or adversely affect the price development of the Notes. If additional and competing products are introduced in the markets, this may adversely affect the value of the Notes.

Any right of termination at the option of the Issuer, if provided for in any Final Terms for a particular issue of Notes, could cause the yield anticipated by Noteholders to be considerably less than anticipated.

The Final Terms for a particular issue of Notes may provide for a right of termination of the Issuer. If the Issuer exercises its termination option, the yields received upon redemption may be lower than expected, and the redeemed face amount of the Notes may be lower than the purchase price for the Notes paid by the Noteholder. As a consequence, part of the capital invested by the Noteholder may be lost, so that the Noteholder in such case would not receive the total amount of the capital invested. In addition, investors that have received monies prematurely may reinvest such monies only in securities with a lower yield than the redeemed Notes.

A Noteholder's actual yield on the Notes may, as a result of transaction costs, be lower than the stated yield.

When Notes are purchased or sold, several types of incidental costs (including transaction fees and commissions) are incurred in addition to the current price of the security. These incidental costs may significantly reduce or even exclude the profit potential of the Notes. For instance, credit institutions as a rule charge their clients for own commissions which are either fixed minimum commissions or pro-rata commissions depending on the order value. To the extent that additional – domestic or foreign – parties are involved in the execution of an order, including but not limited to domestic dealers or brokers in foreign markets, Noteholders must take into account that they may also be charged for the brokerage fees, commissions and other fees and expenses of such parties (third party costs).

In addition to such costs directly related to the purchase of securities (direct costs), Noteholders must also take into account any follow-up costs (such as custody fees). Investors should inform themselves about any additional costs incurred in connection with the purchase, custody or sale of the Notes before investing in the Notes.

Margin lending, where it is permitted, can materially increase the risk to a Noteholder of non-performance of the Notes.

If a loan is used to finance the acquisition of the Notes and the Notes subsequently go into default, or if the trading price diminishes significantly, the Noteholder not only has to face a potential loss on its investment, but it will also have to repay the loan and pay interest thereon. This may significantly increase the risk of a loss. Investors should not assume that they will be able to repay the loan or pay interest thereon from the profits of a transaction. Instead, investors should assess their financial situation prior to an investment, as to whether they are able to pay interest on the loan, or to repay the loan on demand, even if they may suffer losses instead of realising gains.

A Noteholder's effective yield on the Notes may be diminished by the tax impact on that Noteholder of its investment in the Notes.

Payments of interest on the Notes, or profits realised by the Noteholder upon the sale or repayment of the Notes, may be subject to taxation in its home jurisdiction or in other jurisdictions in which it is required to pay taxes. The tax impact on Noteholders generally in Germany is described under "Taxation"; however, the tax impact on an individual Noteholder may differ from the situation described for Noteholders generally.

An investment in the Notes entails tax risks. Examples of taxation risk that investors should consider together with their advisors include the risk of double taxation (in Germany and their home jurisdiction), uncertainties as to the tax treatment of derivative Notes in Germany, special German tax rules that apply to securities held for less than a year.

Investors will not be able to calculate in advance their rate of return on Floating Rate Notes.

A key difference between Floating Rate Notes and Fixed Rate Notes is that interest income on Floating Rate Notes cannot be anticipated. Due to varying interest income, investors are not able to determine a definite yield of Floating Rate Notes at the time they purchase them, so that their return on investment cannot be compared with that of investments having longer fixed interest periods. If the Terms and Conditions of the Notes provide for frequent interest payment dates, investors are exposed to the reinvestment risk if market interest rates decline. That is, investors may reinvest the interest income paid to them only at the relevant lower interest rates then prevailing.

Reverse Floating Rate Notes are subject to sharp price fluctuations.

The interest income of Reverse Floating Rate Notes is calculated in reverse proportion to the reference rate: if the reference rate increases, interest income decreases whereas it increases if the reference rate decreases. Unlike the price of ordinary Floating Rate Notes, the price of Reverse Floating Rate Notes is highly dependent on the yield of Fixed Rate Notes having the same maturity. Price fluctuations of Reverse Floating Rate Notes are parallel but are substantially sharper than those of Fixed Rate Notes having a similar maturity. Investors are exposed to the risk that long-term market interest rates will increase even if short-term interest rates decrease and that such increase in long-term market interest rates may in turn impact on the levels of short-term interest rates. In this case, increasing interest income may not adequately offset the decrease in the reverse floater's price because it cannot be excluded that such decrease might be disproportionate.

Zero coupon bonds are subject to higher price fluctuations than non-discounted bonds.

Changes in market interest rates have a substantially stronger impact on the prices of zero coupon bonds than on the prices of ordinary bonds because the discounted issue prices are substantially below par. If market interest rates increase, zero coupon bonds can suffer higher price losses than other bonds having the same maturity and a comparable credit rating. Due to their leverage effect, zero coupon bonds are a type of investment associated with a particularly high price risk.

An investment in Notes with derivative interest structures is subject to additional risks.

In the case of Notes with derivative interest structures, the interest rate is coupled with a reference asset. Therefore, the interest claim is essentially subject to the risks described under "Additional Risks Relating to derivative Notes". If the Notes are terminated prematurely or sold before maturity, there will further be the risk that part of the invested capital is lost.

Foreign currency bonds expose investors to foreign-exchange risk as well as to issuer risk.

As purchasers of foreign currency bonds, investors are exposed to the risk of changing foreign exchange rates. This risk is in addition to any performance risk that relates to the Issuer or the type of Note being issued.

Holders of Subordinated Notes face a significantly increased risk that the Notes will not perform as anticipated.

In the event of any insolvency or liquidation of the Issuer, holders of Subordinated Notes would receive payments on any outstanding Subordinated Notes only after senior Noteholders and other senior creditors have been repaid in full, if and to the extent that there is still cash available for those payments. Thus, holders of Subordinated Notes generally face a higher performance risk than holders of senior Notes.

Additional Risk Factors Relating to Derivative Notes

In addition to the other information contained in this Prospectus and the risk factors set out above, investors investing in derivative Notes should consider, in particular, the risks described below of investing in the derivative Notes offered. However, the information set forth below merely refers to general risks related to an investment in the derivative Notes and does not purport to be exhaustive. Please refer to the product information and the specific risk warnings, if any, set out in the relevant Final Terms.

If one or more of the risks described below occur, investors investing in derivative Securities may incur a total or partial loss of their capital invested.

These risk warnings do not substitute advice by the investor's bank or by legal, business or tax advisers, which should in any event be obtained in order to be able to assess the consequences of an investment in derivative Notes. Investment decisions should not be made solely on the basis of the risk warnings set out in this Base Prospectus and the relevant Final Terms since such information cannot serve as a substitute for individual advice and information which is tailored to the requirements, objectives, experience, knowledge and circumstances of the investor concerned.

An investment in derivative Notes might not be suitable for investors who have not sufficient knowledge of the finance sector.

An investment in derivative Notes entails significant risks if an investment in derivative Notes is not suitable for the investor. Therefore, investors should determine whether an investment in derivative Notes is appropriate in their particular circumstances. An investment in derivative Notes requires a thorough understanding of the nature of the relevant transaction. Investors should be experienced with respect to an investment in equity shares, share baskets, indices and index baskets and be aware of the related risks.

An investment in derivative Notes is only suitable for investors who:

- have the requisite knowledge and experience in financial and business matters to evaluate the merits and risks of an investment in derivative Notes;

- have access to, and knowledge of, appropriate analytical tools to evaluate such merits and risks in the context of their financial situation;
- are capable of bearing the economic risk of an investment in derivative Notes for an indefinite period of time; and
- recognise that it may not be possible to dispose of the derivative Notes for a substantial period of time, if at all.

Investments in derivative Notes entail significant risks.

An investment in derivative Notes entails significant risks that are not associated with similar investments in a conventional fixed or floating rate debt security. These risks include the possibility that:

- such index or basket of reference assets may be subject to significant changes, whether due to the composition of the index itself, or because of fluctuations in value of the basket;
- the resulting interest rate will be less (or may be more) than that payable in the case of a conventional debt security issued by the Issuer at the same time;
- the repayment of principal can occur at times other than that expected by the investor;
- the holder of a derivative Note could lose all or a substantial portion of the principal of such Note (whether payable at maturity or upon redemption or repayment), and, if the principal is lost, interest may cease to be payable on the derivative Note;
- the risks of investing in derivative Notes encompasses both risks relating to the underlying reference assets and risks that are unique to the Notes as such;
- a derivative Note that is indexed to more than one type of reference asset, or on formulas that encompass the risks associated with more than one type of asset, may carry levels of risk that are greater than Notes that are indexed to one type of asset only;
- it may not be possible for investors to hedge their exposure to these various risks relating to derivative Notes; and
- a significant market disruption could mean that the index on which the derivative Notes are based ceases to exist.

In addition, the value of derivative Notes on the secondary market is subject to greater levels of risk than is the value of other Notes. The secondary market, if any, for derivative Notes will be affected by a number of factors, irrespective of the creditworthiness of the Issuer and the value of the applicable currency, commodity, stock, interest rate or other index, including the volatility of the applicable currency, commodity, stock, interest rate or other index, the time remaining to the maturity of such Notes, the amount outstanding of such Notes and market interest rates. The value of the applicable currency, commodity, stock or interest rate index depends on a number of interrelated factors, including economic, financial and political events beyond the Issuer's control. Additionally, if the formula used to determine the amount of principal, premium and/or interest payable with respect to Indexed Notes contains a multiplier or leverage factor, the effect of any change in the applicable currency, commodity, stock, interest rate or other index will be increased. The historical experience of the relevant currencies, commodities, stocks or interest rate indices should not be taken as an indication of future performance of such currencies, commodities, stock, interest rate or other indices during the term of any derivative Note. Additionally, there may be regulatory and other ramifications associated with the ownership by certain investors of certain derivative Notes.

The respective credit ratings assigned to the Issuer's medium-term note program are a reflection of the credit status of the Issuer, and in no way a reflection of the potential impact of any of the factors discussed above, or any other factors, on the market value of any derivative Note. Accordingly, prospective investors should consult their own financial and legal advisors as to the risks entailed by an investment in derivative Notes and the suitability of such Notes in light of their particular circumstances.

Various transactions by the Issuer could impact the performance of any derivative Notes, which could lead to conflicts of interest between the Issuer and holders of its derivative Notes.

The Issuer is active in the international and domestic German securities markets on a daily basis. It may thus, for its own account, engage in transactions directly or indirectly involving assets that are "reference assets" under derivative Notes and may make decisions regarding these transactions in the same manner as it would if the derivative Notes had not been issued. The Issuer and its affiliates may on the issue date of the derivative Notes or at any time thereafter be in possession of information in relation to any reference assets that may be material to holders of any derivative Notes and that may not be publicly available or not known to the Noteholders. There is no obligation on the part of the Issuer to disclose any such business or information to the Noteholders.

Risk Factors relating to Pfandbriefe

The Terms and Conditions of the Notes which apply to Pfandbriefe will not contain any events of default and will not be issued with the benefit of an investor put option. Furthermore, in the event of the imposition of a withholding or deduction by way of tax on interest payments under the Pfandbriefe, no additional amounts will be paid to investors so that investors will receive interest payments net of such withholding or deduction. In addition, Pfandbriefe are subject to the same risks set forth above.

Risk Factors relating to the Keep-well statement

The Keep-well statement provided by WGZ BANK for the benefit of the Issuer does not constitute a guarantee. Therefore, it does not give holders of Non Equity Securities any direct payment claim against WGZ BANK in the event that the Issuer defaults with regard to payments to be made under the Non Equity Securities. No assurance is provided that WGZ BANK will remain a majority shareholder of the Issuer.

Overview of the German Pfandbrief Market

The following is a description reduced to some of the more fundamental principles governing the laws regarding Pfandbriefe and Pfandbrief Banks in summary form and without addressing all the laws' complexities and details. Accordingly, it is qualified in its entirety by reference to the applicable laws.

Introduction

Until 18 July 2005 the Issuer operated as a mortgage bank (Pfandbriefbank) under the Mortgage Bank Act in the version as published on 9 September 1998, as amended) (Hypothekenbankgesetz). As of 19 July 2005, the Pfandbrief operations of the Issuer are subject to the new Pfandbrief Act (Pfandbriefgesetz).

The legislation accompanying the new Pfandbrief Act, i.e., the Act on the Reorganisation of the Law on Pfandbriefe (Gesetz zur Neuordnung des Pfandbriefrechts), rescinded all existing special legislation regarding the Pfandbrief business in Germany, including, inter alia, (i) the Mortgage Banking Act applicable to the existing mortgage banks such as the Issuer being specialist institutions authorized to issue Mortgage Pfandbriefe (Hypothekenpfandbriefe) covered by mortgage loans, as well as Public Sector Pfandbriefe (Öffentliche Pfandbriefe) covered by obligations of public sector debtors (and, in each case, by certain other qualifying assets), (ii) the Act on Pfandbriefe and Related Bonds of Public- Law Credit Institutions (Gesetz über die Pfandbriefe und verwandten Schuldverschreibungen öffentlich-rechtlicher Kreditanstalten) in the version as published on 9 September 1998, as amended, applicable to various types of public sector banks, in respect of Mortgage Pfandbriefe and Public Sector Pfandbriefe issued by them, and (iii) finally, the Ship Banking Act (Schiffsbankgesetz), as last amended on 5 April 2004, governing the operations of ship mortgage banks issuing Ship Mortgage Pfandbriefe (Schiffspfandbriefe).

The new Pfandbrief Act abolishes the concept of specialist Pfandbrief institutions hitherto prevailing in respect of the existing mortgage banks and ship mortgage banks. It establishes a new and uniform regulatory regime for all German credit institutions. As of 19 July 2005 onwards, all German credit institutions are permitted, subject to authorization and further requirements of the Pfandbrief Act, to engage in the Pfandbrief business and to issue Mortgage Pfandbriefe, Public Sector Pfandbriefe as well as Ship Mortgage Pfandbriefe, and, from such date onwards, existing mortgage banks and ship mortgage banks will be authorized to engage in most other types of banking transactions, eliminating the limitations in respect of the scope of their permitted business which existed in the past. The Act thus creates a level playing field for all German credit institutions, operating as universal banks and engaged in the issuance of Pfandbriefe.

German credit institutions wishing to take up the Pfandbrief business must obtain special authorisation under the Banking Act (Kreditwesengesetz) from the Federal Financial Services Supervisory Authority (Bundesanstalt für Finanzdienstleistungsaufsicht – "BaFin") and, for that purpose, must meet some additional requirements as specified in the Pfandbrief Act.

Mortgage banks such as the Issuer and ship mortgage banks, that operated as such up to 19 July 2005 as well as public sector banks carrying on the Pfandbrief business up to such date, are all grandfathered in respect of authorization for the particular type of Pfandbrief business in which they were engaged at such time, subject to giving a comprehensive notice to the BaFin by 18

October 2005. As of 19 July 2005, mortgage banks and ship mortgage banks are authorized to engage in a broad spectrum of other banking transactions, including, inter alia, deposit taking, the extension of credits, securities custody, the guarantee business, underwriting as well as others, up to then not permitted to be carried out by them.

The operations of all banks engaged in the issuance of Pfandbriefe are as from 19 July 2005 regulated by the Pfandbrief Act and the Banking Act, and are subject to the prudential supervision of the BaFin. In particular, the BaFin carries out audits of the assets forming part of any Cover Pool, regularly in bi-annual intervals.

In this summary, banks authorized to issue Pfandbriefe will generally be referred to as "Pfandbrief Banks" which is the term applied by the Pfandbrief Act.

Rules applicable to all types of Pfandbriefe

Pfandbriefe are standardized debt instruments issued by a Pfandbrief Bank. The quality and standards of Pfandbriefe are strictly governed by provisions of the Pfandbrief Act and subject to the prudential supervision of the BaFin. Pfandbriefe generally are medium- to long-term bonds, typically with an original maturity of two to ten years, which are secured or "covered" at all times by a pool of specified qualifying assets (Deckung), as described below. Pfandbriefe are recourse obligations of the issuing bank, and no separate vehicle is created for their issuance generally or for the issuance of any specific series of Pfandbriefe. Pfandbriefe may not be redeemed at the option of the holders prior to maturity.

As mentioned before, Pfandbriefe may either be Mortgage Pfandbriefe, Public Sector Pfandbriefe or Ship Mortgage Pfandbriefe. The outstanding Pfandbriefe of any one of these types must be covered by a separate pool of specified qualifying assets: a pool for Mortgage Pfandbriefe only, a pool only for Public Sector Pfandbriefe, and a pool covering all outstanding Ship Mortgage Pfandbriefe (each a "Cover Pool"). An independent trustee appointed by the BaFin has wide responsibilities in monitoring the compliance by the Pfandbrief Bank with the provisions of the Pfandbrief Act. In particular, the trustee monitors the sufficiency of the cover assets and maintains a register listing the assets provided as cover from time to time in respect of the Pfandbriefe of any given type.

The aggregate principal amount of assets in these Cover Pools must at all times at least be equal to the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Pfandbriefe issued against such Cover Pool. Moreover, the aggregate interest yield on any such Cover Pool must at all times be at least equal to the aggregate interest payable on all Pfandbriefe relating to the Cover Pool. In addition, the coverage of all outstanding Pfandbriefe with respect to principal and interest must also at all times be ensured on the basis of the present value (Barwert). Finally, the present value of the assets contained in the Cover Pool must exceed the total amount of liabilities from the corresponding Pfandbriefe and derivatives by at least 2 per cent (sichernde Überdeckung).

Such 2 per cent excess cover must consist of highly liquid assets. Qualifying assets for the excess cover are (i) debt securities of the German government, a special fund of the German government, a German state, the European Communities, the states comprising the European Economic Area, Switzerland, the United States, Canada, Japan, any other European state with full OECD member status, the European Investment Bank, the World Bank, the Council of Europe Development Bank, or the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development; (ii) debt securities guaranteed by any of the foregoing entities; and (iii) credit balances maintained with the European Central Bank, the central banks of the member states of the European Union and appropriate credit institutions.

The Pfandbrief Bank must record in the register of cover assets for any Cover Pool of a given Pfandbrief type each asset and the liabilities arising from derivatives. Derivatives may be entered in such register only with the consent of the trustee and the counterparty.

The Pfandbrief Bank must command over an appropriate risk management system meeting the requirements specified in detail in the Pfandbrief Act and must comply with comprehensive disclosure requirements on a quarterly and annual basis set out in detail in the Pfandbrief Act.

Cover Pool for Mortgage Pfandbriefe

The principal assets qualifying for the Cover Pool for Mortgage Pfandbriefe are loans secured by land charges which may serve as cover up to the initial 60 per cent. of the value of the property, as assessed with comprehensive evaluation rules designed to arrive at the fair market value of the property.

The property that may be encumbered by land charges must be situated in a state of the European Economic Area, Switzerland, the United States, Canada or Japan.

In addition, the Cover Pool for Mortgage Pfandbriefe may comprise a limited portion of other assets as follows: (i) equalization claims converted into bonds; (ii) subject to certain qualifications, those assets which may also be included in the 2 per cent excess cover described above, up to a total sum of 10 per cent. of the aggregate principal amount of outstanding Mortgage Pfandbriefe; (iii) the assets which may also be included in the Cover Pool for Public Sector Pfandbriefe referred to below, up to a total of 20 per cent. of the aggregate principal amount of outstanding Mortgage Pfandbriefe, whereby the assets pursuant to (ii) above will be deducted, and, finally, (iv) claims arising under interest rate and currency swaps as well as under other qualifying derivatives contracted under standardized master agreements with certain qualifying counterparties, provided that it is assured that the claims arising under such derivatives will not be prejudiced in the event of the insolvency of the Pfandbrief Bank or any other Cover Pool maintained by it. The amount of the claims of the Pfandbrief Bank arising under derivatives which are included in the Cover Pool measured against the total amount of all assets forming part of the Cover Pool as well as the amount of the liabilities of the Pfandbrief Bank arising from such derivatives measured against the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Mortgage Pfandbriefe plus the liabilities arising from derivatives may in either case not exceed 12 per cent., calculated in each case on the basis of the net present values.

Cover Pool for Public Sector Pfandbriefe

The Cover Pool for Public Sector Pfandbriefe may comprise payment claims under loans, bonds or similar transactions or other claims of a wide spectrum of states and other public instrumentalities, including, but not limited to: (i) the German government as well as any German federal state, municipality or other qualifying public body in Germany; (ii) any state of the European Economic Area, Switzerland, the United States, Canada or Japan; (iii) any other European state with full OECD member status; (iv) the regional governments and local territorial authorities if certain solvability conditions are met; (v) non-profit administrative authorities of states mentioned under (ii) above controlled by the central or regional governments or local territorial authorities of the states referred to in (ii) above if certain solvability conditions are met; (vi) the European Investment Bank, the World Bank, the Council of Europe Development Bank, or the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development; and, finally, (vii) any entity the obligations of which are guaranteed by a public entity referred to or mentioned in (i) through (iv) and (vi) above.

The Cover Pool may furthermore include the following assets: (i) equalization claims converted into bonds; (ii) credit balances maintained with the European Central Bank, a central bank of any EU member state or a suitable credit institution, up to 10 per cent. of a total sum of the aggregate principal amount of outstanding Public Sector Pfandbriefe; and (iii) claims arising under derivatives as mentioned above, subject to the conditions and restrictions described in such paragraph. The limitations which apply to Mortgage Pfandbriefe apply here as well.

Cover Pool for Ship Mortgage Pfandbriefe

The principal assets of the Cover Pool for Ship Mortgage Pfandbriefe are loans secured by ship mortgages. Any such mortgage may serve as cover up to an amount not exceeding 60 per cent of the fair market value of the ship.

In addition, the Cover Pool for Ship Mortgage Pfandbriefe may include other assets of the kind which qualify for a Cover Pool of Mortgage Pfandbriefe (see above).

Insolvency Proceedings

In the event of the institution of insolvency proceedings over the assets of the Pfandbrief Bank, any Cover Pool maintained by it would not be part of the insolvency estate, and, therefore, such insolvency would not automatically result in an insolvency of any Cover Pool. Only if at the same time or thereafter the relevant Cover Pool were to become insolvent, separate insolvency proceedings would be initiated against such Cover Pool by the BaFin. In this case, holders of Pfandbriefe would have the first claim on the respective Cover Pool. Their preferential right would also extend to interest on the Pfandbriefe accrued after the commencement of insolvency proceedings. Furthermore, but only to the extent that holders of Pfandbriefe suffer a loss, holders would also have recourse to any assets of the Pfandbrief Bank not included in the Cover Pools. As regards those assets, holders of the Pfandbriefe would rank equal with other unsecured and unsubordinated creditors of the Pfandbrief Bank.

One or two administrators (Sachwalter – "Administrator") will be appointed in the case of the insolvency of the Pfandbrief Bank to administer each Cover Pool for the sole benefit of the holders of Pfandbriefe. The Administrator will be appointed by the court having jurisdiction at the location of the head office of the Pfandbrief Bank at the request of the BaFin before or after the institution of insolvency proceedings. The Administrator will be subject to the supervision of the court and also of the BaFin with respect to the duties of the Pfandbrief Bank arising in connection with the administration of the assets included in the relevant Cover Pool. The Administrator will be entitled to dispose of the Cover Pool's assets and receive all payments on the relevant assets to ensure full satisfaction of the claims of the holders of Pfandbriefe. To the extent, however, that those assets are obviously not necessary to satisfy such claims, the insolvency receiver of the Pfandbrief Bank is entitled to demand the transfer of such assets to the insolvency estate.

Subject to the consent of the BaFin, the Administrator may transfer all or part of the cover assets and the liabilities arising from the Pfandbriefe issued against such assets to another Pfandbrief Bank.

Description of main activities and services, important new products/services, important markets and competitive position

Real Estate Lending Business

The main focus of the real estate lending business is on the financing of residential objects. Apart from that, also commercially used, multi-function properties are financed. Most of the objects serving as collateral for real estate financing are located in Germany, mainly in the North Rhine-Westphalia region.

The main target groups are self-users of properties, the institutional housing sector as well as investors. New real estate lending is being done, on the one hand, in the Verbund business through the mediation of the industrial and agricultural credit cooperatives (Volksbanken und Raiffeisenbanken) and, on the other hand, in direct business, above all with the institutional housing sector.

The mortgage portfolio is characterised by a large number of lower volume loans and a high proportion of real estate loans.

In the last few years, the Issuer has continually expanded its market position to become one of the largest providers of real estate financing in the state of North Rhine-Westphalia. The environment is characterised by competition within the cooperative FinanzVerbund, but also with the local savings banks and, increasingly, with direct providers and internet banks.

State and Municipal Lending Business

The focus of the state and municipal lending business is on the granting of loans to the Federal government, the Federal states, cities and municipalities, to domestic corporations and public law institutions, as well as to member states of the European Union or the European Economic Area and their regional governments and local authorities, and to other debtors that can be used as coverage for Pfandbriefe pursuant to the Pfandbrief Act.

The granting of municipal loans is carried out through direct contacts with the municipalities, through the regional activities of the local industrial and agricultural credit cooperatives (Volksbanken und Raiffeisenbanken) in the Verbund business, and through other mediators. The loan portfolio with the cities and communities is characterised by nationwide diversification with focus on North Rhine-Westphalia. Most of the loans are fixed-rate annuity loans with long maturities.

The higher-volume state lending business, which goes beyond the municipal lending, is mostly carried out by domestic and internationally active capital market partners buying bonds and registered bonds. Debtors in the state lending business are primarily the German Federal states, German public-sector financial institutions with guarantor's liability by a public authority, as well as states and regions within the EU/EEA.

Other Capital Market Business

Apart from the granting of mortgage loans and public-sector loans, liquid assets are invested in the bonds of European private law banks with a minimum rating of single A- (Standard & Poor's or Fitch) or A3 (Moody's). For reasons of liquidity control and interest rate management, money and derivatives lines have been provided to selected financial institutions.

The Issuer refinances its active business mainly through the issuance of public sector and mortgage Pfandbriefe in the form of bearer bonds and registered bonds. That part of the lending business which is not available to cover Pfandbriefe is refinanced by other uncovered bonds and money market transactions.

Explanation of changes with respect to the conversion from HGB accounting to IFRS of the WGZ BANK Group financials

According to current EU law, the WGZ BANK Group is obliged to prepare its consolidated financial statements in accordance with the International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) adopted by the EU. These consolidated financial statements, which have been prepared according to Section 315a, Paragraph 2 of the German Commercial Code (HGB), replace, as from the 2007 financial year, the consolidated financial statements prepared by WGZ BANK in accordance with HGB.

The conversion from HGB accounting to IFRS has led, in particular, to the following changes in WGZ BANK's consolidated financial statements:

According to Section 253 HGB, claims and liabilities are valued at the lower-of-cost-or-market principle or the higher-of-cost-or-market principle. Under IFRS, they are valued at amortised acquisition cost or at fair value. The valuation at fair value leads to increased volatility of the results, since unrealised appreciations and depreciations are also shown in the profit and loss account, provided that the financial instruments are not classified in the "available for sale" category. Under IFRS, interest rate-related changes in the value of claims and liabilities are separately stated as assets or liabilities within the framework of portfolio hedging as book value adjustment from financial instruments hedged in the portfolio.

Under IFRS, changes in the value of financial instruments of the “available for sale” category are recognised with no effect on income and shown under equity (revaluation reserve). Generally, they are not recognised through profit or loss in the net income from investments until their sale or maturity. Changes in the value of financial instruments that are classified in the fair value option measurement category according to IAS 39 are recognised in the trading result. In accordance with Section 253 HGB, financial instruments are subsequently measured according to their allocation to current or fixed assets.

Risk provisioning under IFRS refers exclusively to the valuation of the lending business. Contingency reserve pursuant to Section 340f HGB („Provision for general banking risks“) and to Section 340g HGB (“Special items for general banking risks”) are not allowed under IFRS. This contributed significantly to the increase in group equity in the Group’s IFRS opening balance sheet compared with HGB accounting.

Under IFRS, derivative transactions are stated at fair value. They are generally shown under trading assets or trading liabilities. Provided that the derivatives are part of a hedging relationship within the framework of portfolio hedging or fair value hedging, they are shown under the items Positive market values or Negative market values of derivative hedging instruments. Positive and negative changes in the value of derivative transactions are always recognised through profit or loss. In the financial statements under commercial law, negative residual net present values arrived at by the netting of positive and negative valuation results of the financial transactions of the trading portfolio structured into risk-specific books are accounted for by way of the recognition of provisions. Under HGB, positive net present values are not accounted for.

Under IAS 12, valuation differences between IFRS and taxable value lead to the recognition of deferred tax assets and liabilities in the consolidated financial statements. Under IFRS, the recognition of deferred tax assets for tax loss carryforwards is generally required. With regard to the capitalisation of deferred taxes, Section 274 (2) HGB provides for an option right. The recognition of deferred tax assets for tax loss carryforwards is not possible under HGB.

Under IAS 39, benefits and risks of the securities are not transferred to the borrower. In contrast to HGB, the securities are therefore recognised in the financial statements of the lender.

The recognition of pension provisions under IAS 19 differs systematically from the provisions of the HGB, which are influenced by tax valuation rules. Apart from other parameters, the differences concern the discounting rate, which, under IFRS, is calculated based on the market interest rate of risk-free long-term corporate bonds, as well as the netting of existing plan assets under IFRS with the obligation reported as a liability.

In contrast to HGB, trust operations are not stated in the balance sheet under IFRS.

Under IAS 38, internally generated or developed intangible assets must also be capitalised. In the WGZ BANK Group, this applies in particular to software. Under HGB, only externally acquired intangible assets have to be capitalised as fixed assets.

Securities Description

General Description of the Programme

The information set out below in relation to the types of Non Equity Securities which may be issued under this Programme provides a summary overview of material terms of the Non Equity Securities. Since the Final Terms and characteristics of the Non Equity Securities as well as the terms of the offer may only be determined when the Non Equity Securities are issued, such information and the Terms and Conditions of the Non Equity Securities set out below should be read in conjunction with the applicable Final Terms which will be published upon each issue of Notes in accordance with Section 14 of the German Securities Prospectus Act (Wertpapierprospektgesetz).

The Issuer intends to issue Standard Notes governed by German law, derivative Notes as well as mortgage Pfandbriefe and public sector Pfandbriefe under the Programme described in this Base Prospectus on a continuing basis. Under the Programme, the Issuer may issue Non Equity Securities in the form of, inter alia, fixed or floating rate Notes, zero coupon Notes, Notes having derivative interest rate structures, subordinated or unsubordinated Notes as well as fixed and floating rate Pfandbriefe, and non-interest bearing derivative Notes or derivative Notes with the above types of interest, whose redemption amount is determined by reference to one or more reference assets.

The description of the Non Equity Securities is set out as securities description in Section A (to be read in conjunction with Schedule 1) for Standard Notes, and in Section B (to be read in conjunction with Schedule 1) for derivative Notes and in Section C (to be read in conjunction with Schedules 2 and 3) for Pfandbriefe. Section D contains a description of the Keep-Well Undertaking given by WGZ BANK for the benefit of the Issuer, and Section E contains other conditions applicable to all Non Equity Securities.

The description is made in the order set out below:

Standard Notes

- Subordinated and unsubordinated Notes having specified denominations and fixed rates;
- subordinated and unsubordinated Notes having specified denominations and floating rates;
- subordinated and unsubordinated zero coupon Notes having specified denominations and not bearing interest;
- subordinated and unsubordinated Notes having specified denominations and having a derivative interest rate structure, where interest will be determined by reference to the following reference assets and where structured components may be used as formulas:
 - interest rates
 - CMS (Constant Maturity Swap) rates
 - shares or share baskets
 - indices or index baskets
 - other reference assets, as specified in the Final Terms

In each case, the Notes will be redeemed at maturity or, in the event of Instalment Notes, on the Instalment payment dates specified in the Final Terms, in any event, however, at an aggregate of 100% or more of their principal amount.

Derivative Notes

Notes in the form of (i) non-interest bearing Notes, (ii) Notes with fixed or (iii) floating rates, or (iv) Notes with a derivative interest rate structure, in each case having a derivative redemption structure determined by reference to the reference assets set out below.

- Subordinated and unsubordinated Notes having a derivative redemption amount and fixed rates;
- subordinated and unsubordinated Notes having a derivative redemption amount and floating rates;
- subordinated and unsubordinated Notes having a derivative redemption amount and not bearing interest;
- subordinated and unsubordinated Notes having a derivative redemption amount and a derivative interest rate structure; provided that any redemption and interest rate structures may be combined in any combination. Both derivative interest and redemption may be linked to the reference assets set out below and structured components may be used as formulas:

- interest rates
- CMS (Constant Maturity Swap) rates
- shares or share baskets
- indices or index baskets
- other reference assets, as specified in the Final Terms

If provided for in the Final Terms, delivery of the relevant reference assets may be made instead of payment.

As the redemption amount is determined by reference to one or more reference assets as specified in the Final Terms, the redemption amount at maturity may be significantly less than the capital invested, and in extreme cases, investors may incur a total loss.

Pfandbriefe

- Pfandbriefe having specified denominations and fixed rates, and a fixed or derivative redemption amount;
- Pfandbriefe having specified denominations and floating rates, and a fixed or derivative redemption amount;
- zero coupon Pfandbriefe having specified denominations and not bearing interest, and a fixed or derivative redemption amount;

In each case, the Pfandbriefe will be redeemed (depending on their structure at a redemption amount that may be lower than their principal amount) at maturity or, in the event of Instalment Pfandbriefe, on the instalment payment dates specified in the Final Terms.

Responsible Persons

The responsible persons have been identified in section "Issuer Description" under "Responsible Persons".

Risk Factors

The risk factors are set out above in the "Risk Factors" section.

Investors investing in derivative securities may incur a total or partial loss of the amount invested if the risk involved in the reference asset(s) and/or the derivative component is realised in whole or in part. (See section "Risk Factors – Additional Risk Factors Relating to derivative Notes").

Key Information

The Issuer and its affiliates may buy and sell the Non Equity Securities for their own account or for the account of others, and to issue further Non Equity Securities. Further, the Issuer and its affiliates participate in the international and domestic German securities, currency and commodity markets. Accordingly, they may, for their own account or for the account of customers, engage in transactions directly or indirectly involving assets that are "reference assets" under the derivative Notes and may make decisions regarding these transactions in the same manner as they would if the derivative Notes had not been issued. The Issuer and its affiliates may on the issue date of the derivative Notes or at any time thereafter be in possession of information in relation to any reference assets that may be material to holders of any derivative Notes and that may not be publicly available or known to the Noteholders. (See "Risk Factors" for further information). If Non Equity Securities are underwritten by individual banks or by a group of banks, the underwriting banks will receive a commission for the underwriting and placing, if any, of the Non Equity Securities. Details of such commission will be set forth in the Final Terms. The Final Terms may, if relevant, contain any further information about conflicts of interest regarding the Issuer or any other persons involved in the issuance of Non Equity Securities.

The net proceeds from each issue of the Non Equity Securities under the Programme will be used by the Issuer for general banking purposes.

A. Securities Information Concerning the Non-Interest Bearing, Fixed Rate, Floating Rate or derivative Interest Rate Subordinated or Unsubordinated Standard Notes to be Offered or Admitted to Trading

The following section contains the Securities Description relating to the Standard Notes to be issued under the Programme and to be redeemed at maturity at 100% of their principal amount.

Type and Class of the Notes

The Issuer will issue different series of non-interest bearing subordinated and unsubordinated Notes having specified denominations and without interest (zero coupon Notes), and fixed rate, floating rate or derivative interest rate subordinated and unsubordinated Notes (or subordinated and unsubordinated Notes with a combination of interest structures) under the Programme. Each series may be subdivided into different tranches. The terms of the Notes of any one tranche must be identical in every respect, whereas the tranches of a series may have different issue dates, interest commencement dates and/or issue prices.

The final terms and characteristics of the Notes of any tranche or series and the ISIN or any other security identification code will be specified in the Final Terms (see Schedule 6). The Final Terms will also set forth the terms and conditions applicable to the relevant issue.

The Terms and Conditions may also be prepared by the Issuer in consolidated form. This will usually be the case if the Issuer intends to sell the Notes to non-qualified investors within the meaning of Section 2 no. 5 of the German Securities Prospectus Act. For these purposes, the Issuer will use the relevant sections set out in the form of Final Terms (see Schedule 6) as the basis and publish such sections, in each case (in the case of Notes governed by German law) together with the consolidated version of the conditions of Terms and Conditions of the Notes, in accordance with Section 14 of the German Securities Prospectus Act. In the event of non-consolidated conditions, the final conditions will be determined using the relevant sections set out in the form of Final Terms.

Governing Law (see Terms and Conditions Schedule 1 § 13)

The Notes of each tranche or series will be issued under the terms specified in the Final Terms, and will be governed by German law.

Form, Custody and Transfer of the Notes (see Terms and Conditions Schedule 1 § 1(1)-(5))

The Notes will be issued as Global Notes in bearer form and in the denominations specified in the Final Terms. If appropriate, the aggregate principal amount of each tranche or series will initially be represented by a Temporary Global Note and subsequently by a Permanent Global Note, unless otherwise determined in the relevant Final Terms, which will, if the Notes are not issued in New Global Note form, be deposited with either Clearstream Banking AG, Frankfurt am Main (Neue Börsenstraße 1, D-60487 Frankfurt am Main, Germany), or a depositary common to Clearstream Banking, société anonyme Luxembourg (42 Avenue JF Kennedy; L-1855 Luxembourg; Luxembourg) and Euroclear Bank SA/NV (1 Boulevard du Roi Albert IIB - 1210 Brussels, Belgium) or any other clearing system (each a "Clearing System"), as specified in the Final Terms.

If specified in the relevant Final Terms, Notes potentially eligible as collateral for the Eurosystem monetary policy and intra-day credit operations may be issued in a form compliant with the New Global Note Structure for international bearer debt securities and will be kept in safe custody with a common safekeeper for Euroclear and/or Clearstream Banking, Luxembourg, the International Central Securities Depositories (the "ICSD").

Definitive securities will not be issued, unless the Final Terms provide for the issue of definitive securities.

The Notes may be transferred in accordance with rules of the relevant Clearing System.

Currency (see Terms and Conditions Schedule 1 § 1(1))

The currency of issue of the Notes is the euro, unless the Final Terms provide for a different currency (see "Risk Factors – Risk Factors Relating to the Notes").

Status and Ranking (see Terms and Conditions Schedule 1 § 2)

The Notes may be issued as subordinated or as unsubordinated Notes, as determined in the Final Terms. The Notes of any one tranche or series, however, will at all times rank pari passu and without any preference among themselves.

(i) Unsubordinated Notes

If the Notes are issued as unsubordinated Notes, they will rank equally with all other unsubordinated unsecured obligations of the Issuer (see Schedule 1 § 2 alternative 1), save for certain claims of other creditors required to be preferred by law. In particular, Pfandbriefe issued under the Programme will have a preferred claim over cover assets reserved for the Pfandbriefe pursuant to the German Pfandbrief Act (see Schedule 2 § 2 and Schedule 3 § 5).

(ii) Subordinated Notes

If the Notes are issued as Tier 2 and Tier 3 subordinated Notes, they will be subordinated to all unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer (see Schedule 1 § 2 alternative 2).

In the event of insolvency of the Issuer, repayment will be made to the holders of subordinated Notes only if all prior ranking claims of all unsubordinated creditors of the Issuer have been fully satisfied and if subsequently there are funds which remain to satisfy the claims of the holders of the subordinated Notes (see "Risk Factors – Risk Factors Relating to the Notes"). Early redemption of the Notes is subject to certain limitations pursuant to § 10 paras. 5a and 7 KWG.

Early Redemption Rights (see Terms and Conditions Schedule 1 § 4 and § 9)

The Final Terms may provide that there is no early redemption right (ordentliches Kündigungsrecht), or provide for early redemption rights as described below.

(i) No General Early Redemption Right (ordentliches Kündigungsrecht)

There is no general early redemption right in relation to the Notes prior to the final redemption date (see Schedule 1 § 4(c) alternative 2 and Schedule 1 § 4(d) alternative 1).

(ii) Extraordinary Redemption Rights (Sonderkündigungsrechte)

In exceptional cases, the Issuer may redeem such Notes or holders of unsubordinated Notes may require early redemption of such Notes upon the occurrence of an event of default (see Schedule 1 § 9), or the Issuer may redeem such Notes early upon the occurrence of a tax event (see Schedule 1 § 4(b)).

In the case of subordinated Notes, this redemption right is limited pursuant to § 10 paras. 5a and 7 of the German Banking Act (Gesetz über das Kreditwesen – KWG).

(iii) Early Redemption at the Option of the Issuer or at the Option of the Noteholders

Otherwise, the redemption of the Notes prior to maturity may only be required if the Final Terms provide for a call option by either the Issuer (see Schedule 1 § 4(c) alternative 3) or for a put option by the Noteholders (see Schedule 1 § 4(d) alternative 2) (see "Risk Factors – Risk Factors Relating to the Notes").

(iv) Early Redemption Procedure

If the Issuer may redeem the Notes early, the Noteholders have to be notified of such redemption. This is done by giving notice in accordance with § 12 of the Terms and Conditions (see Schedule 1 § 12).

If the Noteholders may require early redemption of the Notes, the Issuer has to be notified of such redemption. This is done, subject to the applicable provisions in the relevant Terms and Conditions, either by sending the early redemption notice directly to the Issuer or to the office of the Fiscal Agent (see Schedule 1 § 4(d) alternative 2 or § 9).

In the case of subordinated Notes, the provisions of the German Banking Act have to be complied with in addition.

(v) Purchase

The Issuer may at any time cancel unsubordinated Notes purchased in the open market (see Schedule 1 § 4(e)), in the case of subordinated Notes, subject to legal restrictions.

Interest (see Terms and Conditions Schedule 1 § 3)

The Final Terms may provide for the issue of non-interest bearing, fixed rate or floating rate Notes, or Notes having derivative interest rates linked to the performance of a reference asset. The Final Terms may provide for maximum or minimum interest, or a step-up interest or any other interest method.

If none or one of the following types of interest have been provided for a Note, the interest periods will be specified in the Final Terms.

(i) Fixed Rate Notes

If the Final Terms provide for fixed interest on the Notes (see Schedule 1 § 3 Fixed Rate Alternative), the Final Terms will specify the interest rate or the interest amount, as applicable, the interest periods, the interest payment date(s) per calendar year, the applicable business day convention and the interest calculation method (see "Risk Factors – Risk Factors Relating to the Notes").

(ii) Zero Coupon Notes

If the Notes do not bear interest during their maturity, Zero Coupon Notes, this will be specified in the Final Terms.

If, according to the provisions in the Final Terms, the Notes do not bear interest during certain periods only, the Final Terms will specify the commencement and the end of each such period (see Schedule 1 § 3 Zero Coupon Alternative and "Risk Factors – Risk Factors Relating to the Notes").

(iii) Floating Rate Notes

If the Final Terms provide for floating interest (not linked to the performance of a reference asset) on the Notes, the Final Terms, in addition to the commencement and the end of interest accrual, the interest payment date(s) or interest period(s) per calendar year and the interest calculation method, will specify the business day convention, the individual interest components, the reference interest rate and the methodology of determination and calculation (also in case of market disruption) (see "Risk Factors – Risk Factors Relating to the Notes").

The interest components will generally comprise a reference interest rate (in particular a EURIBOR or LIBOR rate) and a margin, if applicable. The Final Terms will set out in detail how the reference interest rate will be determined.

The range of volatility of floating rates may be limited by provisions in the Final Terms stipulating a maximum and/or a minimum interest. The range of volatility may be increased by including multipliers (see Schedule 1 § 3 Floating Rate Alternative).

(iv) Derivative Interest Structure

If the Final Terms provide for interest to be linked to one or more reference assets, the Final Terms will specify the underlying reference asset(s) and the mathematical relation between interest rate and reference asset(s), and the determination of interest upon the occurrence of Market Disruption or Adjustment Events. In such case, the Final Terms will contain a description as to how the reference asset affects the interest right, and a risk factors section specific to such Final Terms, if applicable.

(a) Interest linked to a formula with interest components

If the Final Terms provide for interest to be linked to certain formulas with interest rate components, the Final Terms will specify the interest rate and the mathematical relation between the interest rate and the underlying interest rate, and the determination of interest upon the occurrence of Market Disruption or Adjustment Events. In such case, the Final Terms will contain a description of the linkage of the interest right to the relevant underlying interest rate, and a risk factors section specific to such Final Terms, if applicable (see "Risk Factors – Risk Factors Relating to the Notes").

(b) Interest linked to a CMS rate

If the Final Terms provide for interest to be linked to a CMS (Constant Maturity Swap) rate, the Final Terms will specify the reference asset and the mathematical relation between interest rate and CMS rate, and the determination of interest upon the occurrence of Market Disruption or Adjustment Events. In such case, the Final Terms will contain a description of the linkage of the interest right to the CMS rate, and a risk factors section specific to such Final Terms, if applicable (see "Risk Factors – Risk Factors Relating to the Notes").

(c) Interest linked to a share or a share basket

If the Final Terms provide for interest to be linked to a share or a share basket, the Final Terms will specify the share or the share basket, as applicable, together with the respective weightings of the constituent shares and the possibility of modifications, if any, to the composition of the relevant share basket, as well as the mathematical relation between interest rate and the shares or the shares in the share basket, as applicable, and the determination of interest upon the occurrence of Market Disruption or Adjustment Events. The Calculation Agent, in accordance with the provisions of the Terms and Conditions, will determine the occurrence or existence of a Market Disruption Event (including, but not limited to, Trading Disruptions, Exchange Disruptions or Early Closures) or of a Disrupted Day (i.e. on any Scheduled Trading Day, a relevant Exchange or Related Exchange is not open for trading or the price of the relevant share cannot be determined) as of a relevant time. As a result of a Potential Adjustment Event and various events relating to shares (including, but not limited to, Merger Events, Tender Offers, Nationalisation, Delisting or Insolvency), the Calculation Agent may make certain adjustments to the Terms and Conditions in order to take into account the occurrence of such event. In such case, the Final Terms will contain a description of the linkage of the interest right to the share or the share basket, as applicable, the determination of the Market Disruption Events and the Potential Adjustment Events, the possibilities of adjustment by the Calculation Agent, the information provided by the information source(s) – in particular in relation to the historical performance and volatility of the share(s), and a risk factors section specific to such Final Terms, if applicable (see "Risk Factors – Risk Factors Relating to the Notes").

(d) Interest linked to an index or index basket

If the Final Terms provide for interest to be linked to an index or index basket, the Final Terms will specify the index or index basket, as applicable, together with the respective weightings of the constituent indices and the possibility of modifications, if any, to the composition of the relevant index basket, as well as the mathematical relation between interest rate and the index or the index basket, as applicable, and the determination of interest upon the occurrence of Market Disruption or Adjustment Events. The Calculation Agent, in accordance with the provisions of the Terms and Conditions, will determine the occurrence or existence of a Market Disruption Event as of a relevant time. As a result of an Index Adjustment Event, the Calculation Agent may make such adjustments to any amounts payable in respect of the Notes and/or to other figures relevant to payments under the Notes as it deems appropriate. In such case, the Final Terms will contain a description of the linkage of the interest right to the index or index basket, as applicable, the determination of the Market Disruption Events and Index Adjustment Events, the possibilities of adjustment by the Calculation Agent, the information provided by the information source(s), in particular in relation to the historic performance and volatility of the index or indices, and a risk factors section specific to such Final Terms, if applicable (see "Risk Factors – Risk Factors Relating to the Notes").

(v) Prescription

The right to interest under bearer Notes is subject to prescription. The period of prescription is two years. The prescription period begins at the end of the 10-year period during which the Notes must be duly presented (see Schedule 1 § 8).

(vi) Calculation Agent

Unless otherwise provided in the Final Terms, the relevant amount of interest payable on any Note will be finally and conclusively determined by WGZ BANK AG Westdeutsche Genossenschafts-Zentralbank as Calculation Agent.

(vii) Risk Factors

See "Risk Factors – Risk Factors relating to the Notes".

Due Dates and Payments (see Terms and Conditions Schedule 1 § 4(a) and § 5)

The Final Terms may provide for redemption of the principal amount of the Notes at a specified redemption date or for redemption of the Notes in instalments.

(i) Redemption at Maturity

The redemption date in relation to the principal amount at maturity will be specified in the Final Terms. On the redemption date, the holders are entitled to payment of the principal amount of the Notes.

(ii) Redemption in Instalments

If the Final Terms provide for redemption of the Notes in instalments, the redemption dates and the payments due on such dates will be specified in the Final Terms. The aggregate amount of redemption instalments will at least equal the principal amount.

(iii) Early Redemption

In the event of early termination, the redemption date will be specified in the provisions applicable to the relevant termination.

If Notes have a derivative interest rate structure (which means all interest rate structures referred to in Section "Interest (iv) Derivative Interest Structures"), the Final Terms may provide that the Early Redemption Amount shall equal the fair market value of the Notes determined in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner by the Calculation Agent, adjusted to account for any reasonable expenses and costs of unwinding any reference assets and/or related hedging and funding arrangements of the Issuer. In certain circumstances, this value may be lower than the principal amount per Note or the amount invested, and as a result the Noteholders may recover less than the principal amount per Note or the amount invested in the event of Early Redemption.

(iv) Method of Redemption (see Schedule 1 § 5)

Any amounts payable in accordance with the Terms and Conditions of the Notes will be paid by the Issuer to the relevant Clearing System for credit to the accounts of the relevant depositary banks to be paid to the Noteholders.

If any due date for payment is not a business day, the Final Terms will provide for the determination of an alternative payment date. In such event, the Noteholders will neither be entitled to payment as a consequence of the payment date falling after the due date for payment nor to default interest (Verzugszinsen) or any other compensation on account of such adjustment.

(v) Prescription

The period of prescription is two years. The prescription period begins at the end of the 10-year period during which the Notes must be duly presented (see Schedule 1 § 8).

(vi) Early Redemption Rights

The different early redemption rights are set out above under "Early Redemption Rights".

B. Securities Information Concerning the derivatives Notes the Redemption Amount of which is Linked to a Reference Asset

The following section contains the Securities Description relating to interest-bearing and non-interest bearing derivative Notes to be issued under the Programme, the redemption amount of which is linked to a reference asset. Within the functionality of derivative Notes the possibility exists that – subject to the interest- and redemption-structure and the relevant reference assets as determined in the Final Terms- no interest will be paid and/or less than the principal amount of the Notes might be redeemed at maturity.

Information Concerning the derivative Notes to be Offered or Admitted to Trading

Type and Class of the Notes

The Issuer will issue different series of non-interest bearing subordinated or unsubordinated Notes, or fixed rate, floating rate or derivative interest rate subordinated or unsubordinated Notes (or subordinated or unsubordinated Notes with a combination of interest types), the redemption amount of which is linked to reference assets, under the Programme. Each series may be subdivided into different tranches. The terms of the Notes of any one tranche must be identical in every respect, whereas the tranches of a series may have different issue dates, interest commencement dates and/or issue prices.

The final terms and characteristics of any tranche or series and the ISIN or any other security identification code will be specified by a document containing the Final Terms (the "Final Terms") (see Schedule 6). The Final Terms will also set forth the terms and conditions applicable to the relevant issue.

The Terms and Conditions may be prepared by the Issuer in consolidated form also. This will usually be the case if the Issuer intends to sell the Notes to non-qualified investors within the meaning of Section 2 no. 5 of the German Securities Prospectus Act. For these purposes, the Issuer will use the relevant sections set out in the form of Final Terms (see Schedule 4) as the basis and publish such sections, in each case (in the case of Notes governed by German law) together with the consolidated version of the conditions of Terms and Conditions of the Notes, in accordance with Section 14 of the German Securities Prospectus Act. In the event of non-consolidated conditions, the final conditions will be determined using the relevant sections set out in the form of Final Terms.

Relation between Reference Asset and Investment

The Final Terms might provide for interest and/or redemption linked to one or more reference assets. This means that an investor, under certain circumstances and depended on the interest and redemption structure and the reference assets as set out in the Final Terms, might receive no interest payments and less than the principal amount of the Notes. With such structure a partially or total loss of the invested capital cannot be excluded. How the investment is affected by the reference asset depends on whether the reference asset is a structured interest rate, a CMS rate, a share or a share basket (i.e. a basket which comprises at least two different shares, which might be weighted unequally), as applicable, or an index or an index basket (i.e. a basket which comprises at least two different indices, which might be weighted unequally), as applicable, or other reference assets. The Final Terms will specify the relevant reference asset and the mathematical relation between the redemption amount and the relevant reference asset(s) as well as the determination of the redemption amount upon the occurrence of Market Disruption or Adjustment Events. In such case, the Final Terms will contain a description of the reference asset(s), the linkage of the redemption amount to the reference asset(s), and a risk factors section specific to such Final Terms, if applicable.

Information regarding reference assets are set out in this securities description under "Type of the Reference Asset and Information on the Reference Asset (Annex XII para. 4.2.2), Market Disruption Events (Annex XII para. 4.2.3) and Adjustment Rules with Relation to Events Concerning the Reference Asset (Annex XII para. 4.2.4)".

Governing Law (see Terms and Conditions Schedule 1 § 13)

The Notes of each tranche or series will be issued under the terms specified in the Final Terms, and under German law.

Form, Custody and Transfer of the Notes (see Terms and Conditions Schedule 1 § 1(1)-(5))

The Notes will be issued as Global Notes in bearer form and in the denominations specified in the Final Terms. If appropriate, the aggregate principal amount of each tranche or series will initially be represented by a Temporary Global Note and subsequently by a Permanent Global Note, which will, if the Notes are not issued in New Global Note form, be deposited with Clearstream Banking AG, Frankfurt am Main (Neue Börsenstraße 1, D-60487 Frankfurt am Main, Germany), or a depositary common to Clearstream Banking, société anonyme Luxembourg (42 Avenue JF Kennedy; L-1855 Luxembourg; Luxembourg) and Euroclear Bank SA/NV (1 Boulevard du Roi Albert IIB - 1210 Brussels, Belgium) or any other clearing system (each a "Clearing System"), as specified in the Final Terms.

If specified in the relevant Final Terms, Notes potentially eligible as collateral for the Eurosystem monetary policy and intra-day credit operations may be issued in a form compliant with the New Global Note Structure for international bearer debt securities and will be kept in safe custody with a common safekeeper for Euroclear and/or Clearstream Banking, Luxembourg, the International Central Securities Depositories (the "ICSD").

Definitive securities will not be issued, unless the Final Terms provide for the issue of definitive securities.

The Notes may be transferred in accordance with rules of the relevant Clearing System.

Currency (see Terms and Conditions Schedule 1 § 1(1))

The currency of issue of the Notes is the euro, unless the Final Terms provide for a different currency (see "Risk Factors – Additional Risk Factors Relating to derivative Notes").

Status and Ranking (see Terms and Conditions Schedule 1 § 2)

The Notes may be issued as subordinated or as unsubordinated Notes, as determined in the Final Terms. The Notes of any one tranche or series, however, will at all times rank pari passu and without any preference among themselves.

(i) Unsubordinated Notes

If the Notes are issued as unsubordinated Notes, they will rank equally with all other unsubordinated unsecured obligations of the Issuer (see Schedule 2 Section 2.1.1 § 2 alternative 1), save for certain claims of other creditors required to be preferred by law. In particular, Pfandbriefe issued under the Programme will have a preferred claim over cover assets reserved for the Pfandbriefe pursuant to the German Pfandbrief Act (see Schedule 2 § 2 and Schedule 3 § 5).

(ii) Subordinated Notes

If the Notes are issued as subordinated Notes, they will be subordinated to all unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer (see Schedule 1 § 2 alternative 2).

In the event of insolvency of the Issuer, repayment will be made to the holders of subordinated Notes only if all prior ranking claims of all unsubordinated creditors of the Issuer have been fully satisfied and if subsequently there are funds which remain to satisfy the claims of the holders of the subordinated Notes (see "Risk Factors – Additional Risk Factors Relating to derivative Notes"). Early redemption of the Notes is subject to certain limitations pursuant to § 10 paras. 5a and 7 KWG.

Rights and Procedure for the Exercise of Rights

(i) Interest

The Final Terms may provide for the issue of non-interest bearing Notes (see Schedule 1 § 3 Zero Coupon Alternative), fixed rate (see Schedule 1 § 3 Fixed Rate Alternative), or floating rate Notes (see Schedule 1 § 3 Floating Rate Alternative), or Notes having derivative interest rates linked to one or more reference asset(s). The Final Terms may provide for maximum or minimum interest, or a step-up interest or any other interest method. The types of interest correspond to those under the Standard Notes. The right to interest under bearer Notes is subject to prescription. The period of prescription is two years. The prescription period begins at the end of the 10-year period during which the Notes must be duly presented (see "Securities Description Standard Notes – Interest").

(ii) No General Early Redemption Right (ordentliches Kündigungsrecht)

There is no general early redemption right in relation to Notes prior to the final redemption date (see Schedule 1 § 4(c) alternative 2 and § 4(d) alternative 2).

(iii) Extraordinary Redemption Rights (Sonderkündigungsrechte)

In exceptional cases, the Issuer may redeem such Notes or holders of unsubordinated Notes may require early redemption of such Notes upon the occurrence of an event of default (see Schedule 1 § 9), or the Issuer may redeem such Notes early upon the occurrence of a tax event (see Schedule 1 § 4(b)).

In the case of subordinated Notes, this extraordinary redemption right is limited by § 10 paras. 5a and 7 of the German Banking Act (Gesetz über das Kreditwesen – KWG).

If the redemption amount is linked to one or more reference asset(s), redemption which is made in a situation where the reference asset itself is subject to changes, is subject to particular risks for the investor (see "Risk Factors – Additional Risk Factors Relating to derivative Notes").

(iv) Early Redemption Procedure

If the Issuer may redeem the Notes early, the Noteholders have to be notified of such redemption. This is done by giving notice in accordance with § 12 of the Terms and Conditions (see Schedule 1 § 12).

If the Noteholders may require early redemption of the Notes, the Issuer has to be notified of such redemption. This is done either directly by notice to the Issuer or by sending the early redemption notice to the office of the Fiscal Agent (see Schedule 1 § 4(d) alternative 2 or § 9).

In the case of subordinated Notes, the provisions of the German Banking Act have to be complied with in addition.

(v) Purchase

The Issuer may at any time cancel unsubordinated Notes purchased in the open market (see Schedule 1 § 4(e)), in the case of subordinated Notes, subject to legal restrictions.

Expiration or Maturity Date, Return, Payment, Delivery and Calculation Method and Settlement Procedure

The Final Terms may provide for redemption of the principal amount of the Notes at a maturity date or for redemption of the Notes at their derivative redemption amount or for redemption of the Notes in instalments or for physical delivery of reference assets (see Schedule 1 § 4).

(i) Redemption at Maturity

The redemption date and the manner of calculation of the derivative redemption amount at maturity will be specified in the Final Terms. In the event of early termination, the redemption date will be specified in the provisions applicable to the relevant termination. On the redemption date, the holders are entitled to payment of the derivative redemption amount which may be less than the principal amount of the Notes.

(ii) Physical Delivery of Reference Assets

The details and requirements of a physical delivery of reference assets will be specified in the Final Terms.

(iii) Redemption in Instalments

If the Final Terms provide for redemption of the Notes in instalments, the redemption dates and the payments due on such dates will be specified in the Final Terms.

(iv) Early Redemption

The Final Terms may provide that the Early Redemption Amount shall equal the fair market value of the Notes determined in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner by the Calculation Agent, adjusted to account for any reasonable expenses and costs of unwinding any reference assets and/or related hedging and funding arrangements of the Issuer. In certain circumstances, this value may be lower than the principal amount per Note or lower the amount invested, and as a result the Noteholders may recover less than the principal amount per Note or less than the amount invested in the event of Early Redemption.

(v) Method of Redemption (see Schedule 1 § 5)

Any amounts payable in accordance with the Terms and Conditions of the derivative Notes will be paid by the Issuer to a Clearing System for credit to the accounts of the relevant depositary banks to be paid to the Noteholders (see Schedule 1 § 5).

If any due date for payment is not a business day, the Final Terms will provide for the determination of an alternative payment date. In such event, the Noteholders will neither be entitled to payment as a consequence of the payment date falling after the due date for payment nor to default interest (Verzugszinsen) or any other compensation on account of such adjustment.

(vi) Physical Delivery

The settlement procedure in relation to a physical delivery of reference assets or other securities will be specified in the Final Terms.

(vii) Prescription

The rights to payment of principal under bearer Notes are subject to prescription. The period of prescription is two years. The prescription period begins at the end of the 10-year period during which the Notes must be duly presented (see Schedule 1 § 8).

Information Relating to the Reference Assets

Exercise Price or Final Reference Price of the Reference Asset

The Final Terms will specify either the exercise price and/or the final reference price.

Type of the Reference Asset and Information on the Reference Asset , Market Disruption Events and Adjustment Rules with Relation to Events Concerning the Reference Asset

The Final Terms may provide that the redemption amount of the Notes will be linked to certain reference assets (in particular formulas with structured interest components, CMS rates, shares or share baskets or indices or index baskets). In such case, the Final Terms will contain a description of the relevant reference asset (including where information about the past and the further performance of the reference assets and the volatility can be obtained) and the linkage of the redemption amount to the reference asset, and a risk factors section specific to such Final Terms, if applicable. (See "Risk Factors – Additional Risk Factors Relating to derivative Notes").

(i) Formula with Structured Interest Components

If the Final Terms provide for redemption to be linked to a formula with structured interest components, the Final Terms will specify the interest rate and the mathematical relation between the redemption amount and the interest rate, and the determination of the redemption amount upon the occurrence of Market Disruption or Adjustment Events, as well the place where information relating to the relevant interest rate (including information relating to past and expected performance of the rate and its volatility) can be obtained. In such case, the Final Terms will contain a description of the linkage of the redemption amount to the relevant interest rate, and a risk factors section specific to such Final Terms, if applicable. (See "Risk Factors – Additional Risk Factors Relating to derivative Notes").

(ii) CMS Rates

In such case, the Final Terms will contain a description of the linkage of the redemption amount to the relevant CMS rate, and a risk factors section specific to such Final Terms, if applicable. (See "Risk Factors – Additional Risk Factors Relating to derivative Notes").

(iii) Shares or Share Baskets

If the Final Terms provide for redemption to be linked to a share or a share basket, the Final Terms will specify the share or the share basket, as applicable, together with the respective weightings of the constituent shares and the possibility of modifications, if any, to the composition of the relevant share basket, the names of the share issuer(s), the relevant ISIN of the share(s), as well as the mathematical relation between the redemption amount and the shares or the shares in the share basket, as applicable, and the determination of the redemption amount upon the occurrence of Market Disruption or Adjustment Events. The Calculation Agent, in accordance with the provisions of the Terms and Conditions, will determine the occurrence or existence of a Market Disruption Event (including, but not limited to, Trading Disruptions, Exchange Disruptions or Early Closures) or of a Disrupted Day (i.e. on any Scheduled Trading Day, a relevant Exchange or Related Exchange is not open for trading or the price of the relevant share cannot be determined) as of a relevant time. As a result of a Potential Adjustment Event and various events relating to shares (including, but not limited to, Merger Events, Tender Offers, Nationalisation, Delisting or Insolvency), the Calculation Agent may make certain adjustments to the Terms and Conditions in order to take into account the occurrence of such event. In such case, the Final Terms will contain a description of the linkage of the redemption amount to the share or the share basket, as applicable, the determination of the Market Disruption Events and the Potential Adjustment Events, the possibilities of adjustment by the Calculation Agent, the information provided by the information source(s) – in particular in relation to the availability of the historic and further performance and volatility of the share(s), and a risk factors section specific to such Final Terms, if applicable (see "Risk Factors – Additional Risk Factors Relating to derivative Notes").

(iv) Indices or Index Baskets

The Calculation Agent, in accordance with the provisions of the Terms and Conditions, will determine the occurrence or existence of a Market Disruption Event as of a relevant time. As a result of an Index Adjustment Event, the Calculation Agent may make such adjustments to any amounts payable in respect of the Notes and/or to other figures relevant to payments under the Notes as it deems appropriate. In such case, the Final Terms will contain a description of the linkage of the redemption amount to the index or index basket, as applicable, the determination of the Market Disruption Events and Index Adjustment Events, the possibilities of adjustment by the Calculation Agent, the information provided by the information source(s), in particular in relation to the availability of the historic and further performance and volatility of the index or index basket, and a risk factors section specific to such Final Terms, if applicable (see "Risk Factors – Additional Risk Factors Relating to derivative Notes").

C. Securities information concerning Pfandbriefe with fixed or variable interest or zero coupon Pfandbriefe

The following section contains the Securities Description relating to the Mortgage Pfandbriefe ("Hypothekenpfandbriefe"), and Public Sector Pfandbriefe ("Öffentliche Pfandbriefe") which may also be issued as Jumbo Pfandbriefe to be issued under the Programme.

Rules applicable to all Types of Pfandbriefe

Pfandbriefe are standardized debt instruments issued by a Pfandbrief Bank. The quality and standards of Pfandbriefe are strictly governed by provisions of the Pfandbrief Act and subject to the prudential supervision of the BaFin. Pfandbriefe generally are medium- to long-term bonds, typically with an original maturity of two to ten years, which are secured or "covered" at all times by a pool of specified qualifying assets (Deckung), as described below. Pfandbriefe are recourse obligations of the issuing bank, and no separate vehicle is created for their issuance generally or for the issuance of any specific series of Pfandbriefe. Pfandbriefe may not be redeemed at the option of the holders prior to maturity.

As mentioned before, Pfandbriefe may either be Mortgage Pfandbriefe, Public Sector Pfandbriefe or Ship Mortgage Pfandbriefe. The outstanding Pfandbriefe of any one of these types must be covered by a separate pool of specified qualifying assets: a pool for Mortgage Pfandbriefe only, a pool only for Public Sector Pfandbriefe, and a pool covering all outstanding Ship Mortgage Pfandbriefe (each a "Cover Pool"). An independent trustee appointed by the BaFin has wide responsibilities in monitoring the compliance by the Pfandbrief Bank with the provisions of the Pfandbrief Act. In particular, the trustee monitors the sufficiency of the cover assets and maintains a register listing the assets provided as cover from time to time in respect of the Pfandbriefe of any given type.

The aggregate principal amount of assets in these Cover Pools must at all times at least be equal to the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Pfandbriefe issued against such Cover Pool. Moreover, the aggregate interest yield on any such Cover Pool must at all times be at least equal to the aggregate interest payable on all Pfandbriefe relating to the Cover Pool. In addition, the coverage of all outstanding Pfandbriefe with respect to principal and interest must also at all times be ensured on the basis of the present value (Barwert). Finally, the present value of the assets contained in the Cover Pool must exceed the total amount of liabilities from the corresponding Pfandbriefe and derivatives by at least 2 per cent (sichernde Überdeckung).

Such 2 per cent excess cover must consist of highly liquid assets. Qualifying assets for the excess cover are (i) debt securities of the German government, a special fund of the German government, a German state, the European Communities, the states comprising the European Economic Area, Switzerland, the United States, Canada, Japan, any other European state with full OECD member status, the European Investment Bank, the World Bank, the Council of Europe Development Bank, or the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development; (ii) debt securities guaranteed by any of the foregoing entities; and (iii) credit balances maintained with the European Central Bank, the central banks of the member states of the European Union and appropriate credit institutions.

The Pfandbrief Bank must record in the register of cover assets for any Cover Pool of a given Pfandbrief type each asset and the liabilities arising from derivatives. Derivatives may be entered in such register only with the consent of the trustee and the counterparty.

The Pfandbrief Bank must command over an appropriate risk management system meeting the requirements specified in detail in the Pfandbrief Act and must comply with comprehensive disclosure requirements on a quarterly and annual basis set out in detail in the Pfandbrief Act.

Cover Pool for Mortgage Pfandbriefe

The principal assets qualifying for the Cover Pool for Mortgage Pfandbriefe are loans secured by mortgages which may serve as cover up to the initial 60 per cent of the value of the property, as assessed by experts of the Pfandbrief Bank not taking part in the credit decision in accordance with comprehensive evaluation rules designed to arrive at the fair market value of the property.

The property that may be encumbered by the mortgages must be situated in a state of the European Economic Area, Switzerland, the United States, Canada or Japan.

In addition, the Cover Pool for Mortgage Pfandbriefe may comprise a limited portion of other assets as follows: (i) equalization claims converted into bonds; (ii) subject to certain qualifications, those assets which may also be included in the 2 per cent excess cover described above, up to a total sum of 10 per cent of the aggregate principal amount of outstanding Mortgage Pfandbriefe; (iii) the assets which may also be included in the Cover Pool for Public Sector Pfandbriefe referred to below, up to a total of 20 per cent of the aggregate principal amount of outstanding Mortgage Pfandbriefe, whereby the assets pursuant to (ii) above will be deducted, and, finally, (iv) claims arising under interest rate and currency swaps as well as under other qualifying derivatives contracted under standardized master agreements with certain qualifying counterparties, provided that it is assured that the claims arising under such derivatives will not be prejudiced in the event of the insolvency of the Pfandbrief Bank or any other Cover Pool maintained by it. The amount of the claims of the Pfandbrief Bank arising under derivatives which are included in the Cover Pool measured against the total amount of all assets forming part of the Cover Pool as well as the amount of the liabilities of the Pfandbrief Bank arising from such derivatives measured against the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Mortgage Pfandbriefe plus the liabilities arising from derivatives may in either case not exceed 12 per cent, calculated in each case on the basis of the net present values.

Cover Pool for Public Sector Pfandbriefe

In accordance with § 20 of the Pfandbrief Act, the Cover Pool for Public Sector Pfandbriefe may comprise payment claims under loans, bonds or similar transactions or certain other receivables of a wide spectrum of states and other public instrumentalities, including, but not limited to: (i) the German government as well as any German state, municipality or other qualifying public body in Germany; (ii) any state of the European Economic Area, Switzerland, the United States, Canada or Japan; (iii) any other European state with full OECD member status; (iv) the regional governments and local territorial authorities mentioned in para. (ii) above, if certain solvability conditions are met; (v) non-profit administrative authorities controlled by the central or regional governments or local territorial authorities of the states referred to in (ii) above if certain solvability conditions are met; (vi) the European Investment Bank, the World Bank, the Council of Europe Development Bank, or the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development; and, finally, (vii) any entity the obligations of which are guaranteed by a public entity referred to or mentioned in (i) through (iv) and (vi) above.

The Cover Pool may furthermore include the following assets: (i) equalization claims converted into bonds; (ii) credit balances maintained with the European Central Bank, a central bank of any EU member state or a suitable credit institution, up to a total sum of 10 per cent of the aggregate principal amount of outstanding Public Sector Pfandbriefe; and (iii) claims arising under derivatives as mentioned above, subject to the conditions and restrictions described in such paragraph. The limitations which apply to Mortgage Pfandbriefe apply here as well.

Cover Pool for Ship Mortgage Pfandbriefe

The principal assets of the Cover Pool for Ship Mortgage Pfandbriefe are loans secured by ship mortgages. Any such mortgage may serve as cover up to an amount not exceeding 60 per cent of the fair market value of the ship.

In addition, the Cover Pool for Ship Mortgage Pfandbriefe may include other assets of the kind which qualify for a Cover Pool of Mortgage Pfandbriefe (see above).

Insolvency Proceedings

In the event of the institution of insolvency proceedings over the assets of the Pfandbrief Bank, any Cover Pool maintained by it would not be part of the insolvency estate, and, therefore, such insolvency would not automatically result in an insolvency of any Cover Pool. Only if at the same time or thereafter the relevant Cover Pool were to become insolvent, separate insolvency proceedings would be initiated against such Cover Pool by the BaFin. In this case, holders of Pfandbriefe would have the first claim on the respective Cover Pool. Their preferential right would also extend to interest on the Pfandbriefe accrued after the commencement of insolvency proceedings. Furthermore, but only to the extent that holders of Pfandbriefe suffer a loss, holders would also have recourse to any assets of the Pfandbrief Bank not included in the Cover Pools. As regards those assets, holders of the Pfandbriefe would rank equal with other unsecured and unsubordinated creditors of the Pfandbrief Bank.

One or two administrators (Sachwalter - "Administrator") will be appointed in the case of the insolvency of the Pfandbrief Bank to administer each Cover Pool for the sole benefit of the holders of Pfandbriefe. The Administrator will be appointed by the court having jurisdiction at the location of the head office of the Pfandbrief Bank at the request of the BaFin before or after the institution of insolvency proceedings. The Administrator will be subject to the supervision of the court and also of the BaFin with respect to the duties of the Pfandbrief Bank arising in connection with the administration of the assets included in the relevant Cover Pool. The Administrator will be entitled to dispose of the Cover Pool's assets and receive all payments on the relevant assets to ensure full satisfaction of the claims of the holders of Pfandbriefe. To the extent, however, that those assets are obviously not necessary to satisfy such claims, the insolvency receiver of the Pfandbrief Bank is entitled to demand the transfer of such assets to the insolvency estate.

Subject to the consent of the BaFin, the Administrator may transfer all or part of the cover assets and the liabilities arising from the Pfandbriefe issued against such assets to another Pfandbrief Bank.

Type and Class of the Pfandbriefe

The Issuer will issue different series of non-interest bearing Pfandbriefe having specified denominations (zero coupon Pfandbriefe), and fixed rate or floating rate Pfandbriefe (or Pfandbriefe with a combination of interest structures) under the Programme. Each series may be subdivided into different tranches. The terms of the Pfandbriefe of any one tranche must be identical in every respect, whereas the tranches of a series may have different issue dates, interest commencement dates and/or issue prices.

The type of Pfandbriefe (i.e., mortgage Pfandbriefe or public sector Pfandbriefe) as well as the final terms and characteristics of the Pfandbriefe of any tranche or series and the ISIN or any other security identification code will be specified in the Final Terms (see Schedule 6). The Final Terms will also set forth the terms and conditions applicable to the relevant issue. In case of Pfandbriefe other than Jumbo Pfandbriefe, the Terms and Conditions comprise the "Terms and Conditions" applicable to all issues (see Schedule 2), and in case of Jumbo Pfandbriefe, the Terms and Conditions comprise the "Terms and Conditions" (see Schedule 3).

The Terms and Conditions may be prepared by the Issuer in consolidated form also. This will always be the case in case of Jumbo Pfandbriefe, and will usually be the case if the Issuer intends to sell the Pfandbriefe to non-qualified investors within the meaning of Section 2 no. 5 of the German Securities Prospectus Act. For these purposes, the Issuer will use the relevant sections set out in the form of Final Terms (see Schedule 6) as the basis and publish such sections, in each case together with the consolidated version of the conditions of Terms and Conditions of the Pfandbriefe, in accordance with Section 14 of the German Securities Prospectus Act. In the event of non-consolidated conditions, the final conditions will be determined using the relevant sections set out in the form of Final Terms.

Governing Law (see Schedule 2 Terms and Conditions § 11 and Schedule 3 Terms and Conditions § 9)

The Pfandbriefe of each tranche or series will be issued under the terms specified in the Final Terms, under German law

Form, Custody and Transfer of the Pfandbriefe (see Schedule 2 Terms and Conditions § 1(b) and (c) and Schedule 3 Terms and Conditions § 1(2))

The Pfandbriefe will be issued as Global Pfandbriefe in bearer form and in the denominations specified in the Final Terms. The aggregate principal amount of each tranche or series will initially be represented by a Temporary Global Pfandbrief and subsequently by a Permanent Global Pfandbrief, which will, if the Pfandbriefe are not issued in New Global Note form, be deposited with Clearstream Banking AG, Frankfurt am Main (Neue Börsenstraße 1, D-60487 Frankfurt am Main, Germany), or in the case of Pfandbriefe, other than Jumbo Pfandbriefe, a depositary common to Clearstream Banking, société anonyme Luxembourg (42 Avenue JF Kennedy; L-1855 Luxembourg; Luxembourg) and Euroclear Bank SA/NV (1 Boulevard du Roi Albert IIB - 1210 Brussels, Belgium) or any other clearing system (each a "Clearing System"), as specified in the Final Terms.

If specified in the relevant Final Terms, Pfandbriefe (other than Jumbo Pfandbriefe) potentially eligible as collateral for the Eurosystem monetary policy and intra-day credit operations may be issued in a form compliant with the New Global Note Structure for international bearer debt securities and will be kept in safe custody with a common safekeeper for Euroclear and/or Clearstream Banking, Luxembourg, the International Central Securities Depositories (the "ICSD").

Definitive securities will not be issued, unless the Final Terms provide for the issue of definitive securities.

The Pfandbriefe may be transferred in accordance with rules of the relevant Clearing System.

Currency (see Schedule 2 Terms and Conditions § 1(a) and Schedule 3 Terms and Conditions § 1(1))

The currency of issue of the Pfandbriefe is the euro, unless the Final Terms provide for a different currency (see "Risk Factors – Risk Factors Relating to the Pfandbriefe").

Status and Ranking (see Schedule 2 Terms and Conditions § 2 and Schedule 3 Terms and Conditions § 5)

The Pfandbriefe will to be issued will at all times rank pari passu and without any preference among themselves. In accordance with the Pfandbriefgesetz and depending on the type of Pfandbrief, the Pfandbriefe will be secured by a specific cover pool (see section "Rules applicable to all Types of Pfandbriefe", p. 74).

In the event of the institution of insolvency proceedings over the assets of the Issuer, the cover pool maintained by it would not be part of the insolvency estate, and, therefore, the holders of Pfandbriefe would have the first claim on the cover pool (see section "Rules applicable to all Types of Pfandbriefe" under "Insolvency Proceedings", p. 76)

Early Redemption Rights (see Schedule 2 Terms and Conditions § 4(b) and Schedule 3 Terms and Conditions § 3)

The Final Terms may provide for an early redemption right (ordentliches Kündigungsrecht) of the Issuer, or may exclude such early redemption rights.

(i) No General Early Redemption Right (ordentliches Kündigungsrecht) for Holders of Pfandbriefe

There is no general early redemption right in relation to the Pfandbriefe for holders of Pfandbriefe prior to the final redemption date (see Schedule 2 Terms and Conditions and Schedule 3 Terms and Conditions § 3).

(ii) Early Redemption at the Option of the Issuer

Otherwise, the redemption of the Pfandbriefe prior to maturity may only be required if the Final Terms provide for a call option by the Issuer (see Schedule 2 Terms and Conditions § 4(b) alternative 2) (see "Risk Factors – Risk Factors Relating to the Pfandbriefe").

(iii) Early Redemption Procedure

If the Issuer may redeem the Pfandbriefe early, the Pfandbriefholders have to be notified of such redemption. This is done by giving notice in accordance with § 9 of the Terms and Conditions (see Schedule 2 Terms and Conditions § 9).

(iv) Purchase

The Issuer may at any time cancel Pfandbriefe purchased in the open market (see Schedule 2 Terms and Conditions § 4(c)).

Interest (see Schedule 2 Terms and Conditions § 3 and Schedule 3 Terms and Conditions § 2)

The Final Terms may provide for the issue of non-interest bearing, fixed rate or floating rate Pfandbriefe. The Final Terms may provide for maximum or minimum interest, or a step-up interest or any other interest method.

If none or one of the following types of interest have been provided for a Pfandbrief, the interest periods will be specified in the Final Terms.

(i) Fixed Rate Pfandbriefe

If the Final Terms provide for fixed interest on the Pfandbriefe (see Schedule 2 Terms and Conditions § 3 and Schedule 3 Terms and Conditions § 2), the Final Terms will specify the interest rate or the interest amount, as applicable, the interest periods, the interest payment date(s) per calendar year, the applicable business day convention and the interest calculation method (see "Risk Factors – Risk Factors Relating to the Pfandbriefe").

(ii) Zero Coupon Pfandbriefe

If the Pfandbriefe do not bear interest during their maturity, Zero Coupon Pfandbriefe, this will be specified in the Final Terms.

If, according to the provisions in the Final Terms, the Pfandbriefe do not bear interest during certain periods only, the Final Terms will specify the commencement and the end of each such period (see Schedule 2 Terms and Conditions § 3 and "Risk Factors – Risk Factors Relating to the Pfandbriefe").

(iii) Floating Rate Pfandbriefe

If the Final Terms provide for floating interest (not linked to the performance of a reference asset) on the Pfandbriefe, the Final Terms, in addition to the commencement and the end of interest accrual, the interest payment date(s) or interest period(s) per calendar year and the interest calculation method, will specify the business day convention, the individual interest components, the reference interest rate and the methodology of determination and calculation (also in case of market disruption) (see "Risk Factors – Risk Factors Relating to the Pfandbriefe").

The interest components will generally comprise a reference interest rate (in particular a EURIBOR or LIBOR rate) and a margin, if applicable. The Final Terms will set out how the reference interest rate will be determined.

The range of volatility of floating rates may be limited by provisions in the Final Terms stipulating a maximum and/or a minimum interest. The range of volatility may be increased by including multipliers (see Schedule 2 Terms and Conditions § 3.3(c)).

(iv) Prescription

The right to interest under bearer Pfandbriefe is subject to prescription. The period of prescription of the right to interest under bearer Pfandbriefe is two years. The prescription period begins at the end of the 10-year period during which the Pfandbriefe must be duly presented (see Schedule 2 Terms and Conditions § 7).

(v) Calculation Agent

Unless otherwise provided in the Final Terms, the relevant amount of interest payable on any Pfandbrief will be finally and conclusively determined by WGZ BANK AG Westdeutsche Genossenschafts-Zentralbank as Calculation Agent.

(vi) Risk Factors

See "Risk Factors – Risk Factors relating to the Pfandbriefe".

Due Dates and Payments (see Schedule 2 Terms and Conditions § 4(a) and § 5 and Schedule 3 Terms and Conditions § 3)

The Final Terms may provide for redemption of the principal amount of the Pfandbriefe at a specified redemption date or for redemption of the Pfandbriefe in instalments.

(i) Redemption at Maturity (see Schedule 2 Terms and Conditions § 4(a) and Schedule 3 Terms and Conditions § 3)

The redemption date in relation to the principal amount at maturity will be specified in the Final Terms. On the redemption date, the holders are entitled to payment of the principal amount of the Pfandbriefe.

(ii) Redemption in Instalments (see Schedule 2 Terms and Conditions § 4(a))

If the Final Terms provide for redemption of the Pfandbriefe in instalments, the redemption dates and the payments due on such dates will be specified in the Final Terms. The aggregate amount of redemption instalments will at least equal the principal amount.

(iii) Early Redemption

In the event of early termination, the redemption date will be specified in the provisions applicable to the relevant termination.

(iv) Method of Redemption (see Schedule 2 Terms and Conditions § 5 and Schedule 2 Terms and Conditions § 4)

Any amounts payable in accordance with the Terms and Conditions of the Pfandbriefe will be paid by the Issuer to the relevant Clearing System for credit to the accounts of the relevant depositary banks to be paid to the Pfandbriefholders.

If any due date for payment is not a business day, the Final Terms will provide for the determination of an alternative payment date. In such event, the Pfandbriefholders will neither be entitled to payment as a consequence of the payment date falling after the due date for payment nor to default interest (Verzugszinsen) or any other compensation on account of such adjustment.

(v) Prescription

The rights to payment of principal under bearer Pfandbriefe are subject to prescription. The period of prescription of the rights to payment under bearer Pfandbriefe is two years. The prescription period begins at the end of the 10-year period during which the Pfandbriefe must be duly presented (see Schedule 2 Terms and Conditions § 7).

(vi) Early Redemption Rights

The different early redemption rights are set out above under "Early Redemption Rights".

D. Information concerning the Keep-well statement (Patronatserklärung) of WGZ BANK

Keep-well statement

WGZ BANK has granted a Keep-well statement ("Patronatserklärung") for the benefit of the Issuer, pursuant to which WGZ BANK has undertaken, in the maximum proportion of its participation in the Issuer's share capital, to procure – except in case of political risk – that the Issuer shall always be run and financially equipped so that it can meet its obligations which have been entered into during WGZ BANK's shareholding in the Issuer as and when they fall due.

Application of Keep-well statement

In the event the Issuer should not be able to pay its obligations for Non Equity Securities issued under the Programme when due, WGZ BANK is, during the term of its shareholdings of the Issuer, required to pay to the Issuer all amounts so that the Issuer is in a position to pay any amount due principal and/or interest to the holders of Non Equity Securities.

The Keep-well statement does not constitute a guarantee. Therefore, it does not give holders of Non Equity Securities any direct payment claim against WGZ BANK in the event that the Issuer defaults with regard to payments to be made under the Non Equity Securities. No assurance is provided that WGZ BANK will remain a majority shareholder of the Issuer.

E. Other Conditions applicable to all Non Equity Securities

Yield The yield and the method whereby the yield is calculated will in each case be disclosed in the Final Terms if this is practicable at the time the Final Terms are published.

The issue date of each issue of Non Equity Securities to be issued under the Programme will be specified in the relevant Final Terms.

Selling Restrictions

The Non Equity Securities are freely transferable. Offers and sales of Non Equity Securities issued under this Programme are subject to the selling restrictions applicable in the jurisdictions where the Non Equity Securities are offered or sold. The selling restrictions in respect of such jurisdictions as are parties to the Agreement on the European Economic Area (EEA), the United States and the United Kingdom are set out below. Additional selling restrictions, if any, may be set out in the Final Terms.

(i) EEA States

In relation to each Member State of the European Economic Area which has implemented the Prospectus Directive (each, a Relevant Member State), each Dealer has represented and agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to represent and agree, that with effect from and including the date on which the Prospectus Directive is implemented in that Relevant Member State (the Relevant Implementation Date) it has not made and will not make an offer of Non Equity Securities which are the subject of the offering contemplated by this Base Prospectus as completed by the final terms in relation thereto to the public in that Relevant Member State except that it may, with effect from and including the Relevant Implementation Date, make an offer of such Non Equity Securities to the public in that Relevant Member State:

- (a) if the final terms in relation to the Non Equity Securities specify that an offer of those Non Equity Securities may be made other than pursuant to Article 3(2) of the Prospectus Directive in that Relevant Member State (a Non-exempt Offer), in the period beginning on the date of publication of a prospectus in relation to such Non Equity Securities which has been approved by the competent authority in that Relevant Member State or, where appropriate, approved in another Relevant Member State and notified to the competent authority in that Relevant Member State, provided that any such prospectus has subsequently been completed by the final terms contemplating such Non-exempt Offer, in accordance with the Prospectus Directive, in the period beginning and ending on the date specified in such prospectus or final

- terms, as applicable;
- (b) at any time to legal entities which are authorised or regulated to operate in the financial markets or, if not so authorised or regulated, whose corporate purpose is solely to invest in securities;

 - (e) at any time in any other circumstances falling within Article 3(2) of the Prospectus Directive, provided that no such offer of Non Equity Securities referred to in (b) to (e) above shall require the Issuer or any Dealer to publish a prospectus pursuant to Article 3 of the Prospectus Directive or supplement a prospectus pursuant to Article 16 of the Prospectus Directive.

For the purposes of this provision, the expression an offer of Non Equity Securities to the public in relation to any Non Equity Securities in any Relevant Member State means the communication in any form and by any means of sufficient information on the terms of the offer and the Non Equity Securities to be offered so as to enable an investor to decide to purchase or subscribe the Non Equity Securities, as the same may be varied in that Member State by any measure implementing the Prospectus Directive in that Member State and the expression Prospectus Directive means Directive 2003/71/EC and includes any relevant implementing measure in each Relevant Member State.

(ii) United States

The Non Equity Securities have not been and will not be registered under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended, (the "Securities Act") or with any securities regulatory authority of any State or other jurisdiction of the United States, and may be subject to certain U.S. tax law requirements. Subject to certain exceptions, the Non Equity Securities issued in reliance on Tefra C and Tefra D may not be offered, sold or delivered within the United States of America and Non Equity Securities issued in reliance on Tefra D may not be offered, sold or delivered to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. Persons (as defined in the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and the regulations thereunder). Each Dealer has agreed that it will not offer, sell or deliver any Non Equity Securities within the United States, except as permitted by the Dealer Agreement.

In addition, until 40 days after the commencement of the offering of any identifiable tranche of such Non Equity Securities, an offer or sale of Non Equity Securities within the United States by any dealer (whether or not participating in the offering) may violate the registration requirements of the Securities Act.

(iii) United Kingdom

Each Dealer has represented, warranted and agreed and each further Dealer appointed will be required to represent, warrant and agree that:

- (1) in relation to any Non Equity Securities which have a maturity of less than one year, (a) it is a person whose ordinary activities involve it in acquiring, holding,

managing or disposing of investments (as principal or agent) for the purposes of its business and (b) it has not offered or sold and will not offer or sell any Non Equity Securities other than to persons whose ordinary activities involve them in acquiring, holding, managing or disposing of investments (as principal or agent) for the purposes of their businesses or who it is reasonable to expect will acquire, hold, manage or dispose of investments (as principal or agent) for the purposes of their businesses where the issue of the Non Equity Securities would otherwise constitute a contravention of section 19 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (the "FSMA") by the Issuer;

- (2) it has only communicated or caused to be communicated and will only communicate or cause to be communicated any invitation or inducement to engage in investment activity (within the meaning of section 21 of the FSMA) received by it in connection with the issue or sale of any Non Equity Securities in circumstances in which section 21(1) of the FSMA does not apply to the Issuer; and
- (3) it has complied and will comply with all applicable provisions of the FSMA with respect to anything done by it in relation to such Non Equity Securities in, from or otherwise involving the United Kingdom.

Tax Treatment of the Non Equity Securities (see Terms and Conditions Schedules 1 and 2 § 7)

If payment under the Non Equity Securities is made to investors which are not resident in the Federal Republic of Germany, no tax should be withheld at source, i.e. by the Issuer, in the Federal Republic of Germany. In the event that withholding tax is introduced in Germany, in case of Non Equity Securities (other than Pfandbriefe) a gross-up amount must be paid by the Issuer to the relevant Noteholder equal to the amount required to put the Noteholder into the position he would be in if no withholding tax had been withheld (see Schedules 1 and 2 § 7). In such event, the Issuer will have an extraordinary redemption right (Sonderkündigungsrecht) (see Schedules 1 and 2 § 4(b)).

If the Non Equity Securities are offered by the Issuer other than in the Federal Republic of Germany, information relating to withholding tax may be disclosed in the Final Terms or, in the event of an offer which is made after completion of the Final Terms, in a supplement to this Base Prospectus.

Federal Republic of Germany

The following discussion of certain German tax consequences of buying, holding or disposing of the Non Equity Securities is based on tax laws, regulations, decisions, judgments and administrative decrees currently in effect, which may be amended or construed differently, potentially with retroactive or retrospective effect. However, this section does not refer to all possible tax considerations which are relevant to the decision of any potential purchaser with respect to buying, holding or disposing of a Non Equity Security; in particular, it does not refer to specific circumstances which may be relevant to certain purchasers. This means that the following text exclusively refers to Non Equity Securities as an investment as such (unless expressly indicated otherwise) and does not address any persons in their specific tax situation. The information contained in the following section is not intended as and does not purport to be legal or tax advice.

Potential investors in the Non Equity Securities are therefore advised to consult their own tax and legal advisers as to the German and other tax consequences of buying, holding or disposing of the Non Equity Securities.

German Tax Residents

Taxation of Interest Income

Under German tax law, currently in effect, payment of principal on the Non Equity Securities is not subject to German taxation whereas payment of interest on the Non Equity Securities, including payment for interest accrued to a disposal of a Note and which is credited separately ("Accrued Interest"; Stückzinsen) to persons who are tax residents of Germany (including persons whose residence, habitual abode, statutory seat or place of management is located in Germany, a "German Holder") is subject to German income or corporate income tax. If the Non Equity Securities are held in a German business establishment for trade tax purposes, interest income derived from the Non Equity Securities will also be subject to trade tax on income, which is a municipal tax levied at an effective tax rate of currently 12% to 20% depending on the trade tax factor applied by the relevant municipality.

Withholding Tax on Interest Income

If the Non Equity Securities are held in a custodial account maintained by a German Holder with a German branch of a German or foreign bank or financial services institution (a "German Disbursing Agent"), which pays or credits the interest, a 30% withholding tax (Zinsabschlagsteuer) on interest payments, including Accrued Interest received, plus a 5.5% solidarity surcharge thereon, will be levied, resulting in a total withholding tax charge of 31.65% on the gross amount of interest paid. Accrued Interest paid by a German Holder upon the purchase of the Non Equity Securities may be set-off against the amount of interest income received by such German Holder and, under certain circumstances, may reduce the amount subject to withholding tax. If the Non Equity Securities are presented for payment or credit at the office of the German Disbursing Agent (over-the-counter-transaction; Tafelgeschäft) the withholding tax will be imposed at a rate of 35% (plus a 5.5% solidarity surcharge thereon), resulting in a total tax charge of 36.925%.

If the Noteholder is an individual to whom income from the Non Equity Securities constitutes income from a capital investment and such Noteholder has filed a certificate of exemption (Freistellungsauftag) with the German Disbursing Agent, no tax will be withheld by the German Disbursing Agent to the extent that the interest income derived from the Non Equity Securities together with other investment income administered by the German Disbursing Agent does not exceed the maximum exemption amount shown on this certificate. Similarly, no tax will be withheld if the Noteholder submits to the German Disbursing Agent a certificate of non-assessment (Nichtveranlagungsbescheinigung) issued by the competent local tax office.

Withholding tax and the solidarity surcharge thereon might be credited as prepayments against the German Holder's final tax liability for German personal or corporate income tax purposes and the respective solidarity surcharge, or, if in excess of such final tax liability, refunded upon application.

German tax resident individuals (private investors) are entitled to a standard deduction (Werbungskostenpauschbetrag) of EUR 51 (EUR 102 for married couples filing their tax return jointly) in computing their income from capital investment (including income earned from the Non Equity Securities) as well as a personal annual exemption (Sparer-Freibetrag) of EUR 750 (EUR 1,500 for married couples filing their tax return jointly) with respect to such investment income.

Disposal or Redemption of the Non Equity Securities

Capital gains resulting from the disposal or redemption of Non Equity Securities (or, as the case may be, from the payment at maturity of the Non Equity Securities) realised by individual German Holders holding the Non Equity Securities as private assets ("Private German Investors") are generally taxable if the capital gain is realised within one year after the acquisition of the Non Equity Securities. Capital losses realised by Private German Investors in respect of the Non Equity Securities may only be set-off against taxable capital gains resulting from a disposal of Non Equity Securities or from other private transactions within the same fiscal year and, subject to certain limitations, in the preceding year or in subsequent years.

Capital gains realised by Private German Investors are only taxable if the aggregate amount derived from taxable private transactions exceeds an exempt threshold (Freigrenze) of EUR 512 in one calendar year.

Capital gains derived from the disposal or redemption of Non Equity Securities are not subject to German income tax if the Non Equity Securities are sold or redeemed more than one year after their acquisition, provided that the Non Equity Securities do not qualify as financial innovations, as described under the following caption "Special Rules for Financial Innovations".

Irrespective of a holding period, any capital gain resulting from the disposal or redemption of Non Equity Securities (or, as the case may be, from the payment at maturity of the Non Equity Securities) are subject to income or corporate income tax, including trade tax, if such Non Equity Securities are held as business assets of a German Holder.

Special Rules for Financial Innovations

To the extent that Non Equity Securities are classified as financial innovations ("Financial Innovations"; Finanzinnovationen), special provisions apply to the disposal or redemption, or upon maturity, of such Non Equity Securities. In particular, debt instruments may classify as Financial Innovations if they provide for a floating rate, an issue discount or certain optional redemption rights.

If Non Equity Securities are classified as Financial Innovations, capital gains arising upon the disposal or redemption, or upon maturity, of Non Equity Securities realised by a Private German Investor (including capital gains so derived by a secondary or subsequent purchaser who is a Private German Investor) are subject to income tax in an amount equivalent to the pro rata yield to maturity, regardless of the one-year holding period described above under the caption "Disposal or Redemption of the Non Equity Securities". If no yield to maturity (Emissionsrendite) can be established, the difference between the proceeds from the disposal or redemption and the purchase price of the Non Equity Securities (market yield; Marktrendite), is deemed to be interest income. If Non Equity Securities are denominated in a currency other than Euro, the market yield is calculated in the respective currency. Currency gains are only taxable if the disposal or redemption occurs within one year after the acquisition of the Non Equity Securities. If a yield to maturity can be established, only the part of the capital gain attributable to such yield to maturity during the period the respective German Private Investor held the Note is subject to income tax.

Upon the disposal or redemption, or upon maturity of Non Equity Securities that are classified as Financial Innovations, the market yield is subject to 30% withholding tax (plus a solidarity surcharge of 5.5% thereon) if the Non Equity Securities are held in a custodial account by the same German Disbursing Agent since the acquisition of the Non Equity Securities. If the Non Equity Securities have not been so held by the same German Disbursing Agent, withholding tax will be imposed at the rate of 30% of the proceeds received upon the disposal or redemption, or upon the maturity, of the Non Equity Securities.

As described above such withholding tax might be credited or refunded upon application.

German Tax Non-Residents

Income derived from the Non Equity Securities by persons who are not tax residents of Germany is in general exempt from German income or corporate income taxation, and no withholding tax shall be withheld (even if the Non Equity Securities are held with a German Disbursing Agent), provided (i) the Non Equity Securities are not held as business assets of a German permanent establishment of the Noteholder, including a permanent representative, or fixed base of the Noteholder, (ii) the income derived from the Non Equity Securities does not otherwise constitute German source income (such as income from the letting and leasing of certain German situs property), (iii) the Non Equity Securities are not presented for payment at the offices of a German branch of a German or foreign bank or financial services institution in an over-the-counter-transaction (Tafelgeschäft) and, (iv) in the event that the Non Equity Securities are held in a custodial account maintained by a German Disbursing Agent, the Noteholder complies with the applicable procedural rules under German law and provides evidence of the fact that the Non Equity Securities are not subject to taxation in Germany.

If the interest is subject to German taxation (for example, if the Non Equity Securities are held as business assets of a German permanent establishment of a Noteholder), such Noteholder is subject to a tax treatment similar to that described above under the caption "German Tax Residents". Under certain circumstances, foreign Holders of the Notes may benefit from tax reductions or tax exemptions under double tax treaties, if any, entered into with Germany.

European Union Directive on the Taxation of Savings Income

On 3 June 2003 the Council of the European Union (ECOFIN) approved a directive regarding the taxation of interest income. Accordingly, each EU Member State must provide to the tax authorities of the other Member States details of the payment of interest made by a person in its jurisdiction to any individual resident in the other relevant EU Member State.

For a transitional period, Austria, Belgium and Luxembourg may opt instead to withhold tax from interest payments within the meaning of the directive at a rate of 15% for the first three years from application of the provisions of the directive, 20% for the subsequent three years, and 35% from the seventh year after application of the provisions of the directive.

The Council of the European Union agreed that the provisions to be enacted for implementation of the directive had to be applied by the member states as of 1 July 2005. This presupposed that (i) Switzerland, Liechtenstein, San Marino, Monaco and Andorra apply measures equivalent to those contained in the directive, in accordance with agreements entered into by them with the European Community and (ii) also all the relevant dependent or associated territories (the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man and the dependent or associated territories in the Caribbean) apply from that same date an automatic exchange of information or, during the transitional period described above, apply a withholding tax in the described manner.

By legislative regulations dated 26 January 2004, the German Federal Government enacted the provisions for implementing the directive into German law, which entered into full force and effect on 1 July 2005.

Gift or Inheritance Taxation

No estate, inheritance or gift taxes with respect to any Non Equity Securities will arise under the laws of Germany, if, in the case of estate and inheritance taxes, both the decedent and the beneficiary, and, in the case of gift taxes, both the donor and the donee, are tax non-residents and are not deemed to be a tax resident of Germany at the time of the transfer and such Non Equity Securities are not attributable to a permanent establishment in Germany. In the case of a decedent, donor or heir who is a German national, this only applies if such person has been a non-resident of Germany for more than five consecutive years.

Stamp Duty

No stamp, issue, registration or similar taxes or duties will be payable in Germany in connection with the issuance, delivery or execution of the Non Equity Securities. Currently, net assets tax is not levied in Germany.

Changes by reform of business taxation

Please find below some selected changes in the taxation of Holders of Notes or Financial Innovations by the Business Tax Reform Act 2008 (Unternehmensteuerreformgesetz 2008). This statement is not exhaustive.

In the course of the reform of business taxation, a final flat-rate tax (Abgeltungsteuer) on investment income will be established.

From 1 January 2009, the taxation of the Notes will change as follows:

Tax residents

Income from the Notes or Financial Innovations will qualify as income from capital investment and, thus, be subject to German personal or corporate income tax (in both cases plus solidarity surcharge) and additionally subject to trade tax if the Notes or Financial Innovations are held as business assets. This treatment will be independent from a one-year holding period.

Withholding tax arises as follows:

Interest income:

If the Notes or Financial Innovations or coupons are kept or administered in a securities deposit account by a German credit or financial services institution (or by a German branch of a foreign institution), or by a German securities trading firm (Wertpapierhandelsunternehmen) or a German securities trading bank (Wertpapierhandelsbank) which pays or credits the interest, a 25 per cent. withholding tax, plus a 5.5 per cent. solidarity surcharge, resulting in a total withholding tax charge of 26.375 per cent., will be levied on interest payments or credits. The same will apply, if Notes or Financial Innovations or coupons are presented for payment or credit at the office of a German credit or financial services institution (or at a German branch of a foreign institution), or a German securities trading firm or a German securities trading bank.

Capital gains

If the Notes or Financial Innovations are kept or administered in a domestic securities deposit account by a German credit institution or financial services institution (or by a German branch of a foreign institution) or by a German securities trading firm or a German securities trading bank, a 25 per cent. withholding tax, plus. solidarity surcharge, will be levied on the positive difference between the purchase price paid by the Holder of Notes or Financial Innovations and the selling price or redemption amount, as the case may be, resulting in a total withholding tax charge of 26.375 per cent. If such criteria are not fulfilled, if e.g. the Notes are sold or redeemed after a transfer from another securities deposit account, the Holder of Notes or Financial Innovations may, under certain circumstances, provide evidence for the purchase price. If such evidence is not provided, the price difference as the taxable base for the withholding tax and the solidarity surcharge will be substituted by a flat amount of 30 per cent. of the selling price or the redemption price.

For individuals holding the Notes or Financial Innovations as private assets, this withholding tax shall generally be final and only be included in the relevant tax assessment upon application, especially if the personal income tax rate lies below 25 per cent. A unitary flat sum (Sparer-Pauschbetrag) in the amount of 801 Euro (1,602 Euro for married couples filing their tax return jointly) will be introduced to be deducted in computing the overall investment income. The deduction of actually accrued expenses will not be possible any more.

Transition rules:

Interest payments received after 31 December 2008 will be taxable and subject to withholding tax according to the new tax regime mentioned above.

Capital gains from the disposal or redemption of Notes only will be subject to the new tax regime as mentioned above if the Notes have been purchased after 31 December 2008.

Provided no repayment of principal or consideration is promised or granted, capital gains from the disposal or redemption of Financial Innovations will be subject to the new tax regime mentioned above if the Financial Innovations (i) have been purchased after 31 December 2008 or (ii) have been disposed or redeemed after 30 June 2009.

Otherwise, capital gains from the disposal or redemption accruing to the Holders of Financial Innovations after 31 December 2008 will be subject to the new tax regime mentioned above.

Non-Tax residents

Persons who are not tax resident in Germany, are in general exempt from the German withholding tax plus solidarity surcharge. In the case of over-the-counter-transactions (payment or credit upon presentation of Notes or Financial Innovations or Coupons at the office of a German credit or financial services institution or at a German branch of a foreign institution or at a German securities trading firm or a German securities trading bank), with the exception of transactions entered into by foreign credit or financial services institutions, the 25 per cent. withholding tax plus solidarity surcharge, in total 26.375 per cent. applies. Under certain circumstances a refund might be available.

If according to German tax law the interest income received from the Notes or Financial Innovations kept or administered by a German credit or financial services institution (or by a German branch of a foreign institution) or by a German securities trading firm or a German securities trading bank is effectively connected with a German trade or business of a non-resident, the taxation corresponds to the taxation set out in the paragraph "Tax residents" above.

Luxembourg

The statements herein are based on the laws in force in the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg as of the date of this Prospectus and are subject to any changes in law. The following summary does not purport to be a comprehensive description of all the tax considerations which may be relevant to a decision to purchase, own or dispose of the Non Equity Securities. Each prospective holder or beneficial owner of Non Equity Securities should consult its tax adviser as to the Luxembourg tax consequences of the ownership and disposition of the Non Equity Securities.

Luxembourg non-residents

Under Luxembourg tax law currently in effect and subject to the application of the Luxembourg laws dated 21 June 2005 (the "Laws") implementing the European Council Directive 2003/48/EC on the taxation of savings income (the "Savings Directive") and several agreements concluded between Luxembourg and certain dependent or associated territories of the European Union ("EU"), there is no withholding tax on payments of interest (including accrued but unpaid interest) made to Luxembourg non-resident holders of the Non Equity Securities. There is also no Luxembourg withholding tax, subject to the application of the Laws, upon repayment of principal in case of reimbursement, redemption, repurchase or exchange of the Non Equity Securities.

Under the Savings Directive, a Luxembourg based paying agent (within the meaning of the Savings Directive) is required since 1 July 2005 to withhold tax on interest and other similar income paid by it to (or under certain circumstances, to the benefit of) an individual resident in another Member State or in certain EU dependent or associated territories, unless the beneficiary of the interest payments elects for the procedure of exchange of information or for the tax certificate procedure. The same regime applies to payments of interest and other similar income made to certain "residual entities" within the meaning of Article 4.2 of the Savings Directive established in a Member State or in certain EU dependent or associated territories (i.e., entities which are not legal persons (the Finnish and Swedish companies listed in Article 4.5 of the Savings Directive are not considered as legal persons for this purpose), whose profits are not taxed under the general arrangements for the business taxation, that are not UCITS recognised in accordance with the Council Directive 85/611/EEC or similar collective investment funds located in Jersey, Guernsey, the Isle of Man, the Turks and Caicos Islands, the Cayman Islands, Montserrat or the British Virgin Islands and have not opted to be treated as UCITS recognised in accordance with the Council Directive 85/611/EEC).

The withholding tax rate is initially 15 per cent. until June 30, 2008, increasing to 20 per cent. as from July 1, 2008, until June 30, 2011, and to 35 per cent. as from July 1, 2011. The withholding tax system will only apply during a transitional period, the ending of which depends on the conclusion of certain agreements relating to information exchange with certain third countries.

Luxembourg residents

There is no withholding tax on interest payments made to corporate resident holders of Non Equity Securities. Interest payments made by Luxembourg paying agents (defined in the same way as in the Savings Directive) to Luxembourg individual residents are subject to a 10 per cent. withholding tax. This withholding tax represents the final tax liability for the Luxembourg individual resident taxpayers, receiving the payment in the course of their private wealth.

Underwriters

The Non Equity Securities issued under this Programme may be placed by a group of underwriting banks or by individual banks (see section "Underwriting" below) or directly by the Issuer.

Paying Agents

Payments will be made in accordance with the Terms and Conditions. WGZ BANK AG, Westdeutsche Genossenschafts-Zentralbank, Ludwig-Erhard-Allee 20, 40227 Düsseldorf will be the Principal Paying Agent. The Issuer may appoint further paying agents other than the Principal Paying Agent referred to above and will give notice of any changes made to the Paying Agents. In the case that WGZ BANK will not be the Paying Agent for a Series of Non Equity Securities, the relevant Paying Agent(s) will be specified in the Final Terms.

Underwriting

The Non Equity Securities issued under this Programme may be placed by a group of underwriting banks or by individual banks or directly by the Issuer. The Issuer has entered into a Dealer Agreement with Dresdner Bank AG and the Dealers. In the event of underwriting by one or more banks, the names and addresses of the banks will be specified in the Final Terms.

Subscription Agreement

If Non Equity Securities are underwritten by a group of underwriting banks or by individual banks, the Issuer will enter into a subscription agreement with such banks for the purposes of underwriting. The underwriting banks will receive a commission for the underwriting and placing, if any, of the Non Equity Securities, details of such commission will be set forth in the Final Terms. The Issuer will make certain representations and warranties to the banks in the subscription agreement and will agree to be liable for any damage or loss incurred by the banks in connection with a breach of such representations and warranties.

Experts

In connection with the preparation of this Base Prospectus, the Issuer has not relied on statements made by experts.

Information Sources

Details relating to the information sources from which information included in the Final Terms have been obtained can be found in the relevant Final Terms.

Credit Rating As of the date of approval of this Base Prospectus, the Issuer has received the following ratings from Standard and Poor's set out below:

Issuer rating	A+/Stable/A-1
Public Sector Pfandbriefe	AAA
Mortgage Pfandbriefe	AAA
Certified Bank Deposits	A+/A-1
Unsecured Liabilities	A+
Short Term Liabilities	A-1
Secured Short Term Liabilities	A-1+

If a Series of Non Equity Securities will be separately rated, the relevant rating will be set out in the Final Terms.

Rating information is merely an aid for investors for the purposes of decision-making and cannot replace an individual judgment to be made by the investor and may not be taken as a recommendation to purchase or sell certain Non Equity Securities. Ratings are merely intended as a support when making an investment decision and are only one of the factors relevant to an evaluation, which factor must be seen and weighted in the context of other factors. As ratings often are amended only after the creditworthiness of an issuer has changed, investors have to make their own judgments although a rating may exist (see "Risk Factors – Risk Factors Relating to the Non Equity Securities").

Post-Issuance Information

The Final Terms will specify whether the Issuer will provide post-issuance information and, if so, the manner of information and where such information can be obtained.
